ABOUT THE COVER

On the front, Kentucky begins a new era as Bill Curry takes over as head football coach of the Wildcats. Ironically, Curry comes aboard as UK celebrates its 100th season of intercollegiate football.

On the back, seniors Randy Holleran (40), Joel Mazzella (63), and Chris Tolbert (20) hope to make their final year a memorable one. All three have been named to several preseason All-Southeastern Conference teams. (Cover photos by David Coyle).

COVERING KENTUCKY
FOOTBALL IN '90

The 1990 edition of Kentucky Football is a source of information for the media covering the Wildcats this fall. Additional information is available upon request, including press releases, photographs, film clips and slides. Contact the UK Sports Information Office at (606) 257-3838 for additional needs. Please take a moment to review pages two and three of this publication to help answer any questions regarding media services and policies.

GAME SERVICES

PRESS BOX

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is for working media only. It is located on the west side (Alumni Drive) of the stadium between the upper and lower decks. Entrance to Commonwealth Stadium by the media should be made at Gate 7 (media gate). Two elevators serve the press box and are located just inside Gate 7. Each seat on press row is equipped with a power outlet and has access to a telephone jack. The photo deck, which is located just below the press box, is accessible via the press box elevators. Radio and coaches booths are located on the press box level. Admittance to the press box is by credentials only.

PRESS CREDENTIALS

Credentials for working media and photographers for Kentucky's home games against Central Michigan, Indiana, Mississippi State, Georgia, Vanderbilt, and Florida will be handled by Joey Howard, Assistant Sports Information Director.

Requests for press credentials – season or single game – should be submitted in writing by sports editors or sports directors of accredited media outlets on company letterhead. Requests for season passes should be submitted by Aug. 18. Requests for single games should arrive at the UK Sports Information Office one week in advance.

The University of Kentucky follows the guidelines set forth by the NCAA and the Southeastern Conference in governing the issuance credentials.

Season credentials will only be granted to daily newspapers and television/radio stations which cover UK Football on a regular basis – weekly press conferences and all home games. Otherwise, television/radio stations and weekly newspapers will be granted credentials on a single-game, space-available basis.

All credential requests should be sent to: Joey Howard, Assistant Sports Information Director, UK Football Offices, Commonwealth Stadium, Lexington, KY 40506.

Admission to the Commonwealth Stadium sidelines is by combination photo pass and an armband. Photographers must present their own credential at the Media Will Call table at Gate 7 to obtain an armband.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Press or photo credentials which have not been mailed can be obtained at the Media Will Call table located at Gate 7 on the west side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium. Media Will Call will open approximately two hours before kickoff and close 15 minutes after kickoff. Armbands and flip cards for photographers will also be available at the Media Will Call table.

TELEPHONES

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is equipped with eight courtesy telephones with long-distance capabilities for use by the media on a first-come, first-served basis. The UK Sports Information Office strongly suggests each media outlet with deadline restrictions to order their personal phone lines. Members of the media can order phone lines by calling John Fuller of the UK Phone Services – (606) 257-7727 – at least one week prior to the game.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking at Commonwealth Stadium is available on a limited basis. Requests for parking should be made when submitting press and/or photo credentials. The media parking area is located in the Blue Lot just behind the west side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium. The Blue Lot is accessible via Alumni Drive. Please use Tates Creek or Nicholasville Roads to gain access to Alumni Drive.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

UK head coach Bill Curry will conduct his postgame press conference in the Wildcat Den which is located in the football office complex under the east side of Commonwealth Stadium. Curry will begin his postgame conference approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the contest. The media entrance to the Wildcat Den will be in the Northeast corner of Commonwealth Stadium (closest to flagpole).

The Kentucky locker room will be CLOSED to all members of the media. The UK SID staff will bring 1 or 2 players to the Wildcat Den at the conclusion of the Curry conference. Then following a 25-minute cooling off period which begins at the game's conclusion, requested players will be brought to the Wildcat Den for interviews.

Interview cards will be distributed in the press box during the second half to allow media members to request which UK players are needed for interviews.

The visitor locker room is located at the Northwest corner of Commonwealth Stadium. A press conference area is located just outside the visiting locker room entrance. The visiting coach will conduct his postgame conference from that location.

PRESS SERVICES

The UK Sports Information Office will provide a complete pregame packet (including fact sheets, flip card and game program) approximately 30 minutes prior to kickoff. During the contest, UK will provide a complete play-by-play and statistical report of the game. Quotes from oth coaches and UK players will also be available. The UK Photo Services provides a game Photo Packet which is delivered to the press box late in the fourth quarter. Each packet will be available to those requesting the service and contains 5-7 photos of the game. This service is offered by John Mitchell and the UK Photo Services in cooperation with the UK Sports Information Office.

Telecopier (FAX) service is also available for a fee of $10 per game. Contact Joey Howard when requesting telecopier service.

DARKROOM FACILITIES

Limited darkroom facilities are available in the Commonwealth Stadium press box. Photographers wanting to use the darkroom facilities should make arrangements through the UK Sports Information Office.

VISITING RADIO

The official visiting radio broadcast network should be designated in writing by the visiting team's Sports Information Director or Athletics Director. Three phone lines will be made available in the visiting broadcast booth at a cost of $65 per line, unless a prior agreement has been arranged through Ben Osborne of Host Communications - (606) 253-3230.

Those networks needing to install additional phone lines, either in the press box or locker room area, can do so by contacting John Fuller of the UK Phone Services at (606) 257-7727.

DAILY/WEEKLY SERVICES

CURRY TUESDAY PRESS CONFERENCE

UK head football coach Bill Curry will conduct his weekly press conferences every Tuesday of game week in the Wildcat Den. The Tuesday press conferences will start on Aug. 28.

The opposing coach, in most cases, will be available via a phone hook-up.

At least five players will be in attendance each Tuesday for interviews. If you would like to request a particular player, please contact the UK Sports Information Office by 5 p.m. ET on Monday.

Please check with Joey Howard (606) 257-4792 for times.

CURRY SUNDAY TELECONFERENCE

Bill Curry will conduct a 20-minute press conference via telephone hook-up from the Wildcat Den each Sunday following a game. Please contact the UK Sports Information Office for further information if you would like to take part in the teleconference.

Radio sportscasters should note the phone hook-up is broadcast quality. If you wish, media members can attend the conference in-person as well.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE SERVICES

The Southeastern Conference Communications Office, headed by Director Mark Whitworth, offers a variety of services to the media during the year.

UK head coach Bill Curry is available each Wednesday on the SEC Coaches Teleconference for a 10-minute period. Video highlights and interviews of each SEC school is available via satellite feed also each Wednesday morning. Another service is a 24-hour bulletin board which the media can access over the phone by computer. The bulletin board contains notes, statistics, rosters and depth charts of each Southeastern Conference school and is updated each week.

For further information on these services, contact Mark Whitworth of the SEC Office at (205) 985-3686 or Joey Howard of the UK SID Office at (606) 257-3838.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews must be coordinated through the UK Sports Information Office. Players are available ONLY during the lunch hour and after practice at the Shively Sports Complex.

The UK Sports Information Office will make every effort to arrange telephone interviews when necessary. Player telephone numbers are not given out, and players are instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted by telephone. The procedure UK follows is for the players to contact media members at a pre-arranged time.

Player interviews must be completed by Wednesday evening on game weeks.

The Kirwan I dormitory, the Donovan Hall dining area, team locker rooms and the training room are considered private team areas. These areas are OFF-LIMITS to the media unless accompanied by UK SID personnel.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE

Kentucky football practices are generally open to the media. If you wish to attend practice, however, it is MANDATORY to pick up a practice credential. Contact Joey Howard at the UK Sports Information Office to request practice credentials. Practices usually begin at 3:30 pm ET.

ENTUCKY ON THE AIR

When talk arises about sports in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, chances are the talk surrounds the University of Kentucky Wildcats.

The University of Kentucky will again package one of the most comprehensive radio and television networks among Division 1-A institutions. Both radio and television networks will blanket the Commonwealth and touch much of the nation.

Host Communications, Inc., which owns the radio rights for UK football and basketball, expects to compile a radio network with over 90 radio stations. WVLC-AM/FM of Lexington will once again serve as the flagship station for the UK Football Radio Network. The feature attraction of the network is the addition of clear-channel WHAS (840 AM) following a four-year absence. WHAS, a 50,000-watt radio station in Louisville, blankets over two-thirds of the United States and can be heard in 40 states.

The UK Football Television Network features full-game, tape-delay action of all Wildcats home football games. The Network is also one of the nation's largest and serves approximately 12 markets in and around the Commonwealth. Host Communications, Inc., administers the network with WKYT-TV of Lexington and WAVE-TV of Louisville serving as co-producers.

In the radio booth, Cawood Ledford enters his 38th season as the play-by-play voice of the Wildcats. Ledford will be teamed with Ralph Hacker on road games and non-network televised home games. Dave Baker, who joined the UK Radio Network last season, handles the color commentary for the remaining balance of home games. Dick Gabriel returns as sideline reporter and Tom Divine begins his 11th season as technical director.

For UK Television Network games, Hacker calls the play-by-play action and Rob Bromley serves as sideline reporter.

CAWOOD LEDFORD

Now in his 38th season of broadcasting Wildcats games, Cawood Ledford is truly a legend in the Commonwealth. In many drug stores and barber shops across the state, conversations usually begin with "Well, Cawood said last night..."

The Harlan County native (actually Cawood, Ky.) has been named Kentucky's SportsCaster of the Year on 20 occasions. He is president of his own Lexington-based company - Cawood Ledford Productions - and has produced many award-winning radio and television sports programs.

His brisk, informative style in calling Kentucky football and basketball action led to his induction into the Kentucky Journalism Hall of Fame.

RALPH HACKER

Ralph Hacker will serve as color commentator on radio and call the play-by-play on television this fall for the Wildcats.

Hacker, president and general manager of radio station WVLC in Lexington, is in his 19th season on the UK Networks. Besides his actual game commentary, Hacker also conducts the pregame, halftime and postgame programs in both football and basketball.

In addition to his UK Network duties, Hacker has ventured into network television during the past six years. He has called football and basketball games for Jefferson-Pilot, ESPN, the NCAA, and CBS.

DAVE BAKER

Dave Baker, a native of Franklin, Ohio, joins the UK Radio Network for color commentary on most Wildcats home games. He is in his 2nd season on the UK Network.

Baker became a sports reporter for WKYT-TV in 1982 following his graduation from Georgetown College. He was named weekend anchor in 1984 and was instrumental in the founding of WKYT's Sports Spectrum show on Saturday nights. That particular show has been named best sports program in Kentucky by the Associated Press the last two years.

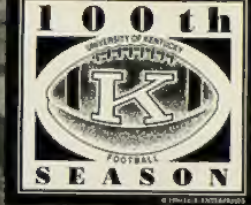

ROB BROMLEY

Rob Bromley begins his 11th year on the UK Television Network and will continue to serve as host of the Bill Curry Show again this fall.

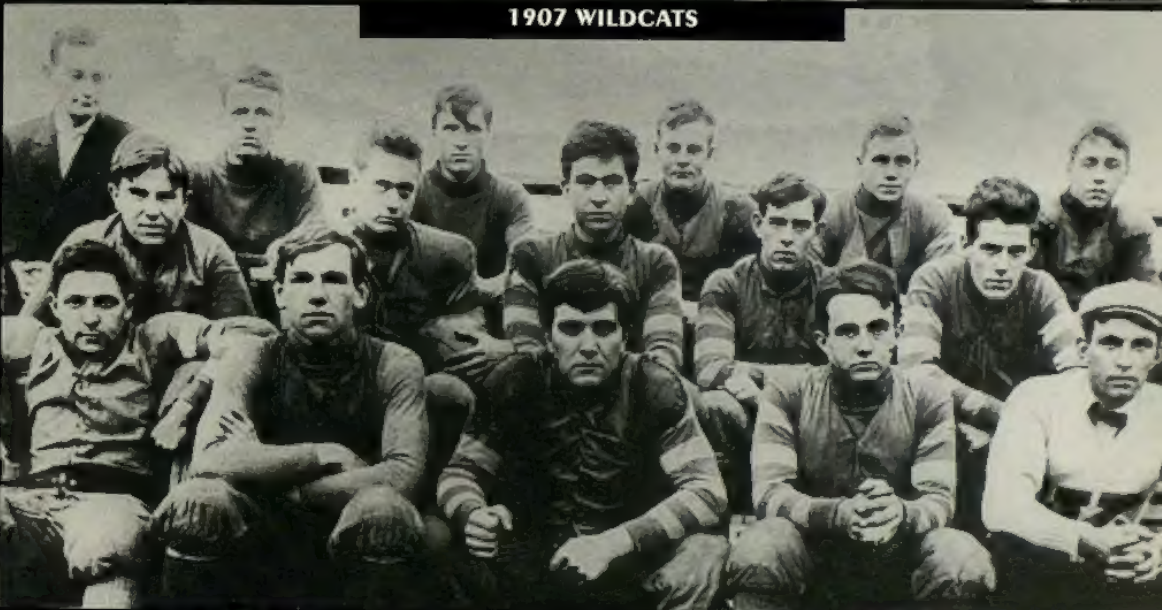

Bromley has served as sports anchor at WKYT-TV since 1980. He is a graduate of Butler University in Indianapolis and worked as a sports anchor in Lima, Ohio, prior to joining the WKYT-TV staff in 1977.

Bromley will conduct pregame and halftime interviews from the sideline on the UK Television Network the 1990 football season.

THE HISTORY OF UK

F O O T B A L L

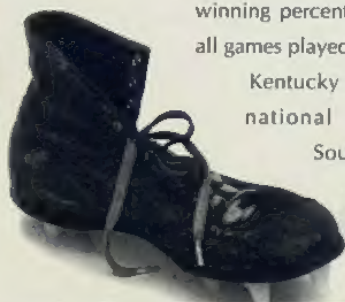

ONE HUNDRED SEASONS.

Indeed. The University of Kentucky celebrates the beginning of its 100th intercollegiate football season on Sept. 1 as the Wildcats face Central Michigan.

From UK's first All-American Clyde Johnson to its last Mike Pfeifer, from Professor A.M. Miller to Bill Curry, from old Stoll Field to modern Commonwealth Stadium, from the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association to the Southeastern Conference, and everything else along the way, Kentucky Football holds a unique and storied tradition which began in 1881.

Stoll Field/
McLean Stadium

UK Football holds a captivating list of firsts. For starters, UK was the first Southeastern Conference team to introduce football, which it did in 1881. Secondly, UK played in the first and only Great Lakes Bowl in 1947 while defeating Villanova, 24-14. Thirdly, Kentucky tackle Bob Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy making him the first player from the SEC to claim the honor. In another first, the Wildcats' Nat Northington was the first black player to sign with a Southeastern Conference institution and the first to play in a league contest, that vs. Ole Miss in 1967. And finally, UK became the first SEC school to win the coveted College Football Association Academic Achievement Award for highest graduation rate, doing so in 1989.

In 99 seasons, Kentucky has participated in 936 contests and owns 473 wins, 419 losses and 44 ties. The 473 victories rank 36th among Division I-A programs in most wins. UK's overall winning percentage is a nice .529 in all games played.

Kentucky football has won one national championship, two Southeastern Conference championships and appeared in seven bowls. The national title came on the academic side as UK claimed the CFA Academic Achievement Award on May 8, 1989. The Wildcats owned a graduation rate of 90 percent after 18 of 20 of their 1983 incoming freshmen signees left UK with a diploma.

Other numbers for fodder include UK football with 32 head coaches, 12 National Football League first-round draft choices, one Outland Trophy winner, 18 first-team All-Americans, five Academic All-Americans, 44 first team All-SEC players and 86 Academic All-SEC selections.

Kentucky football got its start on Nov. 12, 1881. Kentucky, known in those days as A&M College, Kentucky State College and/or State University of Kentucky, defeated Kentucky University by the clumsy score of 7 1/4 to 1. The game of football resembled more of a rugby form and the scoring procedure is still unclear.

Coach HARRY GAMAGE

Though football came to Kentucky in 1881, it quickly vanished after the three-game season. UK finished 1-2 in the inaugural campaign, but the lid was shut on UK football for the next nine seasons.

Football returned permanently to the University of Kentucky in 1891. UK defeated Georgetown College, 8-2, on April 10, 1891, to signify the rekindling of the pigskin to Lexington. The sport would not again be interrupted until the 1943 season because of World War II.

The first known head football coach at Kentucky was Professor A.M. Miller, a Princeton graduate. Miller began the 1892 season as head coach and led UK to a 2-2-1 ledger through five games. He was replaced by John A. Thompson at the conclusion of the '92 campaign.

Some successful years in the early 1900s dot the UK record book. Kentucky finished 7-1 in 1903 under Coach C.A. Wright; 9-1 in 1904 under Coach F.E. Schacht; 9-1-1 in 1907 with Coach J. White Guyn, and 9-1 in 1909 under E.R. Sweetland.

The greatest UK team of that era was the 1898 squad, known simply to Kentuckians as "The Immortals". To this day, the Immortals remain the only undefeated, untied, and unscored upon team in UK football history. The Immortals were coached by W.R. Bass and ended the year a perfect 7-0-0, despite an average weight of 147 pounds per player. Victories came easy for this squad, as the Immortals raced by Kentucky University (18-0), Georgetown (28-0), Company H of the 8th Massachusetts (59-0), Louisville Athletic Club (16-0), Centre (6-0), 160th Indiana (17-0) and Newcastle Athletic Club (36-0).

Besides Bass, two of the most successful coaches in the early stages of UK Football were E.R. Sweetland and Harry Gamage. Sweetland compiled a 23-5 mark in three seasons (1909-10, 12). His best year was 9-1 in '09. Gamage, on the other hand, had the longest tenure of any head coach during the first 43 years of Kentucky football. Gamage took the reigns of the UK program in 1927 and remained until following the 1933 campaign.

In between, Gamage led the Wildcats to a combined 32-25-5 record. His best season was 6-1-1 in '29.

One of Gamage's brightest moments came during the 1930 season. During the 57-0 blanking of Maryville, UK running back Shipwreck Kelly rushed for a school record 280 yards in leading the Cats.

More than a decade after Gamage had left UK, a young man by the name of Paul "Bear" Bryant arrived on the scene at Lexington in 1946. All Bryant did was quickly grab the UK program by the collar and turned the Cats into a national power.

Bryant took UK to eight consecutive winning seasons (1946-53) and helped the Wildcats claim their first Southeastern Conference championship in 1950. He also sent UK squads to four bowl games which included the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl, 1950 Orange Bowl, 1951 Sugar Bowl, and the 1952 Cotton Bowl.

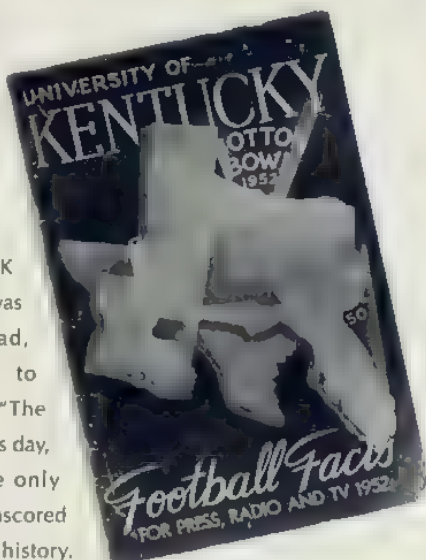

The biggest win in UK football history came under Bryant. After leading Kentucky to its first SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season record, UK found itself matched with national champion Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. The Wildcats scored early and held off the Sooners, 13-7, breaking Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak which is currently the seventh-longest in NCAA history.

Also under Bryant, tackle Bob Gain became the first UK and SEC player to win the Outland Trophy in 1950. Other standouts in the Bryant era included George Blanda, All-American Babe Parilli, and former UK coach Jerry Claiborne.

Bryant left Kentucky following the 1953 season. He compiled an impressive 60-23-5 record in eight years. Bryant's 60 victories is still a UK football record for head coaches.

Blanton Collier had the uneasy task of following in Bryant's footsteps. Collier took over the Kentucky football program in 1954 and promptly led the Wildcats to a 7-3 record during his initial campaign.

Collier stayed eight years at UK as well, etching a 41-36-3 record from 1954 to 1961. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his 5-2-1 record against arch-rival Tennessee. He coached All-Americans Lou Michaels (1957-58) and Howard Schnellenberger (1955) at UK.

Charlie Bradshaw became the head mentor at UK in time for the 1962 season. Bradshaw, a UK graduate who lettered four years (1946-49), managed only a 25-41-4 record in seven seasons. One highlight of his coaching career featured an upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss early in the 1964 season.

Bradshaw's Cats held off the Rebels, 27-21, in Memorial Stadium at Jackson, Miss., and ranks as one of UK's all-time biggest victories.

John Ray entered the scene in 1969 as head coach. In four years, Ray was 10-33. His biggest win came during his first year as Kentucky again victimized Ole Miss and Archie Manning. The Cats upset the Rebels, 10-9, at Lexington.

The Fran Curci era began in 1973, the same year Kentucky moved from ancient Stoll Field/McLean Stadium to spacious Commonwealth Stadium. Though Curci had only one winning campaign during his first three years, things got interesting beginning with the 1976 season. UK ended the '76 year with an 8-3 record and its second SEC championship.

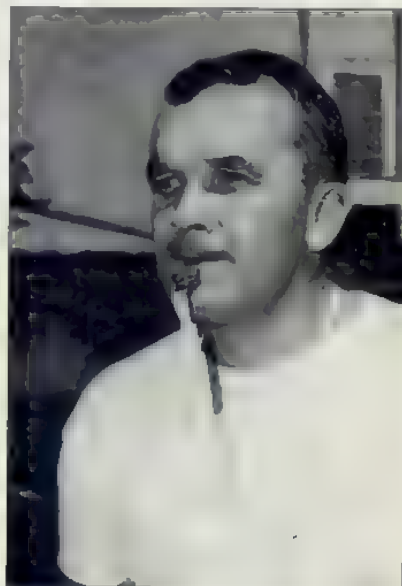

Kentucky secured its second league title on the strength of a 62-yard touchdown pass from Derrick Ramsey to Greg Woods to beat Tennessee, 7-0, at Knoxville, Tenn. The victory also clinched a berth in the Peach Bowl against North Carolina, UK's first postseason appearance in 25 years. Before a UK contingent estimated at 25,000, the Cats blanked the Tar Heels, 21-0.

The following year, Kentucky went in facing probation. No SEC title hopes or bowl hopes. Despite an early season loss at Baylor, the Wildcats rolled to an impressive 10-1 record doing it the hard way. Kentucky defeated Penn State (24-20) at University Park, Pa., defeated LSU (33-13) at Baton Rouge, La., blanked Georgia (33-0) at Athens, Ga., beat Florida (14-7) at Gainesville, Fla., and defeated Tennessee (21-17) at Lexington.

In the Curci era, players like Sonny Collins (UK career leader with 3,835 yards rushing), All-Americans Warren Bryant and Art Still and multi-talented Derrick Ramsey, wore the blue and white.

Curci stepped down following the 1981 season. In all, Curci worked nine years as UK head coach (longest of any UK football coach) and was 47-51-2 overall.

Jerry Claiborne answered the call of his alma mater in December of 1981 and was named the school's 31st head football coach. Claiborne had played at UK from 1946-49 and was an assistant coach under Bryant at UK in 1952-53.

His first campaign, 1982, was murderous from a schedule standpoint. The '82 UK schedule was rated as the nation's 2nd-toughest and featured the likes of Oklahoma, Clemson, Auburn, LSU, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kansas and Kansas State. The Cats were caught in the process of rebuilding and stumbled to an 0-10-1 record.

The winless mark would not deter Claiborne, however. In fact, his 1983 squad tied for the nation's most improved program with a regular-season record of 6-4-1. As a reward, the Hall of Fame Bowl offered an invitation and UK accepted to give the Cats their 6th bowl appearance.

Kentucky improved in 1984, finishing with a 9-3 record which included a thrilling 20-19 victory over Wisconsin in the '84 Hall of Fame Bowl. The nine victories were the most by a UK squad since the 1977 season.

After the '84 campaign, Kentucky strung together 5-6, 5-5-1, 5-6, 5-6, and 6-5 records to close out Claiborne's career. He stepped down with a 41-46-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Claiborne and Bryant, to this date, ended their careers as the only two coaches to win at least five games in seven consecutive seasons at UK.

During Claiborne's tenure, Kentucky captured its first national title by winning the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. UK led the SEC in Academic All-SEC Honor selections (68) during the Claiborne era, including a league record of 17 players named to the 1989 Academic All-SEC Honor Roll.

Individually, quarterback Bill Ransdell played under Claiborne and left as UK's all-time leader in passing and total offense. Mark Higgs departed as the school's 2nd-leading rusher and tackle Oliver Barnett set a UK record with 26 quarterback sacks.

On Jan. 8, 1990, Kentucky began a new era by hiring its 32nd head football coach in Bill Curry. The hiring came only a week after Curry guided his Alabama squad in the 1990 USF&G Sugar Bowl. Curry had led the Crimson Tide to a share of the SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season mark in 1989. And on Sept. 1, the Curry era officially begins as does UK's 100th season.

Tailback Mark Higgs (1984-87) finished his career as the 2nd-leading rusher in UK history with 2,892 yards and 25 touchdowns.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL GLOSSARY

Below is a closer look at some of the traditions and history which has molded the past 100 seasons of Kentucky football. Some of the anecdotes were derived from the book, "The Wildcats", which was written by former UK Sports Information Director Russell Rice

1A AND 1B

During the course of his legendary career, Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant was known as an innovator of introducing changes in the game of football. One change Bryant introduced during his tenure at Kentucky was the use of a unique number system to identify twins Harry and Larry Jones, who both lettered three years (1950-52) with the Wildcats. Harry wore 1A and Larry wore 1B. Harry led the Wildcats in all-purpose yardage in 1951 with 964 while Larry led UK in kickoff returns (21.1 avg) in 1952.

BIG THREE BOWLING

Soon after Paul Bryant arrived at Kentucky in 1946, the Kentucky Football Program quickly hit the bowl scene. Kentucky made its initial postseason appearance in the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl in Cleveland. Two years later, UK Football began arriving on the doorsteps of the Big Four, well, three of the Big Four. Kentucky made consecutive trips to the 1950 Orange Bowl, the 1951 Sugar Bowl and the 1952 Cotton Bowl under Bryant. The Wildcats were 2-1 in the Big Three. By today's standards, consecutive trips to the Cotton, Sugar, and Orange Bowl would be a powerful measuring stick for a collegiate football program. The only Big Four Bowl missing is the Rose Bowl.

BROWN GRASS

The turning of seasons occur in Commonwealth Stadium, too. From September when the Wildcats open a football campaign to the close in November, Commonwealth Stadium takes on a different look. That different look is in the turf. The natural grass playing surface at Commonwealth Stadium is a thick layer of bermuda. As the season slowly begins to turn from fall to winter, so does the bermuda from green to brown. The early-morning frosts in late October start the seasonal changes in the bermuda. As a result, the Wildcats play their November home games on brown grass. UK tried painting the playing surface green once for a game at old Stoll Field. The results were far from successful. So, UK will continue to happily settle for a change of seasons.

PAUL "BEAR" BRYANT

Paul Bryant is still the most successful coach in UK Football History. Bryant spent eight years at UK (1946-53) and produced a 60-23-5 (.710 pct.) record. The 60 victories are the most by any UK football coach. He led the Wildcats to four bowl games and their first Southeastern Conference title in 1950. He coached such UK stars as George Blanda, Jerry Claiborne, Bob Gain, Babe Parilli, Doug Moseley, Wilbur Jamerson, and Steve Meilinger.

JERRY CLAIBORNE

After lettering three years (1946-49) as a player and serving two seasons (1952-53) as an assistant coach at Kentucky, Jerry Claiborne returned to his alma mater in 1982 as UK's 31st head football coach. Claiborne stepped down after 28 years as a collegiate head coach last November. He led the Wildcats to two bowls and four non-losing seasons. During his era, Kentucky placed more players (68) on the Academic All-SEC Honor Roll than any league school, including a record 17 in 1989. Claiborne also led UK to a national academic title by capturing the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. His eight-year UK record was 41-46-3. Overall, Claiborne finished 21st among Division I coaches with 179 career victories.

CFA ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

The University of Kentucky became the first Southeastern Conference institution to win the College Football Association Academic Achievement Award after claiming the prestigious honor in 1989. The Academic Achievement Award is given to the CFA institution with the highest graduation rate of its football program based on a five-year period. UK had graduated 90 percent (18 of 20) of its incoming freshman signee class of 1983, thus earning the honor in May, 1989. A year earlier, UK had finished second with a graduation rate of 90.5 percent.

BLANTON COLLIER AND THAT STAFF

Blanton Collier had the misfortune of following Paul Bryant as head football at the University of Kentucky. But, Collier posted a fine 41-36-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his record against archrival Tennessee which stood at 5 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. Standouts such as Howard Schnellenberger, Lou Michaels, Tom Hutchinson, Bobby Cravens, Calvin Bird and Irv Goode played under Collier. One fascinating item in Collier's tenure was the football coaching staff he assembled in 1959. The 1959 UK Coaching Staff included Collier, Ed Rutledge, Howard Schnellenberger, Ermal Allen, Don Shula, John North, Bob Cummings, and Bill Arnsparger.

FRAN CURCI

The Fran Curci era (1973-81) was one of ups and down at the University of Kentucky. Curci remained at UK for nine seasons, the longest tenure of any UK football coach, and posted a 47-51-2 record. The ups consisted of sharing the 1976 Southeastern Conference title with Georgia, a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina in the '76 Peach Bowl, and a 1977 squad which boasted a 10-1 record and No. 5 national ranking. The down was probation which forced the '77 squad to miss a certain bowl invitation.

FORWARD PASS

The first forward pass attempted by a University of Kentucky football player was thrown on Oct. 13, 1906, by quarterback Earl Stone as the Wildcats faced Eminence Athletic Club. This was the first year the forward pass was legalized by national rules. Accounts from this early contest do not indicate if the first forward UK pass was completed.

GREAT LAKES BOWL

The first bowl appearance by the University of Kentucky football program came in 1947 in the inaugural Great Lakes Bowl at Cleveland, Ohio. Kentucky, led by George Blanda and Bill Boller, rolled past Villanova, 24-14, in front of 14,908 people at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium. The unique item about this particular bowl game is the Great Lakes Bowl folded the next year, thus leaving UK and Villanova as the only two schools to ever appear in the bowl.

HOMECOMING GAMES

As in the case of most institutions, Homecoming football games are special. Kentucky is no exception. Alumni and old friends converge on the UK campus each fall for Homecoming Day, highlighted by a Kentucky football game. The Homecoming Queen and her court are presented in horse-drawn carriages which gives the event a distinct, Kentucky flavor. The first Homecoming Day occurred on Nov. 25, 1915, as Kentucky defeated Tennessee, 6-0. Though records are sketchy, Kentucky has hosted a Homecoming game every year since 1948. Kentucky hosts Mississippi State on Oct. 13 this fall in its annual Homecoming game. UK is 33-9-0 in Homecoming games.

IMMORTALS

Simply known as "The Immortals", the 1898 University of Kentucky football squad still remains as the only undefeated, untied, and unscored on Wildcats club in school history. The Immortals outscored opponents 180-0 while posting a perfect 7-0-0 record. Roscoe Severs served as team captain under coach W.R. Bass. The closest of all seven games was a 6-0 victory over Centre College.

K-MEN'S ASSOCIATION

The K-Men's Association is an organization which keeps former UK lettermen involved with the University, developing fellowship among UK varsity members, and assisting the UK Athletics Association in ways consistent of SEC and NCAA regulations. The organization originated following a conversation in May of 1961 by Frank Seale and Robert Montgomery, two UK football teammates who played in the '30s. Then-UK Athletics Director Bernie Shively welcomed the idea and the K-Men's Association began later that fall. The K-Men's House sits adjacent to Commonwealth Stadium and is used for various functions by K-Men members.

CAWOOD LEDFORD

The legendary "Voice of the Wildcats" is none other than Cawood Ledford. For the last 37 years, Cawood has called Wildcats Football and Basketball. His voice alone, symbolizes UK Athletics. Current UK Coach Bill Curry has fond memories of Cawood. "I remember those Saturday nights at College Park, Ga. I'd turn on the radio and listen to Cawood calling the action from old Stoll Field. He certainly is a huge part of Kentucky Football."

MINUS NINETY-THREE

The University of Kentucky holds the Southeastern Conference record for fewest yards allowed rushing in a single game. Kentucky limited Kansas State to a minus-93 yards on the ground as UK defeated Kansas State, 16-3, on Sept. 19, 1970, at Lexington. Kentucky defenders sacked KSU quarterbacks Lynn Dickey (2) and Max Arreguin (5) a total of seven times while intercepting three of their passes. Ironically, KSU outgained UK in total offense 214-107 as Dickey and Arreguin combined for 307 yards in the air.

NIGHT GAME

The University of Kentucky was one of the first institutions to play intercollegiate football at night. The first UK home night game was played on Oct. 5, 1929, at Stoll Field as Kentucky defeated Maryville, 40-0. Kentucky did not play more than one home night game per season until 1947.

NAT NORTHINGTON

Nat Northington of Louisville became the first black player to sign with the University of Kentucky and a Southeastern Conference institution. Northington signed a national letter-of-intent with UK in December of 1965. He later became the first black football player to play in a SEC vs. SEC game, appearing in the UK-Ole Miss game at Lexington on Sept. 30, 1967.

OCTOBER NIGHT GAMES

The University of Kentucky began holding its October home football games during the evening hours in 1949. UK and Keeneland Race Course, located in Lexington, have enjoyed a close relationship through the years and assist in giving UK faithful an opportunity to enjoy two of the Commonwealth's best-loved events in October — football and horse racing. With the traditional post time at Keeneland for the thoroughbred races at 1 p.m., UK began moving its October home games to night during the 1949 season. The only occasion UK does not conduct its October home games in the evening is to accommodate television.

OUTLAND TROPHY

Two-time All-American Bob Gain is the only player in University of Kentucky football history to be awarded "The Outland Trophy", signifying the best interior lineman in collegiate football. Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy after helping lead UK to its first Southeastern Conference title and a 10-1 regular-season record. Besides being the first UK player to claim the award, Gain was also the first SEC player to be given the award.

PRINCE CHARLES OF WALES

The Kentucky Wildcats gave Prince Charles of Wales his first taste of American football on Oct. 22, 1977. That's right, Prince Charles first football game was the UK-Georgia matchup at Athens. Prince Charles was introduced to UK Coach Fran Curci and All-American Art Still at halftime. After looking at the 6-6 Still, Charles said, "You're a tall one aren't you?" Still and Co. blanked the Bulldogs on this day, 33-0, on their way to a 10-1 record.

RED DOC, BLACK DOC

A pair of cousins named William Rodes played football for the University of Kentucky during the early 1900s. To distinguish one from the other, one was nicknamed "Red Doc" and the other "Black Doc". William "Red Doc" Rodes lettered three years (1909, 11-12) as a 140-pound half-back and defensive end. William "Black Doc" Rodes lettered two years (1915-16) as quarterback. Black Doc was considered by many to be one of the best open-field runners in that era. He also placekicked and personally delivered UK's 6-0 victory over Tennessee in 1915 with field goals of 45 and 43 yards.

RETIRED NUMBERS

Only three University of Kentucky football players have had the distinct honor of having their numbers retired — tackle Bob Gain (70), quarterback Babe Parilli (10), and tackle Lou Michaels (79). All three players were two-time All-Americans. Gain was named All-America in 1949-50, Parilli in 1950-51 and Michaels in 1956-57. Though the numbers were retired, 70 and 79 have been in circulation on the UK roster in recent years.

RUSSELL RICE

Longtime UK sports information director Russell Rice is the walking, talking historian when it comes to Wildcats Football. Rice retired from the UK Athletics Department in 1989 after serving 18 years as sports information director. He came to UK in 1967 as assistant SID under Ken Kuhn, then was named sports information director in 1969. Rice authored the book, "The Wildcats, Kentucky Football", which details Kentucky football and its history. At his retirement party, Rice was given a lifetime "Press Pass" to the Commonwealth Stadium press box.

STOLL FIELD/McLEAN STADIUM

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was the first home for Kentucky Football. The stadium was located adjacent to Memorial Coliseum and served as UK's football home since 1916. The University Board of Trustees voted to name the playing field as "Stoll Field" and the actual grandstand structures as "McLean Stadium", thus the often confusing double names. Stoll Field was named in honor of the late Judge Richard C. Stoll, a prominent alumnus, trustee and benefactor of UK. Stoll Field was dedicated on Oct. 14, 1916. McLean Stadium was dedicated on Nov. 1, 1924, in memory of Price Innes McLean, a regular center on the 1923 UK squad who died as a result of injuries sustain in the Kentucky-Cincinnati game on Nov. 6, 1923. The final seating capacity of Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was 37,000 during its last year of use, 1972

THE THIN THIRTY

When Blanton Collier stepped down as head football coach at Kentucky following the 1961 season, UK promptly named former Wildcats' player Charlie Bradshaw as its 28th coach. Bradshaw inherited a squad of 88 players left from Collier's 5-5-0 team in '61. Bradshaw promised his new UK squad hard work and talked of training to an absolute peak of condition. His conditioning tactics took their toll as over 50 players left the squad, leaving 30 to open the season against Florida State and prompting the name "Thin Thirty". The Thin Thirty finished 3-5-2 on the season with victories over Detroit (27-8), Vanderbilt (7-0) and arch-rival Tennessee (12-10). The ties were against Florida State (0-0) and Georgia (7-7).

TURNAROUNDS

One of the biggest turnarounds in collegiate football happened at the University of Kentucky during the 1982 and 1983 seasons. Jerry Claiborne had replaced Fran Curci as head coach prior to the '82 campaign. Claiborne inherited a program in shambles and faced the nation's 2nd-toughest schedule which featured Oklahoma, Clemson, Auburn, LSU, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kansas and Kansas State. Not surprisingly, Kentucky finished 0-10-1 in 1982 with only a 13-13 tie with Kansas keeping the Wildcats from an 0-11 slate. However, Claiborne turned the heat up in 1983 and went to work. UK reeled off consecutive wins against Central Michigan (31-14), Kansas State (31-12), Indiana (24-13), and Tulane (26-14) to start the season. The Cats also defeated LSU (21-13) and Vanderbilt (17-8) to finish the campaign with a 6-4-1 record. The turnaround, which tied Memphis State for the biggest turnaround in 1983, earned Kentucky a berth in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl

VICTORY KICKS

The University of Kentucky defeated the Louisville YMCA, 12-6, in 1900. What is so unique about this contest is Kentucky did not run a single offensive play. Instead, Kentucky punted on first down each time it had the football and eventually scored on a pair of fumbles by the Louisville YMCA club which had occurred in their own endzone

WINNING STREAK

For the most part, the most famous winning streak in Kentucky football history is the one the Wildcats ended. The stage was set as UK faced Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. Kentucky was coming off its first Southeastern Conference title and brought in a 10-1 record. Oklahoma entered as national champions and riding a 31-game winning streak. A pair of Wilbur Jamerson scores - a 22-yard pass from Babe Parilli and a one-yard run - was all UK needed in picking up a 13-7 upset of the Sooners and thus ending the 31-game streak. Today, the 31-game winning streak by Oklahoma ranks as the 7th-longest in NCAA history.

THE YEAR (1977-78)

Perhaps the most successful year in UK Athletics occurred during the 1977-78 academic year at the University of Kentucky. The 1977 Wildcats football squad, under Fran Curci, raced to a 10-1 record and ended the year ranked No. 5 by THE SPORTING NEWS. Highlights were victories over North Carolina (10-7), West Virginia (28-13), Penn State (24-20), LSU (33-13), Georgia (33-0), Florida (14-7) and Tennessee (21-17). On the basketball side, UK wrapped up its 5th NCAA Title by defeating Duke, 94-88, at St. Louis. The UK Basketballers ended the campaign with a 30-2 record under Joe B. Hall

THE YEAR (1950-51)

An argument to the most successful year in UK Athletics is the 1950-51 academic year. UK Football, under Paul Bryant, ended the 1950 regular season with a 10-1 record and ranked No. 7 nationally by both A.P. and U.P.I. The Wildcats then proceeded to snap national champion Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak with a 13-7 victory in the Sugar Bowl. On the basketball front, Adolph Rupp gave UK its 3rd national title by defeating Kansas State, 68-58, at Minneapolis, Minn. The Wildcats ended the year 32-2. Current UK Athletics Director C.M. Newton was a letterman on that squad.

The 1962 Kentucky Wildcats were simply known as "The Thin Thirty."

THE ROAD AHEAD 1990 U OF K FOOTBALL SEASON

TOGETHER WE WIN.

Bill Curry thinks so. The Kentucky Football staff thinks so. And so do the players.

Those three words have had little to do with the excitement and anticipation in the Bluegrass State about the 1990 University of Kentucky football season. Simply put, the excitement has been created by Curry.

However, "together we win" will have a lot to do with the '90 campaign if Kentucky is to improve on a 6-5 record from last fall. Curry hopes his team approach will also help take UK much higher in the Southeastern Conference standings. A year ago, UK finished in seventh place with a 2-5 league mark.

"It will not be easy," Curry said. "There will be some painful times and some low spots. But, if we stick together and work hard we will get the job done at Kentucky."

The job, which Curry refers, is to get the Wildcats back into the SEC Championship ring. Kentucky has reached that championship pedestal only twice -- 1950 and 1976.

But Curry is familiar with championship territory. Curry became UK's 32nd football coach on Jan. 8, 1990, replacing Jerry Claiborne. Last season, Curry led Alabama to a 10-1 ledger and a share of the SEC title. His three-year record at Alabama was an impressive 26-10. In 10 seasons as a collegiate head coach, Curry stands at 57-53-4.

"We have to get our players to believe in themselves the way our 1989 Alabama players did," Curry said. "If we can do that, we'll be tough to beat."

Curry did not find an empty cupboard at Kentucky by any means. What he did find was 13 starters and 32 lettermen returning. Also, Curry found a solid base to a program built on hard work, integrity and with academics as an emphasis -- all ingredients from Claiborne's eight years of diligent and relentless work.

"I've seen some good potential this spring to know we can be a good football team," Curry said. "Our strengths will be in the offensive line, tight end, inside linebacker and our return game. We still need lots of work in our defensive line, defensive secondary and our offensive skill positions -- meaning our backs, receivers and quarterbacks."

"Our skill players are meshing together and we're talented in those areas. But, we are not experienced and certainly not confident yet. Our team has made good strides in all of those areas, but those are the areas we need to progress the most rapidly as we get into the preparation for the season."

Curry brought to Kentucky a pair of young and imaginative coordinators in Tommy Bowden and Larry New. Bowden, the son of Florida State coach Bobby Bowden, has installed a wide-open, drop-back passing attack out of a "Pro-I" set. He will direct the offense. Defensively, New will use an aggressive, swarming assault hidden in multiple fronts. The multiple-look defense is an attacking scheme, much the opposite of a "bend but don't break" philosophy of the wide-tackle six which UK has used the past eight seasons.

Offensively, junior Freddie Maggard (6-2, 212) will lead the Wildcats as he returns to his No. 1 slot at quarterback. Maggard threw for 1,515 yards last season while completing 56.3 percent of his passes. He appeared much more comfortable in the drop-back attack during the spring, though he did get a late push from sophomore Brad Smith (6-3, 200) of Lakeland, Fla.

Smith completed 12 of 17 passes for 138 yards and three touchdowns to engineer a 31-17 Blue victory in the Blue-White spring game on April 21. Smith's performance prompted Curry to say afterward, "It's clear-cut that Freddie and Brad are going to have a real duel."

Not out of the picture either is another sophomore, Ryan Hockman (6-2, 195) of Harrison, Ohio.

One of the biggest and most efficient changes during the spring was by senior Al Baker (5-11, 227). Baker moved from tailback to fullback and enjoyed his finest spring session of his career. Baker did tally 210 yards rushing last fall behind starter Alfred Rawls at tailback. However, he gained nearly a third of that total (62 yards on 9 carries) in the spring game.

Freshman Terry Samuels (6-2, 240), a converted tight end, will provide ample depth at fullback.

Junior Mike Thomas (5-11, 205) came out of nowhere last fall to finish the season with 213 yards (4.4 avg.) and two touchdowns on the ground. Thomas appears to be the apparent No. 1 at tailback entering the fall. He turned in a season-best 96 yards on 20 carries and one score in leading UK past Vanderbilt, 15-11, last season.

Sophomores Craig Walker (5-10, 205) and Tim Harris (5-10, 191) and redshirt freshman Eric Carter (5-9, 200) give the Cats a solid stable of tailbacks. Only Harris of the trio has any game experience.

If the Wildcats do plan to throw the football most of the time in 1990, then senior split end Phil Logan (6-2, 190) would likely be the primary target. Logan led UK last fall with 28 receptions for 337 yards (12.0 avg.) and one touchdown. He had season-highs of six receptions at Florida and five catches against Auburn.

Senior Steve Phillips (6-2, 209) will share time with Logan at split end. Phillips ended '89 with 11 grabs for 161 yards, including a leaping one-handed touchdown grab covering four yards in the 31-0 blanking of Cincinnati. Junior Neal Clark (5-9, 169) and redshirt freshman Brian Evans (6-0, 174) should also work into the rotation this fall.

At flanker, senior John Bolden (6-0, 175) moves over from split end to inherit the No. 1 spot. Though Bolden caught just 13 passes last season for 219 yards, he led the Cats for the second consecutive year in average yards per catch (16.9). His 70-yard TD reception against LSU two seasons ago at Baton Rouge is still UK's longest pass play since 1985.

Behind Bolden is elusive sophomore Kurt Johnson (5-7, 140). Nicknamed the "Roadrunner", Johnson appeared on the SEC scene at full speed as a true freshman in 1989. Johnson had 12 receptions for 104 yards while averaging 79.1 yards per game in all-purpose yardage. He carried the football five times for 48 yards (9.6 avg.) and was also among national leaders in punt and kickoff returns.

Tight end is expected to be a strong suit for the '90 Wildcat squad, but when UK ended spring practice only senior walkon Patrick Porter (6-3, 225) was left standing. Along the way, senior Rodney Jackson (6-2, 240) exited spring early with arthroscopic surgery on both knees. Senior Bobby Henderson (6-2, 245) was bothered by a neck injury. Senior Mike Meece (6-6, 230) was limited due to an arm fracture suffered against Alabama last September. Then, sophomore Neil Page (6-4, 250) ended the spring early with a neck sprain. And senior Scott Rayburn (6-4, 235) was hobbled by a knee injury.

"We just did not get the chance to develop at tight end during the spring," Curry said. "We had so many of our tight ends just banged up. But I do believe this position will be a strength for us, a tremendous strength."

Jackson, who has the potential to earn All-SEC accolades, led all the tight ends last year with 9 catches for 133 yards. He is also known as a tremendous blocker.

Henderson followed with 8 receptions for 66 yards and two touchdowns. Meece finished the season with 4 catches for 56 yards in only three games. Page saw limited action as a true freshman and grabbed one reception against Auburn.

Another enormous strength as Curry has pointed out, should rest in UK's offensive interior line. Nine returning lettermen are featured, led by senior Joel Mazzella (6-1, 265), a second team All-SEC pick as guard a year ago. Mazzella has started 20 consecutive games at right guard for the Wildcats after coming to UK as a walkon linebacker.

Junior Greg Lahr (6-5, 270), an Academic All-American, gets the starting nod at right tackle. Lahr will be used as a "swing" tackle, playing both left and right tackle positions. Senior Mike Nord (6-7, 280) has 13 starts under his belt and will get the call at left tackle. Sophomore Chuck Bradley (6-5, 278) will line up at No. 2 right tackle.

Sophomore Todd Perry (6-4, 265) returns to his starting position at left guard and will be pushed by senior Dean Wilks (6-3, 290), an 1988 starter. Behind Mazzella, senior Bill Hulette (6-3, 255) will provide quality depth. Hulette started at right guard early in 1988 before suffering a broken leg.

At center, sophomores Matt Branum (6-2, 261) and Travis Hahn (6-3, 255) picked up their first varsity letters in 1989. Hahn moved from right guard to center during the spring.

When the offense gets in scoring position, the Wildcats have had Ken Willis to call upon for field goals and PATs the last 2 seasons. But Willis has graduated after becoming UK's career leader in field goal accuracy. Curry looked to sophomore walkon Doug Pelfrey (5-11, 178) as a replacement in the spring. The Cats also signed standout Don Rubin (5-8, 160) of Taft (Calif.) Junior College. Rubin set a national junior college record by kicking 91 consecutive PATs and is expected to challenge for the Cats' placement chores.

On the defensive side, the good news is Kentucky loses only 12 lettermen. The bad news is those 12 lettermen combined for 36 varsity letters. Gone are four-year lettermen such as DT Oliver Barnett, OLB Tony Massey, FS Ron Robinson, and DT Donnie Gardner to name a few.

The Wildcats do return 5 starters on defense, 6 if you count 1988 All-SEC linebacker Randy Holleran (6-1, 238). Holleran missed the entire '89 season because of reconstructive knee surgery.

But if Curry had to pick one individual to build a defense around, then Holleran would be the one.

"He's one of those special-type of individuals that come around every four to five seasons," Curry said. "He's the player everyone looks to."

Holleran rushed into the SEC picture as a sophomore in 1988 and recorded a school-record 102 solo tackles. He finished the season with 161 total stops which included highs of 18 tackles against LSU, Georgia and Vanderbilt. He will line up at No. 1 mike inside linebacker. Redshirt freshman Marty Moore (6-1, 225) backs up Holleran.

At will inside linebacker, senior Billy Swanson (6-0, 225) is the returning tackle leader for the Cats. Swanson posted 144 stops while starting all 11 games last fall. He finished the season strong, recording a career-high 22 tackles against Tennessee. Sophomore Reggie Smith (6-3, 209) is listed at No. 2. Smith earned his first varsity letter in '89 and was credited with 40 tackles while playing in all 11 contests.

Senior Jeff Brady (6-1, 228), a former walkon, returns to a starting role but at a somewhat different position. Brady is listed as the No. 1 bandit entering the fall, a cross between an outside linebacker and strong safety. Brady posted 84 tackles, 2 sacks and tied for team-high honors with 3 interceptions. His backup appears to be redshirt freshman Ken Johnson (5-11, 205).

Sophomore Dean Wells (6-3, 230) has inherited the No. 1 slot at strike (outside) linebacker. Wells made 24 stops last season and was a noted special teams standout. Curry should know since Wells blocked a fourth-quarter punt against Alabama last year at Tuscaloosa. Junior Jim Graves (6-6, 245) and sophomore Chuck Latimer (6-5, 240) are in a battle for the backup spot.

Redshirt freshman Salim Shahid (6-3, 187) moved from cornerback to No. 1 rover at the beginning of spring drills and never relinquished his spot. Shahid has excellent size and speed to play the rover position, which is more of a true strong safety slot. Another redshirt freshman, Duce Williams (6-0, 186), made a late move at Shahid toward the end of the spring.

Junior Derrick Thomas (6-2, 227) was cast into the starting role at defensive end following a switch during mid-spring from will linebacker. Thomas had 26 tackles last season and staved off charges from junior Daniel Lee (6-5, 265) and sophomore Eugene McClellan (6-3, 265) the latter stages of the spring. Curry liked the improvement Thomas made after the position change and feels he will be a valuable commodity to an inexperienced defensive front.

Interior-wise, Kentucky no longer will play with two defensive guards but instead will opt to go with a nose guard and defensive tackle. Junior Joey Couch (6-1, 250) ended the spring as the No. 1 at nose. Couch finished 6th on the squad last season with 76 tackles as a defensive guard. His quickness will be a primary asset over center. Sophomores Jody Matthews (6-0, 252) and Jon Collins (5-10, 250) have the necessary strength as both bench press over 400 pounds. Both will see action this fall behind Couch.

Redshirt freshman Barry Rich (6-1, 265) had taken the starting job at defensive tackle away from junior Jerry Bell (6-3, 275) during the spring. However, Rich suffered a right foot injury which required surgery and put his off-season conditioning on hold. Bell finished 3rd among UK defenders last fall with 88 tackles, including 1 sack and 4 tackles-for-losses. Other candidates include sophomore Brad Shuford (6-3, 270) and redshirt freshman Jason Dombroski (6-2, 265).

In the defensive backfield, senior Chris Tolbert (5-11, 182) headlines the secondary. A preseason All-SEC pick, Tolbert has started 23 consecutive games in the UK backfield and picked up 32 tackles and 1 interception in '89. He is slated for No. 1 duty at hit with junior Gary Willis (6-1, 177) as a backup.

STEADY CHRIS TOLBERT LED THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE IN PUNT RETURNS AS A JUNIOR A YEAR AGO.

JUNIOR BILL HAWK HOPES TO IMPROVE ON HIS 37.4-YARD PUNTING AVERAGE AS A SOPH.

Sophomore Sterling Ward (5-11, 174) will get the nod at corner after recording 28 stops and 1 interception last fall. Pelfrey, who made huge strides at corner during the spring, and Scott Gilley (5-10, 186) provide depth. Pelfrey doubles as a placekicker while Gilley moved over from flanker in the spring.

Brad Armstead (6-0, 179) should start at free safety. Armstead, a sophomore from Henderson, started 5 games last season and posted 62 tackles. Redshirt freshman Bill Campbell (5-10, 171) will push Armstead as he develops game experience.

The punting chores belong to junior Bill Hawk (6-0, 208). Hawk handled all punting duties in 1989 and averaged 37.4 yards per punt. His best outing came at Florida with 7 punts for an average of 41.6 yards.

No one can boast a more dangerous return game than the Wildcats. Johnson and Tolbert gave opponents headaches a year ago. Johnson is the lone returnee in the country to rank in the Top 15 in both kickoff (25.6 avg) and punt returns (12.1). Of course, Johnson set a UK record with his 100-yard kickoff return against Georgia. Tolbert led the SEC in punt returns (13.3) and ranked 12th nationally. He scored on a 58-yard punt return against Cincinnati and had a 92-yarder against Indiana wiped out via penalty.

Most preseason publications have picked the Wildcats to finish no higher than 6th in the 1990 SEC race. And Curry thinks that is probably a fair assessment at this stage of the game.

"We've learned some things but there's an awful lot of thinking, learning, and practicing that has to be done between now and the time we face another college football team," Curry said. "But, we have a chance if we take care of our business over the summer."

Kentucky faces another college football team on Sept. 1, that being Central Michigan. It kicks off UK's 100th season of intercollegiate football and an era UK faithful hopes will bring big dividends with Curry aboard.

BILL CURRY: THE NEW MAN AT THE U OF K

GOALPOST

William A. (Bill) Curry is recognized by many to be at the very top of his profession," said Newton during his introduction of Curry to the media. "He has been credited for the dignity, class and integrity with which he conducts his football programs, both on and off the playing field."

after eight seasons with the Wildcats. But Newton took an interest in another side of Curry. The side which Newton said reflected these three words—dignity, class and integrity.

"William A. (Bill)

Curry is recognized by many to be at the very top of his profession," said Newton during his introduction of Curry to the media. "He has been credited for the dignity, class and integrity with which he conducts his football programs, both on and off the playing field."

Curry has that rare mix of both worlds.

"We intend to be champions here at the University of Kentucky on the football field," Curry said. "We've been champions here at UK in the classroom and will continue to do so. And we will do it with class and dignity, and do it the right way."

Curry came to Kentucky from the University of Alabama. His overall record of 26-10 at Alabama was the Crimson Tide's most successful three-year total since Paul "Bear" Bryant compiled a 27-8-3 record his final three campaigns (1980-82). Last season, Curry led Alabama to a 10-1 regular-season mark and a share of the Southeastern Conference title. He took three Crimson Tide teams to bowls—1987 Hall of Fame Bowl, 1988 Sun Bowl and the 1990 USF&G Sugar Bowl.

In all, Curry owns a 57-53-4 record in 10 seasons as a collegiate head coach.

CHAMPIONSHIP PERFORMANCE. Bill Curry expects nothing less.

C Minutes before Curry was named the University of Kentucky's 32nd head football coach on Jan. 8, 1990, he told his first Wildcats squad about the intricacies of performing on a championship level.

"I told our squad I'm interested in championship performance, championship people, championship academics, and championship football," Curry said. "I'm not interested in anything less than that. That's what we are about. A championship performance in everything."

Curry's football pedigree weighs heavily in his expectations of championship performance. After all, he did play and work under three of the most successful coaches the game of football has ever known—Bobby Dodd, Vince Lombardi, and Don Shula.

Curry, 47, lettered three years (1962-64) as a collegian at Georgia Tech under Dodd and served as team captain his senior campaign. Dodd compiled an impressive 22-year record of 165-64-8, including Southeastern Conference titles in 1951 and 1952, at Georgia Tech.

After earning his Bachelor's Degree in industrial management from Georgia Tech in 1965, Curry began his professional career under Lombardi with the Green Bay Packers. He played on two Packer teams which won the National Football League title (1965-66), including the first Super Bowl on Jan. 15, 1967. The legendary Lombardi guided Green Bay to five NFL championships in seven years during the 1960s.

And following the 1967 season, Curry was traded to the Baltimore Colts and eventually became All-Pro in 1971. His mentor for two seasons at Baltimore was Don Shula, who today is the winningest active coach in the NFL and has appeared in more Super Bowls (6) than any other coach.

Those credentials alone have made Curry into the type of coach that really understands what demands must be met in order to succeed.

Indeed, those qualities opened the eyes UK Athletics Director C.M. Newton when his search began last December to replace Jerry Claiborne, who stepped down

"I TOLD OUR SQUAD I'M INTERESTED IN CHAMPIONSHIP PERFORMANCE, CHAMPIONSHIP PEOPLE, CHAMPIONSHIP ACADEMICS, AND CHAMPIONSHIP FOOTBALL. I'M NOT INTERESTED IN ANYTHING LESS THAN THAT."

Curry, a native of College Park, Ga., signed a scholarship with the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets after a fine prep career at College Park High School. At Georgia Tech, Curry helped lead the Yellow Jackets to a 21-9-1 record and a Bluebonnet Bowl berth during his final three seasons. He shared team captain honors with Johnny Gresham during the 1964 campaign.

His professional football career began at Green Bay in 1965. Before his professional career was over 10 seasons later, Curry played at Green Bay (1965-66), Baltimore (1967-72), Houston (1973) and with the Los Angeles Rams (1974). Curry was a member of three Super Bowl teams, two National Football League Championship teams and was selected to the 1971 Pro Bowl. A knee injury torced him to retire in 1975.

A year later, Curry was back at his alma mater as an assistant coach under Pepper Rodgers. Then in 1977, Curry returned to the pro ranks as an offensive line coach with the Green Bay Packers under former teammate, Bart Starr.

Curry answered Georgia Tech's call once again in 1980, this time as head football coach. The task was not simple. The Yellow Jackets were coming off a 4-6-1 record under Rodgers. It did not get easier, especially with an '80 schedule loaded with Alabama, Florida, North Carolina, Tennessee, Auburn, Notre Dame and Georgia. The '81 slate was a mirror-image.

Understandably, Curry and Tech turned in 1-9-1 and 1-10 records those first two seasons. But things begin to change in 1982. During his final five years at Tech, Curry produced a 29-24-3 ledger which included a sparkling 9-2-1 season in 1985. The successful '85 campaign earned Tech an All-American Bowl bid and victory over Michigan State (17-14). Tech's first bowl appearance since 1978.

The success of Curry's teams have not slowed down. In his last six years as a head coach, Curry owns an impressive 46-21-3 (.679 pct.) record. In 1987, Curry moved to Alabama and replaced Ray Perkins.

Curry was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year in 1985, by the Associated Press and ACC Sportswriters, and was named the 1987 Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year by United Press International, and the 1989 SEC Coach of the Year by A.P. and the NASHVILLE BANNER.

A special honor came Curry's way following the 1989 season as well. Curry was named the '89 Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year, in honor of his former collegiate mentor. The award stands for a more noble aspect of college coaching.

"Nothing could mean as much to me as this award," Curry said. "Coach Dodd had such a tremendous influence on my life."

Curry is not comfortable in recognizing individuals in a team game. He points to the motto the 1990 Kentucky Wildcats will follow: "Together We Win!"

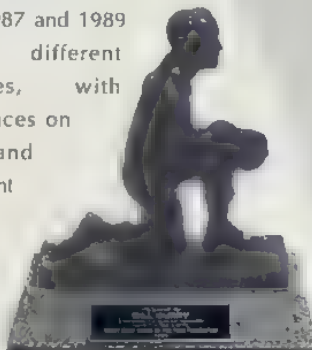

"There is really no such thing as a coach of the year," Curry says. "There is a such thing as a staff of the year. Our American system tends to recognize individuals for what teams really accomplish and to be recognized that way in 1985, 1987 and 1989 in two different conferences, with different faces on our staff and with different teams, must really mean the family idea must work."

"A large part of what we're trying to promote in our young people of America is the importance to recapture the family emphasis. A good team or a good staff is nothing but a good family."

It is that type of family that has also shaped Curry into the coach and into the man he is. That credit belongs to his parents - Mr. and Mrs. Bill Curry, Sr.

"The older I get, the more I understand how much my dad shaped me coaching-wise, and both my mom and dad as a human being," Curry said. "And also my high school coach, Bill Badgett

He truly was the toughest, most demanding of all the coaches that I have played for."

Curry is also a past president (1974) of the NFL Players' Association and serves on the American Football Coaches Ethics and Rules Committee

Curry is married to the former Carolyn Newton of College Park, Ga. Carolyn has a Ph.D. in history and will likely teach in the history department at UK during the spring semester. They have two children — Kristin, 22, a 1989 graduate of the University of Virginia who currently resides in San Francisco, and Billy, 19, who is a second-year center on the University of Virginia football team

The Curry Family - Bill, Kristin, Carolyn & Billy

QUESTION: How should a coach be evaluated or rated?

CURRY: Personally, coaches should be rated in three areas. No. 1, does each student-athlete maximize his full potential as a human being, as a student and as a student-athlete. In today's modern thinking, which I feel is good, that is how we should be evaluated and I believe it is happening, thanks to the college presidents. No. 2, does each player graduate and more importantly, does he or she graduate in a meaningful major. The question to be asked is 'Does that major equip today's student-athlete with what he or she wants to do and does it allow them to compete in this very highly competitive society?' And No. 3, can you win? It's important to win the game. Even though we have overemphasized that in the past, it's important not to lose sight of the fact that winning is the whole idea. That's why you play the game, to learn what it takes to win. In football, it takes total unselfishness and cooperation and those characteristics of a champion that we teach so much. That's the way I think we, as coaches, should be rated and each of those three criteria are critically important and in the order with which we presented them."

QUESTION: What about the quality of life for today's student-athlete?

CURRY: "We're addressing those issues in a responsible manner. We being the presidents, the athletics directors, the faculty representatives and the coaches. There are different viewpoints, but I think we'll come out with some good conclusions. One aspect of concern is the amount of emotional pressure being put on young people. Whether or not we are educating them, do we have a counseling process set up? What do you do when an eating disorder rears its ugly head? What do you do when a young person becomes severely depressed? Do you have any staff psychologists and is there a process of referral for the assistant coaches and head coaches to work with? Are the coaches sensitive to those things? Those are issues that more and more schools are addressing. We are blessed with such a setup for counseling and other needs here at the University of Kentucky."

FLANKER KURT JOHNSON (LEFT) UNDERSTANDS WHEN CURRY TALKS OF CHAMPIONSHIP PERFORMANCE.

QUESTION: Since time allocation for student-athletes is such a huge issue across the country, what is your philosophy in that area?

CURRY: "Time allocation is indeed another part in the quality of life for our student-athletes. I think any good coach sits down with his staff and with his players and talks about these things to find what is best for a given situation. I listen a great deal to our leadership committee that our players elect. The committee is made up of 12 of our student-athletes. If they come to me and say 'Hey coach, we don't have enough time to study', then we change our schedule so they do have more time to study. I trust our committee and the players trust them, which is crucial. It works as a direct pipeline to me and I have monitored it that way."

QUESTION: Again speaking of time allocation of student-athletes, would you then be in favor of a college playoff?

CURRY: "What we are really talking about when the subject of a college playoff or a 12th game comes up is dollars. We're talking about competing against the National Football League with our product and their product. If we're going to generate more dollars, then I'm only interested in supporting that notion if those dollars are going to flow to our greatest area of need — a stipend. I'm not talking about paying college athletes, but rather about providing our student-athletes with finances for expenses normally associated with a college education. That's all. Things like doing your laundry or buying a notebook or taking their girlfriend to a movie. Today's student-athletes very often can't do that. Student-athletes generally must go to summer school. They can't work. It's not a good system from the financial standpoint with what most of us would consider as 'walking around money'. We used to have a stipend when I was in school. It was called laundry money. It was only $15 a month but if you put a cost of living escalator on that, it comes to $70 a month in today's dollars and its pretty good. I know every school can't do that, but there are a lot of schools that can and should."

QUESTION: Any rule changes you would like to see proposed in college football?

CURRY: "I'm a staunch conservative when it comes to the game of football. I think we've had a good game for a long time and we're messing with the rules too much. Really, I wish we would just leave them alone and not make all those changes. But it seems like we do it every year. I've been on the rules committee and I'm back on the rules committee now. I make my little speech every year about how I wish we didn't make rules changes. That's the coach's committee. Then the coaches send our suggestions not to make any changes, particularly to the NCAA, and they make 62 changes."

Q

UESTION: What type of non-conference schedule would you like to see Kentucky play in the future?

CURRY: "The first job of Kentucky football is to be competitive within the Southeastern Conference. We don't need to confuse our fans and backers or the press by talk of a championship as if that is going to happen overnight because we wave a magic wand. It has to be a sequential thing, you have to walk before you can run and our players know that. The first thing Kentucky football has to do is get competitive with the in-conference schedule. That is very demanding in the

SEC. Go back and look at Kentucky's records, even in the good years. That is what we have to get corrected, first. But if you're going to be in a conference, then you need to win the conference. Once we've done that, I'd like to see us go to a little bit tougher out-of-conference schedule. There are some suggestions of playing a so-called, big-time non-conference schedule. Well, I consider Indiana as a big-time, non-conference game already. There are people who want us to play Louisville and I think that is a legitimate consideration down the road. But

UK Athletics Director, C.M. Newton welcomes Curry to the Wildcats family.

Kentucky is a member of the Southeastern Conference and you must compete and be able to win inside your conference before you start going and smashing your face against Sherman Tanks from Southern Cal and Michigan. Study the teams that have won the national championships the last several years. Their schedules did not have 8 monster games or 9. Instead, they had 3, maybe 4. We want to compete for the SEC Championship.

We've got seven monster games before we ever start looking at our schedule. If anybody thinks it's not tough for Kentucky to play Tennessee, Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Florida, Vanderbilt, I mean they can't read...they can't see. In my job description as I articulate it for our staff, I feel that my job is to get us competitive in our conference first."

Q

UESTION: You talk about the importance of the huddle in football. Could you go into detail on your thoughts of the huddle?

CURRY: "A huddle is a place where we take young men.

They are black and white; and northern and southern; and liberal and conservative; and tall and short; and all those differences in human beings that normally divide us. We put the same color shirt on them and then we make them sweat. We teach them how to work and we teach them how to love each other. And at some point in that process, it begins to dawn somewhere deep in each person's mind that sweat smells about the same on everybody. When you get popped get a bloody nose, that blood is about the same color coming out of everybody. And people who had thought or perhaps grew up being taught to hate another human being, find themselves becoming brothers. They find themselves sitting at the lunch table together. They find themselves inviting each other to go home on Thanksgiving. Then you're watching a miracle happen. And when that runs all through a football team, the first manifestation is that it is almost impossible to beat. Secondly, you've got friends for life.

You've bridged all those barriers.

So, we work toward that everyday in our huddle. That's what is supposed to happen with families or with churches and businesses. Maybe it does, but I do know it happens in a football huddle."

QUESTION: "What was the first thing you told your squad when you arrived at Kentucky?"

CURRY: "I told them I'm interested in championship performance. I'm interested in championship people, championship academics, and championship football. I'm not interested in anything less than that. However long it takes us, we'll be patient, diligent, and will work. That's what we're after. Everybody who wants to be a part of that, pitch in here. If you'd rather not be a part of it all, then you need to let us know as soon as possible so we can help you go in another direction. But that's what we're after — a championship performance in everything. It's easy to talk about, but very difficult to execute."

QUESTION: Is it still possible to have that delicate mix of academics and athletics today and still be successful?

CURRY: "Absolutely. If it were not possible, we'd have to rework the whole structure and start over. And some people would scoff at my answer, but you have to look at facts. In the last five years, there have been 11 major football violations adjudicated. Eleven head coaches have lost their jobs because of improprieties in their programs. There is a lot of pressure on all of us to stay up to date with what's going on in our program. I'm not saying all of those guys are bad guys, because they're not. But there is new pressure on the coaches to do what is right. Well, what it really means is a program which seeks this mix which we described has a much better chance of succeeding than it did 5 years ago. The other thing is the detailed attention and focus by the college presidents, which is a new emphasis in the last five years. Those presidents are going to see these more important values will be emphasized and that also helps. The other reality is that it is being done. It's being done at Michigan, Penn State, and Arkansas. It is being done. We did it at Georgia Tech and we did it at Alabama. We weren't perfect and certainly there were flaws, but it has been done. We've been able to participate in that process. It's being done at the University of Virginia, by the way, because I have a son on that team. And it is being done at Kentucky."

CURRY talks daily to his Kentucky squad about the importance of the "huddle" in the game of football.

Curry addresses the media following the Bank One Blue-White Spring Game last April in the Wildcat Den. Curry will conduct all home postgame interviews this fall in the Wildcat Den.

TOMMY BOWDEN

Offensive Coordinator/Receivers
(West Virginia, 1976)

Tommy Bowden begins his 1st season as offensive coordinator and receivers coach of the University of Kentucky. Overall, Bowden enters his 14th campaign as a collegiate assistant coach.

Bowden, 36, officially joined the Wildcats football program on Jan. 14, 1990. He comes to Lexington from the University of Alabama after serving as an assistant coach under Bill Curry for three seasons with the Crimson Tide.

His imaginative style can be somewhat attributed to an assortment of coaching stops at several well-known football powers—like West Virginia, Florida State, Auburn, and Alabama—and others such as East Carolina and Duke. It certainly did not hurt to grow up in a football family either. His dad, Bobby Bowden, is the head football coach at Florida State and enters 1990 ranked 2nd on the active NCAA 1-A coaching list with 193 victories.

Bowden began his coaching career shortly after earning his Bachelor's degree in physical education from West Virginia in 1976. He started as a graduate assistant with the Mountaineers in '76.

His 1st job as an assistant coach came at Florida State in 1977. Bowden coached the Seminoles defensive backs for 2 years. A pair of one-year stints followed—Auburn (1979) and East Carolina (1980)—before Bowden returned to Florida State for 3 seasons while coaching the tight ends.

In 1984, Bowden was named offensive coordinator at Duke under head coach Steve Sloan. His next coaching move would unite Bowden with Bill Curry at Alabama in 1987. At Alabama, Bowden coached the Crimson Tide receivers.

Bowden has coached several players which have made their respective nitch in the National Football League. As running back coach at Auburn, Bowden worked with Joe Cribbs and James Brooks. Then as tight end coach at FSU, Bowden helped mold Orson Mobley and Zeke Mowatt.

Bowden is married to the former Linda White of Morgantown, W.Va. They have 2 children—Ryan, 8, and Lauren, 5.

1990 KENTUCKY ASSISTANT COACHES

DARYL DICKEY

Quarterbacks
(Tennessee, 1985)

Daryl Dickey begins his 1st season as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. His responsibilities include coaching the UK quarterbacks and coordinating film exchange with opponents.

Dickey, 29, is in his 2nd year as a collegiate assistant coach. He officially became part of the Kentucky staff on Jan. 21, 1990, after spending 1 season as quarterback coach at Florida State.

Most Kentuckians remember Dickey from his collegiate days as quarterback of the Tennessee Volunteers. In 1985, Dickey helped lead the Vols to a 9-1-2 record and the Southeastern Conference title. He was named Most Valuable Player in the 1986 USF&G Sugar Bowl after engineering Tennessee's 35-7 victory over Miami (Fla.).

Following a brief stint with the San Diego Chargers of the National Football League in 1986, Dickey returned to his alma mater as graduate assistant coach for 2 years (1987-88). He moved to Florida State for the 1989 season.

At Florida State, Dickey helped mold Seminole quarterback Peter Tom Willis who ended the '89 season ranked 7th nationally in total offense (273.1 ypg) and passing efficiency (150.7 pts). For the season, Willis threw for 3,124 yards and 20 touchdowns as FSU posted a 10-2 record and a victory over Nebraska in the Fiesta Bowl.

Dickey is married to the former Kendall George of Knoxville. They have 1 daughter, Karis, who was born on June 12, 1990. His father, Doug Dickey, is the athletics director at the University of Tennessee.

BILL GLASER

Defensive Line
(Bellarmine, 1965)

Bill Glaser begins his 14th season as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. Overall, Glaser enters his 15th season as an assistant on the collegiate level. His responsibilities include coaching the Wildcats defensive tackles and nose guards, and coordinating the annual Bill Curry Football Camp during the summer.

Glaser, 47, came to the University of Kentucky in 1977 from Morehead State University. He has worked for 3 head coaches at UK — Fran Curci, Jerry Claiborne, and Bill Curry. Glaser was the only full-time UK assistant retained by both Claiborne and Curry.

Glaser, a native of Louisville, graduated in 1965 from Bellarmine College and participated in baseball while completing his undergraduate studies. He graduated in 1961 from St. Xavier High School and lettered 3 years as an offensive guard and linebacker.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, St. Xavier, in 1965 as an assistant football and baseball coach. Glaser was named head baseball coach in 1970 and in 4 seasons, compiled a 112-48 record. In 1974, Glaser was named head football coach and promptly led St. Xavier to back-to-back state titles and a two-year slate of 25-0-0.

Glaser was named defensive coordinator at Morehead State in 1976. A year later, he moved to UK as defensive line coach under Curci. In the Claiborne era, Glaser coached the UK defensive guards.

He is married to the former Mary Ann Jensen of Louisville. They have 3 children — Angie, 23, David, 22, and Clare, 10

Tommy Limbaugh

TOMMY LIMBAUGH

Assistant Head Coach/Recruiting & Tight Ends
(Alabama, 1967)

Tommy Limbaugh begins his 1st season as assistant head football coach for recruiting at the University of Kentucky. On the field, Limbaugh will serve as a full-time assistant coach in charge of the Wildcats tight ends.

Overall, Limbaugh enters his 17th year in intercollegiate athletics and his 4th season as a college assistant coach.

Limbaugh comes to Kentucky from the University of Alabama where he was associate athletics director since April 1988. He was the 1st person to join Bill Curry's staff at Kentucky, becoming official on Jan. 11, 1990.

Limbaugh, a 1967 graduate of Alabama, began his coaching career as a graduate assistant baseball coach with the Crimson Tide in 1968. A year later, Limbaugh jumped into the high school ranks as an assistant coach at Westminster High in Atlanta, Ga. Westminster won 3 regional titles and 1 state championship during his 4-year stay at the Atlanta school. In 1972, he took his 1st head coaching job at Talladega (Ala.) High School and compiled a 19-11 record in 3 seasons. He was named "North Alabama Coach of the Year" in 1974.

Following the 1974 campaign, Limbaugh moved back into collegiate athletics and joined Steve Sloan's staff as an assistant coach at Texas Tech (1975-77). He then served as administrative assistant and recruiting coordinator during Sloan's next two stops — Ole Miss (1978-82) and Duke (1983-86). Several of his recruiting classes at both Ole Miss and Duke were ranked among the nation's Top 10.

Limbaugh, a native of Childersburg, Ala., was named assistant athletics director at the University of Alabama in 1987. He was promoted to associate athletics director in 1988.

After earning All-State honors in football and baseball at Childersburg, Limbaugh was a 3-year letterman (1965-67) as catcher under Coach Joe Sewell at Alabama.

Limbaugh is married to the former Marcia Bynum of Talladega. They have 2 daughters — Leslie, 19, and Lauren, 11.

LARRY NEW

Defensive Coordinator/LBs
(Illinois, 1965)

Larry New begins his 1st season as defensive coordinator and assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. His responsibilities include complete supervision of the Wildcats defense and coaching the UK inside linebackers.

New, 46, comes to Kentucky from the University of Alabama where he was a defensive line coach the last 3 years under Bill Curry. He officially joined the UK staff on Jan. 14, 1990.

Overall, New begins his 26th season as a collegiate assistant coach.

New lettered 2 seasons (1962-63) as nose guard at the University of Illinois. He helped lead the Illini to a 17-7 victory over Washington in the 1964 Rose Bowl and played in the now-defunct College All-Star game at Soldier Field in Chicago. One of his teammates at Illinois was Dick Butkus, a former NFL All-Pro linebacker. Prior to his final 2 seasons at Illinois, New had also garnered All-America honors at Connors State Junior College in Werner, Okla.

He began his collegiate coaching career at Wheaton College as defensive coordinator in 1965. After 3 years at Wheaton, New moved to Division I coaching and joined Dan Devine as defensive line coach at Missouri (1968-70), then Frank Broyles in the same capacity at Arkansas (1971-74).

In 1975, New began a 7-year coaching stint under Jim Carlen at South Carolina. New served as defensive line coach during his first 5 years under Carlen then was promoted to defensive coordinator in 1980.

New joined Bill Curry at Georgia Tech in 1982 as defensive line coach. He remained on Curry's staff through 1986 at Georgia Tech and for 3 years at Alabama.

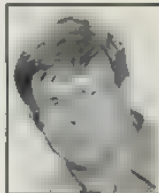

Education-wise, New owns an associate degree in music from Connors State Junior College (1962). He earned both a B.A. degree in music and a B.S. degree in physical education at Illinois in 1965. New later earned his Master's degree in physical education and Specialist's degree in physiology of exercise at Northern Illinois (1968).

He is married to the former Mary Kilbert of Morgantown, W. Va.

RICK RHOADES

Offensive Line
(Central Missouri State, 1970)

Rick Rhoades begins his 1st year as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. His responsibilities will be coaching the UK offensive line.

Rhoades, 43, comes to Kentucky from the University of Alabama where he was offensive tackle/light end coach for 1 year under Bill Curry. He officially joined the UK staff on Jan. 14, 1990.

In all, Rhoades begins his 10th season as a collegiate football coach. This will be his 6th as an assistant coach. He spent 3 years as head coach at Division II power Troy (Ala.) State and 1 year as head mentor at Southern Illinois.

Rhoades lettered 4 years in football and baseball at Central Missouri State. After earning his Bachelor's degree in education from Central Missouri in 1970, he began coaching on the high school level at Mountain Brook in Birmingham, Ala. His 1976 squad, which included former Alabama star Major Ogilvie, captured the state title with a 14-0-0 record.

In 1981, Rhoades moved to the collegiate level as offensive coordinator at North Alabama. He spent another 2-year stint (1983-84) as defensive coordinator at Troy State, which included a NCAA II national title in 1984, before becoming a head collegiate coach.

Rhoades was named head coach at Troy State in time for the 1985 season. In 3 seasons, Rhoades led the Trojans to the 1986 Gulf South Conference championship and the 1987 NCAA II national title.

As a result of the national championship, Rhoades was chosen as NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association and by The Sporting News.

In 1988, Rhoades moved to 1-AA Southern Illinois at Carbondale as head coach. He led the Salukis to a 4-7 record during his 1st season, which included a 24-10 loss to Kentucky at Commonwealth Stadium.

Rhoades left Southern Illinois in 1989 for Alabama. Rhoades and his wife, Elizabeth, have 2 sons — Robert, 15, and John, 9.

Defensive Backs
(Florida State, 1971)

Rick Smith begins his 1st season as an assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. His responsibilities include coaching the Wildcats defensive backs.

Smith, 42, comes to Kentucky from Baylor University after spending 3 seasons as defensive backfield coach of the Bears. He officially became a member of the UK staff on Jan. 21, 1990.

Overall, Smith begins his 11th season as a collegiate assistant coach.

Smith earned his Bachelor's degree in physical education from Florida State University in 1971. At FSU, he played 4 seasons of football and 2 of baseball.

His start in coaching actually came in 1970 at Godbey High School in Tallahassee, Fla., where he spent 3 seasons. Smith was then named athletics director/head football coach at Wakulla (Fla.) High School in 1973.

After 4 years at Wakulla, Smith was named head junior varsity football coach at Georgia Tech in 1977. A season later, he moved to East Tennessee State as an assistant coach.

His final high school job began in 1979 at Marianna (Fla.) High. Smith again doubled as athletics director/head football coach at Marianna High through the spring of 1982 when he left for Georgia Tech.

Smith joined Bill Curry's staff for the 1st time during the '82 season as defensive backfield coach. He remained at Tech for the next 4 seasons. In 1986, Smith moved to Alabama under Ray Perkins for 1 season.

Smith moved to Baylor in 1987 as defensive backfield coach under Grant Teaff. In his 3 seasons with the Bears, the Baylor secondary quickly became one of the most respected in the nation.

During the 1988 season, the Baylor secondary ranked No. 1 in the nation in pass defense allowing a mere 117.8 yards a game and completion percentage of .409. The Bears finished No. 6 in pass defense (148.5 ypg) last season. In his 3 years at Baylor, the Bears pass defense accounted for 63 interceptions and ranked in the nation's Top 20.

Fligg, 59, came to Kentucky from the University of Alabama after spending the past 3 years as an administrative assistant. He officially became a member of the UK staff on Jan. 14, 1990.

Overall, Fligg begins his 25th season in collegiate athletics. He has spent the last 3 years as an administrative assistant. Prior to that, Fligg spent 21 years as an assistant coach at 4 schools — Georgia Tech (1964; 1984-86), West Virginia (1966-69), Texas Tech (1970-74), and South Carolina (1975-82). He served under Jim Carlen for 16 of those seasons at West Virginia, Texas Tech and South Carolina.

Fligg played 2 seasons (1950-51) of collegiate football at Auburn. He received his undergraduate degree from Oglethorpe in 1955 and his Master's degree from George Peabody College in 1959.

He is married to the former Jonell Upchurch of Hapeville, Ga. They have 3 children — Matt, Joanna, and Mrs. Terri Carter.

TODD FUGETT

Volunteer Assistant
(E. Cent. Oklahoma, 1985)

Todd Fugett begins his 1st season as volunteer assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky. His responsibilities include coaching the Wildcats bandits and rovers.

Fugett comes to Kentucky from Missouri Western State where he served a dual capacity as strength coach and defensive backfield coach last year. In all, Fugett has 4 years of experience as a collegiate assistant coach.

Officially, Fugett joined the UK staff on March 24, 1990. A 1985 graduate of East Central Oklahoma, Fugett began his coaching career in the fall of '85 as an assistant at Blanchard (Okla.) High School.

In 1986, Fugett served as a graduate assistant coach at Tennessee under Johnny Majors. He then moved to Baylor (1987-88) as a graduate assistant, where he worked with the defensive backs with UK assistant Rick Smith.

1990 UK FOOTBALL STAFF

STEVE BIRD

Graduate Assistant

Steve Bird begins his 1st season as graduate assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky.

Bird, a native of Corbin, is a former All-American receiver at Eastern Kentucky University. He ended his collegiate career with 112 receptions for 2,056 yards and 18 touchdowns and helped lead Colonels to a pair of NCAA 1-AA national championships (1979, 1982).

After a stellar collegiate career, Bird was drafted in the 5th round by the St. Louis Cardinals. During his pro career, Bird played with San Diego and Detroit of the NFL, as well as Edmonton and Montreal in the CFL.

His father, Jerry, lettered 3 years (1954-56) in basketball at Kentucky. His uncles — Calvin, Billy, and Rodger — lettered in football at UK.

Bird spent the 1987 season as an assistant coach at Cumberland College, then has worked the past 2 seasons as volunteer and graduate assistant coach at Eastern Kentucky.

MARK CATLETT

Graduate Assistant

Mark Catlett begins his 2nd season as graduate assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky.

Catlett, a native of Lexington, was a 3-year letterman as offensive tackle at Centre and received Honorable Mention All-College Athletic Conference as a senior. He earned his Bachelor's degree in economics at Centre in '87.

In high school, Catlett lettered 2 years in football and 1 in wrestling at Lexington Bates Creek High. During his final campaign, he was All-City and Honorable Mention All-State.

Catlett began his coaching career in 1988 at Centre as an offensive line coach.

Catlett and his wife, Kim, were married in May 1990.

HAROLD ETHERIDGE

Graduate Assistant

Harold Etheridge begins his 2nd season as graduate assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky.

Etheridge, a native of Tucson, Ariz., will work this fall with the UK offensive line and assistant Rick Rhoades. In 1989, Etheridge assisted with the Wildcats linebackers.

After playing collegiately at New Mexico, Etheridge spent 4 years coaching on the high school level. He came to Kentucky in the fall of '89 after working for 4 seasons as an assistant coach at Western New Mexico.

MIKE FLORENCE

Strength Coach

Mike Florence begins his 2nd season as strength coach for the University of Kentucky football program.

Florence, a native of Lexington, was named UK strength coach on May 18, 1989 replacing Pat Etcheberry. He earned his Bachelor's degree in accounting from Kentucky in 1983 and had served as assistant strength coach at UK since 1984.

During his collegiate days, Florence participated in weight-lifting at UK. As a senior, he was a NCAA qualifier.

Florence, 30, was a 3-year letterman in football at Bates Creek High as offensive guard and linebacker. He also lettered twice in wrestling and posted a 23-2 record as a senior in the 185-pound division.

JOKER PHILLIPS

Asst. Recruiting Coord.

Joker Phillips begins his 1st season as assistant football recruiting coordinator at the University of Kentucky. His responsibilities include assisting Tommy Limbaugh in all areas of recruiting and coordinating the UK walk-on program.

Phillips, a 1986 graduate of Kentucky, was a four-year letterman (1981-84) as a wide receiver for the Wildcats. He ended his career ranked 5th in receiving at UK with 75 receptions for 935 yards and 9 touchdowns.

He played briefly in the NFL and CFL after college and was a member of the 1987 Washington Redskin team which won Super Bowl XXII. Last summer, Phillips participated in the NFL Coaching Fellowship Program with the Redskins, assisting Washington receiver's coach Jack Burns during training camp and the preseason.

Phillips lettered 3 years in football, basketball and track at Franklin-Simpson High School at Franklin.

WADE RITTER

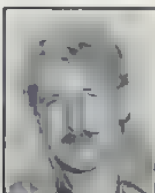

Graduate Assistant

Wade Ritter begins his 2nd season as graduate assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky.

Ritter, a native of Lock Haven, Pa., will work on the defensive side of the football in 1990.

Overall, Ritter is beginning his 6th season as a collegiate coach. He was an All-Conference selection as a defensive lineman at Lycoming (Pa.) College. He started his coaching career shortly after his undergraduate work as linebacker coach at Lock Haven University in 1985.

In 1987, Ritter moved to East Stroudsburg University as an assistant coach. At ESU, he coached the defensive ends.

AL GREEN

Trainer

Al Green begins his 11th season as trainer for the University of Kentucky Athletics Association. His primary responsibility is football, but Green also supervises 17 other sports at UK.

Green, a native of Brooklyn, N.Y., came to the University of Kentucky in 1979 after working 5 years as assistant trainer at Michigan (1974-78).

Following his graduation from John F. Kennedy High School in Bellmore, N.Y., Green attended Leo (Minn.) College for 2 years. He transferred to Michigan and completed his undergraduate work, earning his Bachelor's degree in education in 1973.

Green participated in the University of Arizona graduate program the following year, earning his Master's degree (1974) in education, specializing in athletic training.

Green has 3 children — Douglas, Jennifer, and Tracy Beth.

JOANN HAUSER

Assistant Trainer

JoAnn Hauser begins her 2nd season as assistant trainer at the University of Kentucky. Her main responsibilities include football and working with UK's non-revenue sports.

Hauser, a native of Cleveland, Ohio, earned her Bachelor's degree in education from The Ohio State University in 1986. While at Ohio State, Hauser spent 5 years as a student trainer.

Overall, Hauser begins her 4th year at UK. She spent 2 years as a graduate assistant trainer working with gymnastics, baseball and women's basketball. Hauser was officially named to the UK staff on a full-time basis in September of 1989.

Hauser is the daughter of Jerome and Sonia Hauser of Cleveland, Ohio. She is currently completing work on her Master's degree in sports administration at UK.

TOM

Equipment Manager

Tom Kalinowski begins his 12th year as equipment manager for the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

Kalinowski, a native of Middletown, Conn., received his undergraduate degree from Kentucky in 1978. He had served as a student manager at UK, beginning in 1974 until his graduation. Kalinowski was named head football equipment manager in 1978.

He graduated from Xavier High School in 1974. At Xavier, Kalinowski was student manager for the football, baseball and basketball programs.

Kalinowski and his wife, Vicki, were married in March 1990.

She earned a B.S. degree in physical education at The Ohio State University in 1979. Stanley earned her Master's degree in exercise physiology from Purdue in 1981.

Stanley is the daughter of Ann Stanley of Smithville, Ohio.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL NOTES

• Kentucky begins its 100th season of inter-collegiate football on Sept. 1 hosting Central Michigan. The Wildcats have played in 936 contests and own an overall record of 473-419-44 (.529 pct.) in 99 seasons. The 473 victories ranks 36th among Division 1-A schools for most victories.

• Kentucky ranked 28th nationally in football attendance during 1989. An average of 53,464 people attended the seven UK home games at Commonwealth Stadium. Those seven opponents were Indiana, North Carolina, Auburn, Rutgers, LSU, Cincinnati and Tennessee.

• Commonwealth Stadium is "No place like home" for the Kentucky Wildcats. In the last 33 games at Commonwealth Stadium, UK has earned a 24-8-1 (.742) record.

• Who's Hot! Just look at the five opponents which defeated Kentucky last season. Those five teams (Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Florida and Tennessee) combined to post an impressive 44-16 record (.733 pct.) and each appeared in a postseason bowl.

• Kentucky set a Southeastern Conference record in 1989 by placing the highest number of players by a single school (17) on the Academic All-SEC Honor Roll. UK has now led or tied for the league lead in Academic Honor Roll selections during five of the last six years.

• Former UK Coach Jerry Claiborne stepped down after 28 years as a collegiate head coach, the last eight with the Wildcats. Overall, Claiborne had 179 victories, 122 losses and 8 ties as a head coach. He finishes ranked 21st among all Division 1 coaches (min. 10 years at Div. 1). During his tenure (1962-89), UK led the SEC in Academic Honor Roll selections with 68 and captured the league's only national academic football title by claiming the 1989

CFA Academic Achievement Award for graduation rate

• Despite losing a bevy of strong players to graduation, UK returns eight players to its 1990 roster that bench press 400-plus pounds—NG Jody Matthews (490), DT Jeff Weihe (425), OLB Jeff Brady (420), TE Rodney Jackson (420), LB Billy Swanson (415), FB Dale See (410), NG Jon Collins (405) and LB Randy Holleran (400).

• Talk about "All in the Family". Kentucky will have five sets of interesting family tree ancestry this fall. First, offensive coordinator Tommy Bowden is the son of Florida State Coach Bobby Bowden. Quarterback coach Daryl Dickey is the son of Tennessee Athletics Director Doug Dickey. Graduate assistant coach Steve Bird had three uncles play football at UK—Calvin Bird (1958-60), Billy Bird (1961), and All-American Rodger Bird (1963-65)—while his father Jerry played basketball at UK (1954-56). Freshman signee Mike Kinney is the son of former Nebraska All-American Jeff Kinney. Another freshman signee, Shane Ball, is the son of former UK All-American Sam Ball.

• Kentucky will feature a nose guard in its defensive alignment for the first time since 1981. In the wide-tackle six, used by Jerry Claiborne the last eight seasons, two defensive guards were used. Junior Joey Couch should start at nose for the Wildcats in '90. The last starting nose guard for UK was Effley Brooks in 1981.

• The Wildcat defense welcomes senior Randy Holleran back to the lineup. Holleran, a first team All-SEC pick in 1988, missed the entire '89 season with reconstructive knee surgery. As a sophomore two seasons ago, Holleran ended the year with 161 tackles while setting a school record with 102 solo stops.

• Linebacker Billy Swanson, who took up much of the slack in Holleran's absence last fall, is the leading returnee in total tackles among SEC inside linebackers. Swanson posted 144 stops as a junior a year ago. Darrell Crawford of Auburn is next with 128.

• Flanker Kurt Johnson is the nation's lone Division I player returning in 1990 who ranked in the Top 15 nationally in both punt returns (15th) and kickoff returns (10th). Johnson broke a UK record and tied modern-day SEC and NCAA records with his 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against Georgia last season as a true freshman.

• When cornerback Chris Tolbert ended the season as the SEC leader in punt returns (13.3 avg), it marked the first time a UK player had been a league statistical champion since Paul Calhoun led the SEC in punting in 1983.

• Kentucky was the only school in Division 1-A in 1989 with two players (Chris Tolbert and Kurt Johnson) ranked in the Top 15 in punt returns.

• Quarterback Freddie Maggard, a junior in '90, ended the 1989 campaign ranked in the Top 10 on UK's season list of six categories—4th in pass attempts (231), 5th in pass completions (130), 7th in passing yardage (1,515), 5th in completion percentage (.563), 2nd in most offensive plays (334), and 8th in total offense (1,446).

NOTES: Kentucky head coach Bill Curry is 2-5 vs. Georgia with all games coming at Georgia Tech. Georgia head coach Ray Goff is 1-1 vs. Kentucky. This is the 35th consecutive year Kentucky has played Georgia and LSU on back-to-back weekends. The last time in Lexington, tailback Alfred Rawls dashed 48 yards late in the third quarter to lift the Wildcats to a 16-10 upset of the 11th ranked Bulldogs during the 1988 season. UK flanker Kurt Johnson set a UK record and tied a SEC record with a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against Georgia in 1989. Kentucky and Georgia shared the 1976 SEC championship when Goff was a senior quarterback at UG.

NONE: Kentucky head coach Bill Curry is 5-4-1 vs. Tennessee... Vol head coach Johnny Majors is 10-3 vs. Kentucky... This is the longest series (86 games) in UK football history. Kentucky is the last team to beat Tennessee in the month of November. UK defeated the Vols, 17-12 on Nov. 24, 1984. Since that game, Tennessee has won 20 consecutive games in November. UK and Tennessee have met every year since 1918 (except 1943 during WWII).

INDIANA

LEXINGTON, Ky. — It mattered not when or why or how many mistakes Kentucky, no doubt, would commit its share. But in the end, vowed Jerry Claiborne, what would matter was this:

"No matter how many mistakes we made," was the head coach's pregame message to the troops, "we are going to hang in there and win." And: "I tell you, we hung in there."

The Wildcats did. And the Wildcats won, overcoming their errors to hang a dramatic 17-14 defeat on the hated Indiana Hoosiers on a sundrenched day before the third largest crowd in stadium history. Better still, they did it in tradition-busting fashion. The team that supposedly didn't know how to win, showed it could.

Kentucky made mistakes. Two interceptions. A booming 3-yard punt. A costly clipping penalty that nullified a 91-yard punt return for a touchdown. And two lost fumbles, the final one the supposed backbreaker. Kentucky up by a mere field goal with 8:26 left when quarterback Freddie Maggard and tailback Al Baker misconnected on a handoff at their own 20. Only this time, the killing mistake did not kill. This time, the Cats dodged the bullet.

"That goal-line stand," Claiborne said, "was something else again."

With 5:06 left and Indiana one yard away from the go-ahead score, the Cats rose up to stop the visitors short. Linebacker Craig Benzinger, safety Ron Robinson and defensive guard Joey Couch combined to turn back Hoosier tailback Anthony Thompson as the IU star tried an air route to the end zone.

Couch got his body on Thompson's legs, making the back leave the ground early. Robinson, coming from the side, got his arms around Thompson's thighs. And Benzinger, coming from the top, placed his helmet square on Thompson's red hat, stopping the Hoosier star short of the goal line.

"That was the key play," said Indiana coach Bill Mallory. "You'd like to think you can make that yard."

There were other home-field heroes. Alfred Rawls rushed for 107 yards and scored both Kentucky touchdowns, one a 63-yard, jet-rocket ride to the end zone, the other on a 22-yard pass and run. Maggard, a sophomore quarterback making his first collegiate start, settled down from a shaky start to drive the Cats 67 yards in eight plays for a halftime tie. Ken Willis' 47-yard field goal in the third quarter put the hosts ahead for good.

The Kentucky defense battled the All-American Thompson, who gained 117 yards on 24 carries and scored one touchdown.

But the Cats stymied Dave Schnell, the Hoosiers' senior quarterback. A year ago, he riddled the Cats for 190 yards. Yesterday, Schnell totaled 67, completing but 10 of 23 attempts. "We had a whole lot better pass rush and did a better job of keeping him in the pocket," Claiborne said.

Thus the Cats kept the Hoosiers from murderous marches. IU's two scoring drives, both in the first half, covered 39 and 26 yards. Three times Kentucky stopped Indiana on downs. Donnie Gardner had two sacks, Tony Massey had a sack and a tackle for a loss. And the second half, even with backs to the wall, UK's defense blanked the Hoosiers.

Kentucky took the early lead when Rawls, taking a pitch-out on the right side, saw daylight "as wide as the Tennessee River," he said. Hitting the jets, Rawls romped 63 yards for the score.

A 10-yard screen pass from Schnell to Thompson, the seventh play on the scant 39-yard drive, produced an IU score, tying it at 7.

Two drives later came the second costly error, Maggard tossing his second interception. Hoosier safety Dave Ane made the theft at the UK 34, returning it to the 26. Four plays and IU led 14-7. Thompson dived in from the 1.

From then on, however, Maggard settled down, finding the groove in UK's drop-back or "back-up" passing game. "The defense was flooding our sprint-outs," Maggard said. "But I made a couple of bad decisions. I just felt more comfortable dropping back."

Right before intermission, he found the range. Maggard first hit John Bolden for 26 yards, then found tight end Rodney Jackson for 17. Finally, after a 7-yard loss on an ill-advised option pitch, Maggard hit Rawls in the left flat. Grabbing the ball at the 17, Rawls was gone, scooting down the left sideline.

Willis' extra point tied it at 14. With 8:18 left in the third quarter, he untied it. Again, Maggard did damage through the air. He hit Rawls — whose second reception was one more than the tailback had all of last year — for a 30-yard gain, which earned 15 extra yards when IU was called for roughing the passer. The drive stalled at the 30, and Willis booted the 47-yarder.

A Massey sack of Schnell stopped the Hoosiers on fourth-and-three at the Cat 30. And IU's next two drives ended in punts before the Hoosiers caught what they surely figured was the winning break. First-and-10 from UK's own 26, Maggard and Baker mishandled a simple handoff. "I thought I had put it in his gut and I carried out the fake," Maggard said. "I really don't know what happened."

Ane, having quite a game, recovered the bouncing ball at the UK 20. Two plays later, Indiana had a first-and-goal at the 9. Thompson gained a yard to the 8. Schnell picked up five to the 3. The quarterback then carried 2 yards to the 1. Benzinger making the TD-saving tackle.

After that fourth-and-one, the Cats figured they knew what was coming — Thompson. "I thought either Schnell would run a quarterback sneak or Thompson would go over the top," said UK assistant Terry Strock, who makes the defensive calls. "So we were looking for it up the middle." And it was Thompson.

LOUISVILLE COURIER-JOURNAL

N. CAROLINA

LEXINGTON, Ky. — There was no traditional countdown of the final 10 seconds at Commonwealth Stadium yesterday after the University of Kentucky's 13-6 football victory over North Carolina.

The scoreboard clock malfunctioned with slightly more than two minutes left in the game — no doubt making some of the 50,174 fans wonder if UK's offense was responsible for the clock's operation.

"We sure got this one the hard way," UK coach Jerry Claiborne said.

And, he might have added, the ugly way.

After a beautiful scoring drive on its first possession culminated in a 7-yard touchdown run by tailback Alfred Rawls, the Wildcat offense splintered during the rest of a generally rainy afternoon. Despite 307 yards — 130 of them on Rawls' 28 carries — UK managed only two field goals in the final 55 minutes.

Once again the defense got the task of preserving the victory. And once again the defense responded, limiting North Carolina to 42 yards through the air while extending its streak of not allowing a touchdown to six quarters.

The Wildcats moved to 2-0 with the victory, a fact they tried to celebrate. "I feel real good," Claiborne said frowning. "Well, I may not feel real good after I look at the films."

Neither will his players, who already had next week's opponent, Alabama, on their minds after the game.

"Could we play like this and beat Alabama? No way, no way," UK tight end Mike Meece said.

What do you think, coach?

"It doesn't take an Einstein to figure that out," Claiborne snapped. "Don't you think Alabama is a little better than North Carolina?" Although UK never seemed in real danger of losing yesterday, it never could put away a foe with considerably less talent than Alabama. Especially bothersome to the UK coaching staff was a fourth-quarter series in which the Wildcats, leading 13-3, had a first down at the UNC 5 and came away with nothing.

After two running plays netted zero yards, quarterback Freddie Maggard rolled left and wedged the ball between wide open wide receiver Phil Logan's numbers.

Somehow, Logan dropped it. Then on fourth down kicker Ken Willis, who had made field goals of 33 and 50 yards, missed a chipshot 22-yarder.

North Carolina got a 41-yard field goal by Clint Gwaltney with 2:34 left and if Meece had not jumped on the ensuing onsides kick at midfield, UNC might have pulled off an upset. UK converted a fourth-and-2 on a 3-yard Maggard sweep to the Tar Heels' 28 with about one minute left to ice the win.

"We just can't play in spurts like we did today," UK outside linebacker Tony Massey said. "We've got to play a consistent 60 minutes and we've got to cut down on our mistakes."

Actually, the defense didn't make a whole lot of errors, but it let quarterback Jonathan Hall scramble for a team-high 52 yards.

"We really should have contained him better," defensive tackle Oliver Barnett said. "But overall I feel like we've made a quantum leap this year on defense. We're really playing together as a team."

Supplying continuous pressure, UK allowed Hall to complete only 6 of 22 passes for 42 yards and intercepted two.

"A lot of things that looked like Hall's fault were our young receivers breaking patterns," said North Carolina coach Mack Brown, whose team dropped to 1-1. "Repeatedly Jonathan had to run for his life, and his receivers don't know how to run with him yet."

Maggard, who went the whole way for the second game in a row, looked better than he did against Indiana. He completed 10 of 19 for 105 yards with no interceptions but was unable to get UK into the end zone after the opening series.

"But I'm not going to put my head between my legs and cry about anything," Maggard said. "I'm just going to suck it up and play hard next week."

On that first drive, UK's blockers were blowing North Carolina off the ball and Rawls and Maggard were running well. After Rawls broke a 15-yard run to the UNC 7-yard line, linebacker Tommy Thigpen gasped to him, "Man, you're going to get 300 yards today!"

On the next play Rawls got outside again, accelerating past two defenders into the end zone. Willis' extra point made it 7-0 with 4:57 gone.

"I thought after that first series, we were going to have a go of it," Rawls said. "But their defense was more hard-nosed after that, and we kept messing up."

North Carolina fought its way to the UK 13 in the second quarter, with a 20-yard run by fullback Michael Benefield and an 18-yarder by tailback Randy Jordan pacing the drive. Gwaltney's first field goal, a 29-yarder, cut UK's lead to 7-3.

The Wildcats moved to the Tar Heels' 16 on their next possession as Maggard hit Neal Clark and Rawls for 13-yard gains. The march stalled there, and Willis' 33-yarder put UK ahead 10-3.

Willis' 50-yarder, a career best, finished UK's first drive of the second half and made it 13-3 with 8:29 to go in the third quarter. The Wildcats might have gotten more, but a 31-yard screen pass to Al Baker that would have put them on the Tar Heels' 3 was nullified by a clipping penalty.

From then on, it was a tale of missed opportunities for UK's offense. Other than handing off to Rawls, whom Brown called "one of the best running backs in the country," nothing worked very well.

"I think the missing link was the blocking," Claiborne said. "But we're going to have to work on our total offense."

ALABAMA

LEXINGTON HERALD-LEADER

KENTUCKY

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — The dominance continues.

Some thought it might end. Thirty-two times Alabama and Kentucky had met on a collegiate football field. Kentucky had triumphed once. In 1922. But last year UK had come tantalizingly close. And this year the Cats had more experience, were bigger, better. Perhaps this year the Cats would tame the Tide.

Didn't happen.

Once again, Alabama's dominance was destructive, a Crimson crush of a defense preying on a banged-up Kentucky offensive line, holding the Wildcats to 14 yards rushing, sacking quarterback Freddie Maggard seven times on the way to a 15-3 Tide victory at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

"Today," said Bama coach Bill Curry, starting his third year in Tuscaloosa, "was as good as our defense has been since I've been here. We were all over the place."

And all over the Cats, who dropped to 2-1. Nose guard Willie Wyatt, end Steve Webb and linebacker Vantriese Davis each recorded two sacks. The Tide had four tackles for losses, broke up three passes and intercepted another. In all, Alabama, 2-0, held UK to 125 total yards and nine first downs.

"We knew they had a good defense and I sort of expected them to be in on me," said Maggard, the UK quarterback who was mugged for 45 yards in losses. "But every time I went back to pass I had somebody in my face. I know I should have thrown some of them away, but I couldn't. I didn't have time."

The Tide gave him none, smothering a Kentucky offensive line that played for three quarters without three starters. Tackle Mike Nord (knee injury) and center Brian Cralle (wrist) did not dress. Then in the first quarter, guard Joel Mazzella left the game with a sprained ankle. Redshirt freshman Travis Hahn played the entire second half.

"We just couldn't generate anything offensively," said Kentucky coach Jerry Claiborne. "We just didn't block 'em No ifs, ands, or buts about it."

Kentucky's defense nearly matched the Crimson Tide magnificence, holding Bama to three Philip Doyle field goals through the first three quarters. Worn and weary, however, the Cat barrier finally broke in the final period. Alabama drove 69 yards in 13 plays with fullback Martin Houston scoring from a yard out. It was the first touchdown Kentucky had allowed in 10 quarters.

The Wildcats held Bama back Siran Stacy, a 169-yard sensation last week, to 10 yards on 12 carries. Murray Hill, Stacy's tandem at tailback, managed just 66 yards on 22 carries. Alabama's longest run of the day was 11 yards.

But UK's top gun, tailback Alfred Rawls (237 yards his first two games) managed 30 yesterday on 13 attempts. Maggard, buried or hurried on most every attempt, completed 10 of 21 passes for 89 yards.

"We lost some assignments," said Claiborne. "We were in position to kick a field goal at one point, and we turn a guy completely loose and got out of field goal range. You can't do that against a good football team like Alabama. We had a chance to make it 6-6. But we didn't do it. We didn't do it. We didn't get the job done."

Even on the few occasions the Cats could move the football, they failed to follow through. Down 6-0 midway through the second period, Kentucky marched from its own 29 to a first down at the Alabama 11. Two plays later, third-and-12 from the Tide 13, Maggard rolled right, spotted tailback Al Baker open in the corner of the end zone, and let rip a perfect spiral that found Baker's chest. And bounced out of bounds.

"I didn't even know he dropped it," said Maggard, who was rocked by Bama backer Keith McCants on the play. "I threw and then I got hit, so I didn't see it. I thought I might have thrown it over his head."

"I can't tell you what would have happened if Al had caught it, because it didn't happen," Claiborne said. "But I'm sure it would have picked us up."

Instead, UK settled for a 30-yard field goal from Ken Willis, cutting the lead to 6-3.

Next series, freshman Kurt Johnson, on his first collegiate punt return, sped 37 yards to the Tide 33. Two passes brought a first down at the 22. But, first, an illegal motion penalty cost 5 yards. Second play, Bama buried fullback Andy Murray for a 3-yard loss. Third play, Maggard was sacked for an 8-yard loss. Finally, Maggard was dropped for a 7-yard loss back to the 44, when two Tide ends sped through untouched to converge on the quarterback before Maggard, who appeared to be setting up for a quarterback draw, had a chance to turn around.

Whether it was Baker's drop or the botched assignment, Kentucky never recovered. Second-half possessions ended in an interception, three punts and on downs. On the final punt, UK thought it recovered a fumble by Hill. Dean Wells, who would later block an Alabama punt, jumped up clutching the football. But the officials ruled possession belonged to the home team.

"One official said we had the ball, but another said he had already blown it dead as Alabama's ball," said Claiborne. "That's what they told us anyway. It was just one of those things."

Not that it made much difference. This day, like nearly all 32 others between the schools, belonged to Alabama, now 30-1-1 against UK. And yesterday was a long way from a year ago when Curry's club had to rally from a 17-0 halftime deficit for a dramatic 31-27 victory in Lexington.

GAME FOUR

SCOTT FOWLER

KENTUCKY

LEXINGTON, Ky. — First opportunity knocked on the University of Kentucky Wildcats' door yesterday. Then it rang the bell a couple of times. Finally it tried to pick the lock.

But opportunity never got in, and Auburn beat UK 24-12 in front of a crowd of 55,688 at Commonwealth Stadium. The 11th ranked Tigers managed to overcome four turnovers and a valiant UK passing attack led by quarterback Freddie Maggard for their 11th straight victory over Kentucky.

"We did just what we didn't want to do," said Auburn quarterback Reggie Slack, who threw for 178 yards and two touchdowns. "We didn't want turnovers and we didn't want penalties (the Tigers lost 74 yards on seven flags). We got both, but we still won."

UK blew chances everywhere against Auburn. The most obvious were made by normally consistent kicker Ken Willis, who missed every kick he tried.

Willis' unsuccessful field-goal attempts from 38 and 34 yards and his blocked extra-point try could have meant seven more points for UK. Willis, who had made four of five field-goal attempts this season, also booted a crucial onside kick out of bounds and missed a 50-yard field goal on a play that was wiped out by a penalty.

...UK's defense missed several tackles on each of Slack's two first-quarter scoring passes that gave the Tigers a 14-0 lead. "We were totally inadequate," linebacker Craig Benzinger said.

And the offense made four turnovers as UK fell to 2-2 on the season and 0-2 in the Southeastern Conference.

Coach Jerry Claiborne saw a fortnight of preparation for Auburn do little good. But after listing a number of the Wildcats' miscues, he defended his players.

"These kids are human," Claiborne said wearily. "They're not robots. They're going to make mistakes. As long as they're trying, you can't fault them. And I guarantee ours were trying."

After scoring its two early touchdowns, Auburn couldn't get anything going until the fourth quarter.

"We moved the ball quite well in the first quarter, and then we seemed to go into a shell," said coach Pat Dye, whose team moved to 31 overall and 1-1 in the conference. "Kentucky then seemed to gain confidence."

Maggard played the best game of his young career, repeatedly hurting the Tigers with 15- to 18-yard passes over the middle. He spread 18 completions among nine receivers for 217 yards - the first time a UK quarterback has thrown for more than 200 yards in 14 games.

Maggard didn't look as haggard after this game, either. He was sacked only twice after being dumped seven times in the previous game, a 15-3 loss to Alabama two weeks ago.

"I'm glad we got some good stats, even though we lost," Maggard said. "All these people have been ripping the offense, which they certainly had a right to do. But although we didn't score a lot today, I think we had a good offensive game."

Kentucky gained a respectable 305 total yards, but still couldn't get going on the ground. Tailback Alfred Rawls, who came into the game averaging 89 yards per contest, lost three yards in 10 carries.

...Auburn generally was held in check on the ground as well until mounting a victory-clinching drive early in the fourth quarter.

"That drive was definitely the difference," Slack said. "We'd had a slight letdown previous to that. But on that drive we really took it to them, and it picked everyone up. Everyone knew we had it after that."

Leading 14-6, Auburn went 83 yards in 15 plays. Seventy-eight of the yards were on the ground, including a 23-yard scamper by James Joseph to the UK 5-yard line. On third down from the 1, Stacy Danley went wide left and coasted in. Auburn led 21-6 after Win Lyle's point-after kick with 11:13 left.

UK tried to get back in it, as Maggard brought his team 84 yards in 14 plays. Fullback Andy Murray, who scored all of UK's points, went over from the 1 with 4:41 remaining to make it 21-12.

Kentucky decided to go for two, but Maggard was dropped behind the line by linebacker Craig Ogletree. Willis' unsuccessful onside kick set up a 40-yard field goal by Lyle with 2:40 left.

A perfect throw from Maggard bounced off Murray's hand at midfield, and Auburn linebacker Darrel Crawford intercepted to extinguish UK's last hope.

...(Kentucky) had to struggle uphill almost the entire game, as Auburn went 78 yards to a touchdown on its second possession.

Slack, unruffled when Alexander Wright dropped a 29-yard strike in the end zone, hit Greg Taylor at the 18 two plays later.

Taylor faked UK defenders Tony Massey and Chris Tolbert so badly that they hardly touched him, and he sprinted the remaining 25 yards for the score to give Auburn a 7-0 margin.

Kurt Johnson went 36 yards with the ensuing kickoff return to put UK on its 49, but on second down Rawls fumbled after a pass reception and Auburn's Dennis Wallace recovered.

Slack then took Auburn 62 yards, the final 36 coming on freshman Pedro Cherry's first collegiate reception. Cherry caught the ball at about the 20, burst through several tacklers and scored to make it 14-0 with 28 seconds left in the first quarter.

Midway through the second quarter, UK cornerback Albert Burks intercepted a Slack sideline pass and returned it three yards to the Auburn 16.

Three plays later, Maggard ran eight yards on an option, and Murray scored on first-and-goal from the 1. Crawford blocked Willis' extra-point attempt to keep the score 14-6, which is the way the half ended. Three times in the third quarter, Kentucky had the ball in Auburn territory without scoring, and then Auburn began its 15-play drive that put the game out of reach.

RUTGERS

LEXINGTON, Ky. — Every UK football game fits into a certain category, such as "thrilling," "disappointing," "a big upset," or "another crushing setback."

For the 33-26 victory over Rutgers, a new category is needed.

Call this one "zany."

As in Marx Brothers zany. Or perhaps Little Rascals zany. You get the message. This game, especially the fourth quarter, had Keystone Cops action that was following a Mel Brooks script.

Consider this:

After three tough, hard-hitting quarters that saw UK again fail to punch the ball into the end zone with any consistency, the 'Cats were sitting on a 16-10 lead.

That lead would swell to 26-10 thanks to 10 points by two of UK's heroes on this night - Andy Murray and Ken Willis.

Willis would nail his record-tying fourth field goal with 9 minutes, 48 seconds left in the game. That would be followed by Murray's one-yard touchdown run four minutes later.

Suddenly, everything was kosher - the 'Cats were winning easily, the Homecoming crowd was celebrating, and Midnight Madness was bound to be fun.

However, it was at about this time that Rutgers quarterback Scott Erney received his wake-up call, and when he did, what had looked to be an easy win for UK suddenly turned into another struggle.

How did it happen? Well, first Erney connected with James Cann for a 37-yard scoring strike. Erney then hit Cann for the two-point conversion.

UK 26, Rutgers 18. Three minutes, 15 seconds left in the game.

UK's Alfred Rawls answered with a 69-yard touchdown run 15 seconds later.

UK 33, Rutgers 18. Everything's kosher again.

Oops, wait a second, what's that we see? Why, yes, a 69-yard bomb from Erney to Randy Jackson, followed by another Erney to Mike Botti pass for a two-point conversion.

UK 33, Rutgers 26. Just under two minutes left.

Fortunately, UK recovered the onside kick and, thanks to a big first-down run by Freddie Maggard, the Wildcats were able to run out the clock and bring a halt to the zany.

"We're real happy with the win," UK coach Jerry Claiborne said. "I think we beat a real good football team. They hit you and they play hard."

But why, after having contained Erney for 3 1/2 quarters, did the Wildcats allow Rutgers to get back into the game?

"We did ease up," senior defensive tackle Oliver Barnett admitted. "We felt confident that we would win, and I think we lost some of our intensity. I know we won't be able to do that next week against LSU."

On this strange night, the Wildcats had their share of splendid performances. They included:

— Murray's best effort in two years. The senior from Louisville carried the ball 16 times for 80 yards.

— Willis' record-setting performances. Willis had four field goals to tie Joey Worley for most field goals in a game. Also, his 15 points broke Worley's old record for the most points scored by a kicker in a single game.

— Another shining effort by Maggard, who hit on 14 of 22 passes for 173 yards. Maggard also ran for 18 yards on nine carries, and he suffered no interceptions.

— Strong defensive efforts by several 'Cats, including linebackers Billy Swanson, Tony Massey and Craig Benzing, guard Joey Couch and free safety Brad Armstead.

— More thrills-per-second than the law allows by freshman Kurt Johnson. The Paducah speedster had four kickoff returns for 95 yards and two punt returns for 30 yards.

"Kurt Johnson did a great job of giving us good field position," Claiborne said. "We need to do a better job of putting the ball in the end zone. It got very frustrating to have great field position and then only come away with a field goal."

Murray agreed.

"Ken Willis is a great kicker, but he needs to be kicking point-after and not field goals," Murray said.

UK's first touchdown came on a 20-yard screen pass from Maggard to Al Baker on the first play of the second quarter. UK trailed 3-0 at the time, and this touchdown put the 'Cats on top for good.

Willis saw to that, thanks to his four field goals, which came on kicks of 20, 19, 38 and 20 yards. They also came after his poor effort in the loss to Auburn.

"I felt like I had to prove something to a lot of people, including myself," Willis said. "I really didn't do anything different... except maybe to concentrate a little harder."

Until the final four minutes, the UK defense also played well. In particular, the defense had done a great job of holding the explosive Erney in check.

"We thought he (Erney) would come out and throw more early in the game, but they tried to establish the running game first," Armstead, the talented freshman from Henderson, said. "I think we (the UK secondary) were disappointed that he didn't throw more. We look forward to playing against the great passers. That's when we have our chance to make some big plays. It really makes us play that much harder."

LEXINGTON, Ky. — A sense of deja-vu enveloped Kentucky's Commonwealth Stadium as LSU quarterback Tom Hodson, he of the nowdefunct Hodson-for-Heisman campaign, broke the huddle and slowly made his way to the line of scrimmage.

The Tiger signal-caller had authored Tiger scoring drives on successive possessions - bringing the Bayou Boys back from a 21-0 deficit and, now, with the ball resting on the UK 24 as the game clock reached 3:26, then 3:25, then 3:24 and counting, a here-we-go-again attitude seemed to prevail.

Kentucky had been here before in recent years, it must be pointed out, and without much success ... This time, though, the 'Cats didn't break up. Instead, they made their own breaks, coming up with a pair of oh-so-sweet plays in a space of 11 seconds that they hope will erase what seems like a lifetime of bitter memories and propel them on to bigger and better things.

When Hodson finally took the snap from center Blake Miller, the SEC's all-time leader in touchdown passes no doubt expected the same protection that had allowed him to shred UK's defense for nearly 200 passing yards on five second-half drives to that point. What he found, though, was Wildcats defensive tackle Donnie Gardner, who was all over him before he had adequate time to unload.

UK was in its "quarter" package - using two tackles, two inside linebackers and what amounts to seven defensive backs - and Gardner, who usually lines up outside, was positioned on the inside, between the offensive guard and center.

"The guard thought I was gonna go between him and the center," Gardner said. "He stepped in sideways and I just clubbed him inside, and 'swam' him at the same time, and came free."

Gardner got one big paw on Hodson's chest and the other on his throwing arm just as he released the ball. Before the end-over-end floater reached intended receiver Calvin Windom, UK linebacker Billy Swanson broke on the ball and came up with the biggest...make that only...interception of his career.

"All I saw was the quarterback release the ball," Swanson said. "It came out crooked, and I just wanted to make sure I got the grab."

Catch it he did. And on the next play, UK and Alfred Rawls caught the LSU defense napping.

Getting the call on '42-over,' the same play that had resulted in Rawls' first TD gallop of the day - a 43-yard jaunt that gave UK an 18-0 lead three plays into the second half - UK's Rocket Man blasted his way through a gaping hole opened by right guard Joel Mazzella and right tackle Mike Pfeifer and raced untouched down the right sideline for a 73-yard TD run that made it 27-14 at the 3:00 mark.

LSU would come back with one final score - a disputed, 45-yard touchdown pass from Hodson to Alvin Lee, the product of confusion caused by 13 UK defenders on the field and the ensuing whistles which were blown before the play was completed - but the damage of that 11-second span was too much for the Tigers to recover from.

"We made the big plays," UK coach Jerry Claiborne, whose team moved to 4-2 on the season and 1-2 in SEC play, said. "We made the big plays in the fourth quarter, and that's the difference in the ballgame. They hung in there and hung in there, played strong and came back, but we made two big plays in that fourth quarter. And that's the difference in the football game. Had they made the big plays in the fourth quarter, they would have won the football game."

Instead, it was Mike Archer's club that dropped to 1-5 on the season, 0-3 in the league. And this time it was Archer's club that had to deal with what might have been.

For nearly three quarters, it looked like a Kentucky cakewalk.

LSU failed to cross the midfield line in the first half, picked up but two first downs and was held to a paltry 42 yards of total offense (16 through the air, 26 on the ground).

"We were outplayed in the first half, out-coached, outeverythinged," Archer said. "Special teams...every phase of the game we were totally outcoached, outprepared and outplayed."

"The first half (we) bellied up and didn't do nothing. We had two first downs in the first half. It was ridiculous. We couldn't run the ball, we couldn't protect the passer, couldn't throw it, couldn't catch it. Basically did nothing offensively at all."

Meanwhile, the UK offense, which enjoyed outstanding field position the entire game, picked up where it left off in the Rutgers contest.

The 'Cats took a 3-0 lead on a 44-yard field goal by Ken Willis on the third play of the second quarter. Then, after a 42-yarder by Willis made it 6-0 with 5:34 remaining in the half, Kentucky took advantage of a bizarre turn of events on the ensuing kickoff to extend the lead to 12 at the half.

After Windom fumbled Willis' kick, fellow deep man Harvey Williams scooped it up and returned it to the LSU 24, where he was stripped by UK's Tony Zigman. Jeff Brady was there to make the recovery at the LSU 34. Nine plays later, UK quarterback Freddie Maggard found tight end Bobby Henderson for the first touchdown of the night. When the two-point conversion failed, the 'Cats took a 12-0 advantage into the locker room at the half.

After Rawls' 43-yard TD run to open the third quarter, UK scored for the fourth consecutive time, a 31-yard field goal by Willis that made it 21-0.

At that point, the Tigers received their wake-up call. Using tailback Eddie Fuller on the ground and through the air, LSU went 70 yards in 17 plays with fullback Victor Jones capping the 7:16 drive with a one-yard TD plunge with :11 remaining in the third quarter.

After an exchange of punts, LSU was at it again, closing to within a touchdown when Hodson connected with flanker Tony Moss for a 21-yard TD pass that was threaded between UK defensive backs Brad Armstrong and Chris Tubbs.

KENTUCKY

ATHENS, Ga. — Opportunity was in full bloom "Between the Hedges" for the Kentucky Wildcats. In the first half alone, within the Cats' grasp were a deflected Bulldog pass in enemy territory converted into an interception a Georgia back waiting to be tackled, two consecutive personal fouls which moved Freddie Maggard and Co from their 23 to UGA's 44; and a perfect aerial from Maggard to Neal Clark in the 'Dogs' end zone.

Although opportunity was in reach, Kentucky badly missed on all four attempts, getting barbed by Ray Goff's 'Dogs' 34-23.

The win lifts Georgia's record to 4-3, 3-2 in the Southeastern Conference. UK's loss not only wits its record to 4-3, 1-3 in the SEC, but dampens its overall postseason chances.

"We didn't play with the intensity that we've been playing with in the last few ballgames," Kentucky coach Jerry Claiborne grimly noted. "I don't know why. We just didn't."

So, by the time the 5:13 mark appeared in the third stanza, the Bulldogs were comfortably ahead 27-3. UK was able to close the gap thanks to three touchdowns, the last an electrifying 100-yard kickoff return by freshman Kurt Johnson.

Georgia running back Rodney Hampton had a field day carrying the football. On the ground he took 31 handoffs, racking up 184 net yards, a truck load of Wildcat would-be tacklers and three touchdowns. He also was on the receiving end four times for 43 yards.

The sharp play of Bulldog quarterback Greg Talley also proved to be a thorn in the Wildcats' side. The sophomore quarterback was able to shake off an early interception, throwing for 172 yards (11 of 19) and one touchdown.

"...The intensity went down a bit when we didn't score," Maggard, in reference to UK's first drive, said. "It was an emotional drive. We got down there (Georgia territory) early and we just didn't punch it in. It's just something we've done all year."

...On the first play scrimmage, Georgia decided to strike through the air. Talley, dropping straight back, had his pass tipped by UK defensive tackle Oliver Barnett. The ball found its way in the hands of outside linebacker Jeff Brady.

From the 'Dogs' 39, Kentucky needed only two plays to reach the five. Due to an offside call against Georgia, the 'Cats' had four opportunities to score. After Murray was stopped on UGA's two on third down, Claiborne decided against a fifth try. "Personally, I wanted to go for it," Maggard said. "But he's the coach. He's a great coach. He's done wonders for the university and for me personally. And I trust any decision or judgement of his."

Through Claiborne's orders, Ken Willis was signaled in to attempt a 19-yard chip shot. Willis' boot, though, sailed wide to the right.

If ever a ballgame was decided on the first series, 81,987 football fans at Sanford Stadium may have witnessed such a script.

"...Breaks," Georgia defensive coordinator Richard Bell said, "are a part of the game just like penalties, fumbles and injuries. We played a very good Kentucky team. If we lined up and played 10 times it would be a 'knockdown, dragout' affair," because I don't see us at this time being any better than they are.

"Today, some good things happened to us."

Let's check out some of those Georgia breaks

—Keeping the 'Cats from drawing first blood was Georgia's initial break.

—Georgia got its second break late in the first quarter, and with a 7-0 lead. On third and nine from the UK 34, Talley tossed a short pass to Arthur Marshall. The Georgia receiver, still shy of the first down, kicked free from an apparent Chris Tolbert tackle. But..."I tried to just knock his head off," Tolbert said. "I lunged and he gave me a good move. I still tried to hold on, but he shook loose." Once Marshall, assigned single coverage, left Tolbert behind it was clear sailing all the way to the goal line.

—Two consecutive personal fouls propelled Kentucky's next offensive series. Georgia appeared to have forced UK to punt from its 23 when a third-down pass was caught out of bounds. But a personal foul was whistled against Georgia. First down UK. Next, Kentucky again was aided by an over-aggressive Bulldog attack, this time after a four-yard scamper by Maggard. Seldom-used tailback Mike Thomas then ran off-tackle nine yards to the Georgia 35. On second-and-one, considered a waste down, the sophomore threw deep. In this situation—two-deep coverage glued to longrange target John Bolden—Maggard made the wrong decision. All-SEC defensive back Ben Smith came up with the theft to spoil another UK drive. Inspired by the interception, Georgia drove 80 yards in seven plays, capped off by an 18-yard Hampton jaunt which slipped him past would-be tacklers enroute to the end zone. Hampton's first of three scores gave Georgia a 14-0 lead with 12:54 remaining in the second quarter.

—An ill-advised pass in the second quarter by Maggard was picked off by cornerback George Wynn at the UK 22 and returned to the eight. Meanwhile, UK's defense stiffened forcing the 'Dogs to settle for a 20-yard field goal by John Kasay.

...Meanwhile, Willis put UK on the scoreboard with a 36-yard boot.

Kentucky had played well enough to be in front but trailed heading into halftime, 17-3.

...Georgia's defense, led by standout left tackle Bill Goldberg and safety Ben Smith, turned the ball over on downs to its offense to start the second half. After a Bill Hawk 40-yard punt, Talley and Hampton marched the Bulldogs on a 62-yard, four-play TD drive.

Talley set up the score with a Utah Pass to Hampton (15 yards) rollout aerial to split end Sean Hummings (17 yards). Hampton, again aided by poor Wildcat tackling, scored on a 20-yard run.

A 32-yard field goal with 5:13 left in the third quarter gave Georgia its biggest lead, 27-3.

CINCINNATI

LEXINGTON, Ky. — If nothing else, credit Kentucky with proving a point. As the Wildcats showed yesterday, it is indeed possible to win a football game 31-0 and be decidedly unimpressive doing so.

"We've got to get better," said Coach Jerry Claiborne.

Chris Tolbert did return a punt 58 yards for a touchdown. Linebacker Jeff Brady was responsible for three turnovers — a fumble recovery and two interceptions. And Steve Phillips and Mike Thomas each scored his first collegiate touchdown as UK blanked the battered Bearcats 31-0 at a less-than-full Commonwealth Stadium (46,195).

That did not mean, however, Kentucky silenced its critics. Starting at the top.

"We're happy to get the win and not have anyone seriously hurt," Claiborne said. "But I don't think we played an outstanding game by any means."

Exhibit A: the stat sheet. Kentucky managed a mere 264 yards total yards of offense, the second lowest output for the already embattled UK attack. Despite a 21-0 halftime lead, UK was somehow outgained 90-73, Kentucky managed 12 first downs on the game, same as UC. The home team had a punt blocked for the first time this season. It dropped a pass in the end zone for the — ouch — fourth time this year. And it watched the Bearcats control the football 31 minutes, 55 seconds to 28:05.

"We dropped passes, we had penalties, we missed tackles," Claiborne said. "I thought the defense played pretty well. But the first three third downs Cincinnati had, we let them get first downs. We just didn't do what we're supposed to."

Asked if UK's performance would have beaten any other team on its schedule, Claiborne said, "I doubt that it would've beaten anybody else but Cincinnati. It probably wouldn't have beaten them if they weren't so bungled up."

Thus UK did what the coaches feared. Brady called it "playing to the level of your opponent. We watched what Miami (56-0) and West Virginia (69-3) did to them. We wanted to do the same thing. But we didn't."

"I really thought we'd have a big offensive day," said quarterback Freddie Maggard. "But we didn't."

Alfred Rawls rushed for 60 yards on 10 carries before being pulled. Thomas, a sophomore, had 42 yards on 10 attempts, including a 7-yard run for a score. Maggard completed nine of 17 passes for 111 yards and one score.

A terrific score. UK produced three offensive highlights and Steve Phillips was in on two. The first came in the first quarter when he made a great, one-handed leaping grab of a Maggard floater in the back of the UK end zone, giving UK a 7-0 lead.

"I saw guys in front of him so I put a little arc on it," Maggard said. "It was a bad pass really. But he just made a great catch."

Phillips' second heroic came in the third quarter when he spotted Maggard scrambling, ad-libbed a pattern and caught a 41-yard pass from the quarterback, UK's longest pass play of '89. Alas, the very next play, tight end Bobby Henderson dropped a perfect Maggard pass in the end zone. Ken Willis kicked a 34-yard field goal for UK's final points.

Phillips' reception was not, however, Kentucky's longest play of the day. That belonged once again to the return game. Tolbert did the honors. Last week, the littlest rookie, Kurt Johnson, took a kickoff back from eight yards deep in the end zone against Georgia for a score, going one up on the junior cornerback. "I've been waiting over a year for mine," Tolbert said.

After having three previous TDs canceled by penalties earlier in his career, Tolbert finally got it, taking UC's second punt and sprinting 58 yards for the score. "All the blocking was there. I didn't have to elude anybody or anything," he said. "As soon as I got to the end zone I looked back for the flags but I didn't see any."

UK led 14-0. A 21-yard Rawls run made it 21-0 at the half. Thomas' 7-yard burst up the middle made it 28-0 before Willis added the finishing touch.

Kentucky did hold Cincinnati to 154 yards total offense. In the fourth quarter, the Bearcats had a first-and-goal at the UK 5-yard line. Three plays later, Brady plucked Tim Andrew's fumble out of the air — giving the Newport native a turnover hat trick — to preserve the shutout, Kentucky's first since 1987.

And yet Cincinnati coach Tim Murphy appeared happy with his team. "I told our players before the game that I wanted to see legitimate, sincere emotion on every single snap and we got that," said the first-year coach. "In fact, I told them I didn't care what the score was after the game as long as we did that."

Cincinnati still dropped to 1-7-1. It was the Bearcats' second straight 31-0 loss. Akron did last week's honors. And Murphy's team has been outscored 221-20 in its last five outings. "Don't get me wrong, I want to win every single game," he said. "But I don't have any more buttons to push."

Forgive Claiborne if he starts pounding his noggin on the control board. True, his team is now 5-3, the fifth straight year UK has won at least five games. But, on the heels of last week's 34-23 loss at Georgia, yesterday marked Kentucky's second straight unsatisfactory performance.

"Our intensity was a little better," Claiborne said. "But it's still not what it's going to have to be to finish up our last three games."

"I think our aggressiveness and intensity will key up a little bit next week when we play Vandy," Maggard said.

Could be. But, said Claiborne, "We've just got to get better."

GAME NINE

LOUISVILLE COURIER-JOURNAL

VANDERBILT

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — The long and winding road to a victory away from Lexington finally ended as Kentucky edged Vanderbilt 15-11.

Despite a mediocre performance by their offense, the Wildcats ended the embarrassment of losing 14 consecutive games on the road and getting beaten 15 straight times away from home by Southeastern Conference opponents.

By deflecting a Vanderbilt pass in the end zone with no time remaining, UK also preserved its sixth victory of the season against three losses. UK is 2-3 in the Southeastern Conference. It's the first time since 1984 Kentucky has eclipsed the five-win mark, and it came before a Vanderbilt Stadium crowd of 39,876 that appeared to include at least 10,000 UK fans basking in the sun on an 88-degree afternoon.

Scouts from the Liberty, All-American and Peach bowls watched the game. All indicated that if UK can split its final two games against Florida and Tennessee, the Wildcats will be guaranteed a bid. Two straight losses and the resulting 6-5 record still would give UK a shot, most likely at the All-American Bowl.

"It feels real good, getting the sixth victory," UK coach Jerry Claiborne said. "And it feels real good to get it on the road too."

Quarterback Freddie Maggard, who directed the game-winning touchdown through the fourth quarter, agreed. "The win is important to our school, our team, our program and our state," Maggard said. "Even if it was against Vandy."

Well, yes, Kentucky did do all this against a team that is now 1-8 and 0-6 in the SEC. But Vanderbilt fought hard. "I'm very proud of my football team," Vanderbilt coach Watson Brown said. "I thought they fought their guts out."

The Commodores even had a chance to win in the final seconds. Kentucky, led by sophomore tailback Mike Thomas (20 carries, 96 yards), had moved ahead 15-11 with 1:30 left in the game. But facing fourth and one on the Vanderbilt 42, Claiborne, who gambled and won on a critical fourth-down situation earlier in the quarter, this time punted. Vanderbilt, whose new wishbone offense sputtered much of the game, then drove to the Kentucky 31 with 32 seconds left behind redshirt freshman quarterback Mike Healey.

But Healey threw one incomplete, then was sacked for a loss of 7 yards by Joey Couch. With time for only one more play, Healey threw a final pass to favorite target Corey Harris (5 catches, 110 yards) in the end zone.

It was batted down and the gun went off. But penalties were called on both teams, and because a game can't end when a defensive flag is involved, the Commodores got one more chance.

With the clock reading 0:00, Healey faded back to his own 45-yard line and launched the ball in the direction of Harris again. UK defensive backs Sterling Ward and Albert Burks — who had intercepted a pass at the UK 5 to quell an earlier drive — tipped it in the end zone, and the ball fell just over Harris' fingertips.

When Claiborne came into his postgame news conference and was directed to stand against the wall, he cracked. "Against the wall? I've already been there all day."

Thomas, getting his most significant playing time of the season, helped UK remove its road onus. His 8-yard touchdown run with 8:04 left capped a 46-yard, 12-play drive for the winning points. Fullback Andy Murray got 2 yards when UK went for it on fourth-and-one from the Vanderbilt 16 on one crucial play. Thomas did most of the rest, running the ball on seven of those 12 plays for 29 yards.

"That drive let me know that the coaches have confidence in me," Thomas said. "They haven't forgotten about me. They know I can get the job done."

Before that TD, UK's only points had come on three field goals by Ken Willis — one in each quarter. Vanderbilt had a touchdown and an unsuccessful two-point conversion try, a field goal by Johnny Clark and a safety when Maggard was called for intentional grounding in UK's end zone.

Kentucky got an early opportunity when linebacker Jeff Brady blocked Vanderbilt punter David Lawrence's first kick. UK took over on the Vandy 28, but had to settle for a 29-yard field goal by Willis after a fullback pass by Murray failed.

Vanderbilt tied it 3-3 in the first quarter by driving 75 yards on its next possession before stalling at the UK 5 and getting Clark's 23-yard field goal.

Kentucky's most inept offensive series came early in the second quarter, when the Wildcats took over at their 11 and immediately were penalized 5 yards. On the next play, UK decided to throw. Maggard, under heavy pressure from linebacker DeMond Winston in the end zone, heaved it away from everyone. The intentional grounding call gave Vanderbilt a 5-3 lead.

The feeling it was a baseball game continued throughout the first half, as points kept being scored in 2s and 3s. Willis' second field goal, from 24 yards, came with 22 seconds left in the half and put Kentucky up 6-5. Vanderbilt's best offense came the first time it got the ball in the third quarter. Although UK defensive tackle Oliver Barnett had bottled up the Commodores by himself much of the first half (five tackles for losses), on first down Healey avoided him and drilled Derrick Gragg with a 33-yard pass to the UK 14.

Three plays later Vanderbilt was in the end zone on a 2-yard run by Healey. The Commodores' attempt for a two-point conversion was unsuccessful, and it was 11-6.

Kentucky, whose defense came up with four turnovers, still couldn't get a touchdown. Willis' third field goal, from 38 yards, cut the lead to 11-9 with 4:17 left in the third quarter.

The defense bottled Vanderbilt up on its own 5, giving UK good field position again on the Commodore 46 early in the fourth quarter. Kentucky finally put its touchdown drive together then, running Thomas inside play after play.

And with that surge, UK finally got strong enough to throw the road monkey off its back.

UK: Maggard 15-21-1, 144, 11d...UF:

Punter Bill Hawk enjoyed his best day with a 47.6 yard average on seven punts

GAINESVILLE, Fla. - These are the bounces that break backs.

First half. Down three points, Kentucky drives the football into Florida territory. Momentum mounts. Third-and-four, quarterback Freddie Maggard rifles a slant pass to wide receiver Phil Logan whose eyes leave the target to grab a quick glimpse at open field. Mistake. Ball strikes shoulder pad.

Interception

Second half. Kentucky has driven its opening possession 77 yards cutting the lead to 10. Momentum sniffs a comeback. Now the Gators bobble the ensuing kickoff, Tony Lomack finally securing the ball at his 1. He looks up, sees onrushing white shirts and makes the 20-yard line his goal. Once there, Lomack finds himself untouched. "That eased my mind," he said. "So I just kept going."

Touchdown

So it was yesterday that whenever Kentucky drew near the Florida Gators, the ball took a bounce and the Cats got blitzed, losing 38-28 at Florida Field.

Yes, blitzed. Florida led 24-7 at the half, 31-14 after three quarters, 38-14 with five minutes left before two late UK touchdowns one a 96-yard razzle-dazzle kickoff return - brought respectability to the final score.

"Desperation situations," UK coach Jerry Claiborne called them.

And the Gators drove them there. Emmitt Smith motored on, gaining 126 yards and two touchdowns before spraining a foot in the final quarter. Quarterback Donald Douglas, a true freshman scrambled for 51 yards, scoring twice himself. The quick-strike Florida defense sacked Maggard seven times. Defensive tackle Tony McCoy led the sack attack with two.

And twice when Kentucky pulled within striking range, Florida turned bad bounces into big plays. First was Will White's 40-yard interception return setting up a score. Second was Lomack's 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, breaking the Cats' back.

"They just made the plays," said UK linebacker Craig Benzinger. "And we didn't."

Thus Florida improved to 7-3 ending its Southeastern Conference slate at 4-3. Kentucky dropped to 6-4 overall and 2-4 in the league. This after last week's win over Vanderbilt that was UK's first SEC road victory in five years.

Yesterday, playing a team that had lost its last two games and scored but 17 points in the process, Kentucky never led. "The worst thing we did was the kicking game," Claiborne said.

As in cover kicks. From the start, Lomack, a senior wide receiver, returned the opening kickoff 45 yards to the Kentucky 40. Six plays later, Smith carried UK linebacker Billy Swanson into the end zone from a yard out. When kicker Tim Davitt's kick ended Florida's next possession with a 37-yard field goal, Florida led 10-0 with five minutes and left to the clock.

But UK struck back. Alfred Rawls scored on an 11-yard run up the middle, capping a 71-yard drive. Two possessions later, Kentucky was moving again, successive 7-yard Mike Thomas runs gaining a first down. Two plays later, third-and-four at the Florida 34. Maggard threw a quick strike to Logan, slanting toward the middle from the left side. "I was so anxious to run the ball," Logan said, "I looked at the green in front of me and took my eyes off the ball for a split second."

A suicide second. The ball struck Logan's right shoulder and bounced directly to Gator safety Will White. Forty yards later White was tackled at the UK 20. Four plays later, Douglas sneaked up the middle for a 5-yard touchdown, dragging three Cats (Benzinger, Eugene McClellan and Tony Zigman) along for the ride.

It got worse. A clip on the kickoff return started UK at its 6. Thus Florida's next drive started at midfield. Smith took it from there, carrying for 14, 12, 11 (plus 5 yards when a Cat grasped his face mask), 3, 2, and finally 3 for the score. Halftime: Gators 24, Cats 7.

And yet starting the second half, Kentucky appeared ready for redemption, gaining 119 yards. Well, 77 actually, after Rawls' 42 yard scamper to the Florida five was brought back by a motion penalty. No matter. Maggard simply scrambled 20 yards for a first down. Then from the Gator 23, Rawls swept right, did a sudden cutback left and left the Gators flatfooted as he scored. The lead was 24-14. There was 9:43 left.

A short 19 seconds brought major change.

It was supposed to be a reverse. That's what Florida called. Whichever Gator deep man fielded the kick would hand off to the other. Only no one fielded it, not right away anyway. Finally, Lomack gathered it at the 1-yard line and decided to do the best he could.

"We knew they left a little opening on the right hash and we wanted to attack that spot," he said. "But when I first picked it up, I just wanted to get to the 20."

Ninety-nine yards later, the longest Gator kick return in 40 years, Lomack touched the end zone. And Kentucky deflated. "If it wasn't for that," Maggard said, "I think it would have been a different game."

Instead, the game was over. True, after Florida made it 38-14, UK produced a moment for the highlight film. John Bolden fielded a kickoff on the right sideline, ran 11 yards, then threw all the way back across the field to the left side to a waiting Logan.

"In practice, John always throws it too high or too short, never perfect," Logan said, "but this was perfect."

Florida was perfectly fooled. Logan took a clear path down the left sideline for the 85-yard touchdown with 4:36 left. With 2:10 left, Logan grabbed a 10 yard scoring pass from Maggard to complete the scoring. "But," said Logan, "it wasn't enough."

Good Gators and bad bounces made it so.

KENTUCKY

LEXINGTON, Ky. - If a single play can symbolize a season, yesterday's did. Kentucky led 8th-ranked Tennessee by a point. Kentucky was driving. Facing a do-or-die, fourth-and-one inside the Volunteer 35-yard line with seven minutes left in the third quarter, Kentucky called a sweep. No time for a mistake. No margin for error.

"It was the kind of play where you have to run it almost perfect for it to work," fullback Andy Murray would say afterward. "You can't have any breakdowns."

But a mistake was made. A block was missed. A Tennessee tackler, Mark Moore, charged through to turn wide the path of UK tailback Alfred Rawls. That brought UT linebacker Darryl Hardy on for the tackle. Result: 6-yard loss. Significance: Kentucky broke down.

The visiting Vols drove 61 yards for a touchdown and their first lead and the tide had turned. Tennessee had overcome a halftime deficit and went on to whip Kentucky 31-10 at Commonwealth Stadium.

The Volunteers, now 9-1 and probably headed to the Cotton Bowl, amassed 462 total yards in winning their fifth straight over the Wildcats. Freshman tailback Chuck Webb rushed for 145 yards, all but 23 in the first half. Quarterback Andy Kelly threw for 210 yards and a score. Punter Kent Elmore averaged 44 yards a kick, twice pinning UK inside its own 10-yard line.

The opportunistic Tennessee defense intercepted three UK passes. Linebacker Shon Walker returned the third 18 yards for a touchdown. "Tennessee," said UK coach Jerry Claiborne, "has an outstanding team."

And yet 6-5 Kentucky played right with the Vols, even led the nation's No. 8 team the better part of three quarters. But, as so many times this season against the better teams on the Wildcat schedule, a key mistake turned the tide. "Not making that fourth down," said Claiborne, "was a key play."

Despite Webb's 122 yards the first half, despite the fact UT outgained UK 246-156, Kentucky was up 10-9 at the half.

The defense limited the Vols to three Greg Burke field goals. The Wildcat offense, meanwhile, pieced together an impressive 13-play, 80-yard march for the half's only touchdown. Rawls scored from 8 yards out. Ken Willis' 47-yard field goal made it 10-6 with 2:37 left. Sixteen seconds before intermission, Burke kicked a 29-yarder to pull UT within a point.

Successive interceptions started the second half. UT's Walker tipped a Freddie Maggard pass into the hands of Vol safety Carl Pickens. Tennessee gave the ball right back, a Kelly loss finding Cat safety Ron Robinson.

Here, the game turned. Taking over at the 48, Kentucky picked up a first down at the Tennessee 42. Two plays later, it was third-and-three at the 35. Murray was stopped for a 2-yard gain. Fourth-and-one. Kentucky called time out. "We wanted to make sure we had our kids in the right position," Claiborne said. "I think we had a couple of players injured and we were trying to get them in and out."

This was the call. Rawls lines up in a slot on the left side, then swings around to take a handoff from the quarterback. "I can either take it on outside or turn it back to the middle," he said. "I've got the choice."

This time, Rawls had no choice. Because the play is designed as a sweep, it takes time to develop. This time, Rawls had no time.

"We just missed a block," Claiborne said. "A guy came inside and we didn't touch him. He never stopped. Nothing works if you don't block 'em."

This did not work. Moore, who said he "thought it would be a pass," blew past UK tackle Chuck Bradley and grabbed Rawls in the backfield. Rawls squirmed free, but just long enough to be collared by Hardy, 6 yards behind the line.

"I don't think one particular play can get you down," said UK tackle Mike Pfeifer. "But that play got us in trouble."

"That fourth down play was big for two reasons," said Doug Matthews, Tennessee's defensive coordinator. "No. 1, it stopped their momentum. No. 2, after that, they didn't run the ball like they did before."

Because after that, UK trailed. The Volunteers marched 61 yards in 12 plays for the go-ahead score. Twice Kelly hit fullback Greg Amsler with key screen passes, one for 15 yards, another for 11.

"They did a good job of taking what we gave them," said Robinson. "On those plays we had everybody covered but the fullback, and they threw it to them. We gambled and they took advantage of it."

A 9-yard pass to Thomas Woods gave UT a first-and-goal at the 5. Two runs later, Tony Thompson scored from a yard out. Kelly ran in the two-point conversion. Tennessee led 17-10.

And the Vols never looked back. UK clipped on the kickoff return. Moore dropped Maggard for a 10-yard sack to the 8. Bill Hawk's punt into the wind covered 17 yards, stopping at the Wildcat 25.

One play later, Kelly hit a wide open Alvin Harper with a 22-yard touchdown pass to make it 24-10. In the final period, UK backed up at its own 17. UT's Walker picked off a Maggard pass and went untouched 18 yards for the score.

"Tennessee's kicking game was superb," said Claiborne. "Their quarterback did an excellent job. He threw the ball well. And we didn't feel like we executed, especially our passing game, as well as we hoped."

And so another Kentucky football season ended below its hopes. A single play in a long season did not make that so. But yesterday, a single play was symbolic.

Said Andy Murray, "Big plays win the big games. And they made the big play."

The Kentucky Wildcats made their first appearance on the bowl scene in the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl and came away with a 24-14 victory over Villanova before a crowd of 14,908 at Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

Kentucky, in its second year under head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, finished at 8-3 on the season with the victory. Quarterback-placekicker George Blanda gave Kentucky an early 3-0 lead in the first quarter. Blanda connected on a 27-yard field goal to put the Cats up and it remained that way until halftime.

In the third quarter, UK's Jim Howe scampered 27 yards for a score. Blanda added the PAT and Kentucky led 10-0 after three periods.

Bill Boller scored both Kentucky touchdowns in the fourth period, romping 15 yards on a handoff from Blanda and racing 49 yards to paydirt with an interception. Blanda added both PATs to round out the Kentucky scoring.

Villanova also added a pair of fourth quarter touchdowns, but it was not enough as Kentucky captured its first bowl victory in school history.

Kentucky committed three turnovers and let a seven-point halftime lead slip away in dropping its first major bowl game, 21-13 to Santa Clara in the 1950 Orange Bowl before a crowd of 64,816.

The Wildcats, 9-3, scored their first touchdown early in the second quarter as a result of a Santa Clara turnover. UK's John Neloskie recovered at fumble at the Wildcat 49 to set up Kentucky's first score. The Wildcats drove 51 yards in 14 plays as Wilbur Jamerson hammered over from two yards. Bobby Brooks added the PAT to make it 7-0.

Kentucky wasted a golden scoring opportunity late in the second quarter when Babe Parilli found Bill Leskovar for a 45-yard completion on to the SC 3 with time running out. Leskovar and runningmate Don Phelps each were stopped short on their respective rush attempts and the clock ran out before UK could score. The Wildcats led 7-0 at halftime.

UK coach Paul "Bear" Bryant said afterward he should have sent in a pass play just before the half. "If it failed," he said, "the clock was killed then we could have tried a field goal."

A short, 9-yard punt by Phelps set up Santa Clara's first score in the third quarter. After taking over on the SC 46, Bronco quarterback John Pasco hit Larry Williams on a 25-yard pass. Santa Clara eventually scored on a one-yard sneak by Pasco to tie the game, 7-7.

Santa Clara scored again later in the third period, thanks in part to a pass interference call against Kentucky. Hall Haynes went over from 4 yards to make it, 14-7, after three quarters.

Parilli led Kentucky right back, hitting Emery Clark on a 52-yard touchdown strike. Brooks, however, missed the tying PAT breaking a personal streak of 18 straight as Santa Clara led 14-13 with 12 minutes left in the contest.

Santa Clara managed to hold off the Cats and added an insurance score with less than a minute left, a 16-yard TD run by Buster Wraith.

Kentucky 13, Oklahoma 7

Kentucky arrived on the national football scene and stunned national champion Oklahoma, 13-7, to capture the 1951 Sugar Bowl before 82,000 at New Orleans.

The Wildcats, 11-1, displayed a tough defense and opportunistic offense in snapping Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak, the longest in the nation at that time. More than 13,000 Kentucky fans made the long trip to New Orleans to watch the Southeastern Conference champions pick up their school record 11th win.

Under the direction of coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, Kentucky continually confused the favored Sooners with different defensive looks. The Wildcats used three tackles much of the time, causing OU quarterback Claude Arnold to hasten his playmaking.

Inflicting the most damage on the Sooners was Walt Yowarsky, a tackle who had played less than five minutes on the defensive side of the football in 1950. Yowarsky operated at left end, next to Outland Trophy winner Bob Gain, and repeatedly sliced into the Sooner backfield to break up passes and to make Arnold hurry his hand-offs and laterals.

Yowarsky recovered a fumble on the OU 22 that set up UK's first touchdown. On the very next play, Babe Parilli hit Wilbur Jamerson in the right corner of the end zone for the touchdown. Gain added the PAT to make it 7-0 in the first quarter.

Kentucky marched 81 yards in the second quarter to go up 13-0. Jamerson dove over from the one to cap the drive, but Gain missed wide on the PAT.

The Wildcat defense, ranked number two in the nation, showed Oklahoma why late in the third quarter. The Sooners drove 67 yards with the second-half kickoff, sitting at the UK 3 with a first-and-goal. Yowarsky helped UK turn back the Sooners, throwing an OU runner for a five-yard loss on third down and Oklahoma eventually turned the ball over on downs.

Yowarsky, voted the game's MVP, thwarted another OU threat in the fourth quarter as he recovered a fumbled punt.

Oklahoma did score with seven minutes to play as Billy Vessels hit Merrill Green on a 17-yard pass for the touchdown. Jim Weatherall added the PAT.

The Wildcats managed to hold on to the football for all but one play the rest of the way to claim a stirring 13-7 win.

Kentucky 20, TCU 7

Quarterback Babe Parilli threw for two touchdowns to lead the Kentucky Wildcats to a 20-7 victory over the TCU Horned Frogs in the 1952 Cotton Bowl before a crowd of 75,349 at Dallas, Texas.

Parilli, who completed 8 of 20 passes for 85 yards, tossed both touchdown strikes to Emery Clark. With the victory, the Wildcats end the season at 8-4.

Kentucky got on the scoreboard first, as Parilli found Clark for the first of two TDs. Parilli hit Clark with a five-yard toss to culminate a 53-yard scoring march. Harry Jones added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after one quarter.

In the second period, UK got its second touchdown when Parilli and Clark hooked up again. This time, Parilli found Clark on a 13-yard TD strike to cap a 57-yard drive. Jones missed on the PAT attempt and UK settled for a 13-0 lead in the second period with a little over 10 minutes left.

The Wildcat defense made that 13-point lead stand up until halftime as the Horned Frogs drove four times deep into UK territory. Led by All-American guard Ray Correll, the Wildcats turned TCU away on drives to the UK 4, 24, 5 and 2-yard lines to take a 13-0 lead at intermission.

TCU's Bobby Jack Floyd sliced the UK lead to 13-7 when he galloped 43 yards on a sweep. Floyd's run capped an 80 yard scoring drive which took only four plays. Keith Flowers added the PAT with 1:12 left in the third period.

Kentucky ended any thoughts of a TCU comeback, thwarting the only two Horned Frog offensive drives in the fourth period and scoring an insurance touchdown as well. Ed Hamilton sealed the UK victory with a three-yard score off left tackle with 3:33 left. Jones added the PAT for the final 20-7 score.

Kentucky 21, North Carolina 0

Kentucky tailback Rod Stewart scored three touchdowns to lead the Wildcats to a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina before a sellout crowd of 54,132 in the 1976 Peach Bowl at Atlanta, Ga.

The Wildcats, after a 25 year absence from the post-season bowl scene, returned in fine fashion as Kentucky completely smothered the Tar Heels. Kentucky outgained North Carolina 334-108 in total yards, limiting the Tar Heels to just five first downs and forcing five UNC turnovers.

After a scoreless first half, Kentucky went to work in the third period after UNC quarterback Matt Kupec fumbled at the Tar Heel 21. UK's James Ramey recovered and the Wildcats were in business.

Seven plays later, Stewart busted over from the one for the touchdown. John Pierce added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after three quarters.

Stewart sent the 37,000-plus Kentuckians, who had followed UK to the Peach Bowl, into a frenzy with his second touchdown early in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats marched 57 yards in 9 plays as Stewart capped the drive with a 13-yard gallop behind All-American tackle Warren Bryant. Pierce was good on the PAT and Kentucky led 14-0 with 13:01 left to play.

The Big Blue had to go only 47 yards for their final score. Kentucky faced a fourth-and-one from the UNC 3 with a little over three minutes remaining. Once again, Stewart (104 yards on 19 carries) got the call and he picked up both - the first down and the touchdown. Pierce was true on the PAT and UK had put the game away.

Stewart tied the Peach Bowl record for most touchdowns and scoring with the 3 TDs and 18 points. He was named the game's MVP. The Most Valuable Defensive Player of the game was UK linebacker Mike Martin, who helped hold the Tarheels to just over 100 yards.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

West Virginia 20, Kentucky 16

1983

Kentucky won much of the statistical battle but lost the war in dropping a tough 20-16 decision to the West Virginia Mountaineers in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham.

The Wildcats, in a bowl for the first time since 1976, outgained West Virginia 306-288 in total offense and held the edge in first downs 19-18 and passing yards 216-88. But 17 second-half points by West Virginia were too much for the Wildcats to overcome.

West Virginia scratched first as placekicker Paul Woodside connected on a 39-yard field goal late in the first quarter.

Kentucky countered with 10 points in the second stanza to take a 10-3 lead at halftime.

The Wildcats marched 54 yards in eight plays for their first score. Facing a third-and-three from the WV 26, Kentucky used some razzle-dazzle as Tony Mayes swept right, then threw-back to quarterback Randy Jenkins in the left corner of the endzone for the TD. John Hutcherson added the PAT and UK led 7-3 with 10:59 left in the second period.

Jenkins hit two big passes late in the second quarter to help set up a 32-yard field goal by Hutcherson. Jenkins connected with Joe Phillips for a 19-yard pass play and then hit George Adams for a 14-yarder as Hutcherson connected with but 38 seconds left in the half.

WVU kicker Paul Woodside fooled everyone to begin the second half. Woodside tried an on-side kick to start the half and then recovered it to give the Mountaineers the football at the UK 48. Eight plays later, QB Jett Hostetler found Rich Hollins for a 16-yard TD strike. Woodside added the PAT and it was 10-10 with 11:10 left in the third quarter.

West Virginia scored twice in a span of two minutes early in the fourth quarter to take a commanding 20-10 lead. Hostetler capped off a 10-play, 81-yard drive with a 2-yard scoring toss to Rob Bennett to make it 17-10 with 11:15 left to play.

Two plays later, West Virginia took over after an interception of a Jenkins pass at the UK 16. The interception set up a 23-yard field goal by Woodside at the Mountaineers went up 20-10 with 9:18 remaining.

Kentucky freshman quarterback Bill Ransdell led the Wildcats back, marching UK 92 yards in 11 plays following the kickoff. Ransdell hit Phillips for a 13-yard scoring toss to make it 20-16 with 5:50 left. Hutcherson missed the PAT. The Wildcats got one more shot, but could get no further than the UK 37.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

Kentucky 20, Wisconsin 19

Kentucky's Joey Worley booted a career-long 52-yard field goal with just under nine minutes remaining to give the Wildcats a thrilling 20-19 victory over the Wisconsin Badgers in the 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham.

Worley, a freshman, helped Kentucky overcome a nine-point deficit in the second half with his school and bowl record field goal. The victory gave Kentucky its first bowl win since the 1976 Peach Bowl when the Cats downed North Carolina, 21-0.

Wisconsin jumped on top early, scoring twice in the first quarter. Todd Gregoire nailed a 40-yard field goal just under four minutes into the game and Michael Howard hit Thad McFadden with a 3-yard TD pass. Gregoire added the PAT and the Badgers led 10-0 with 5:34 left in the opening period.

Gregoire added another field goal, this one from 27 yards, to make it 13-0 with 7:05 left in the second period. Three possessions later, Kentucky got on the board after safety Paul Calhoun intercepted a Howard pass to give UK possession at the Badger 42. It took Kentucky just five plays to score as Marc Logan went over from nine yards. Worley added the PAT to cut the deficit to 13-7 with 1:29 left in the half.

Wisconsin was not through. The Badgers used four running plays, two passes and a costly 15-yard penalty to move the football to the UK 3 with two seconds left in the half. From there, Wisconsin decided on a Gregoire field goal (20-yarder) to take a 16-7 edge at halftime.

Kentucky narrowed the gap to 16-10 on a 22-yard field goal by Worley with 11:28 left in the third quarter. But Gregoire responded with a 40-yarder two minutes later to move the count back to nine, 19-10.

Behind UK quarterback Bill Ransdell, the Wildcats marched 82 yards in 11 plays later in the quarter to get within two, 19-17. Ransdell hit Logan on a screen pass to cover the final 27 yards and with the Worley PAT, UK was back in it with 26 seconds left in the third quarter.

The next time Kentucky got the ball, Ransdell moved the Cats into position for Worley's 52-yarder. Starting from the UK 22, tailback Mark Higgs got the call four consecutive times, then it was Adams turn the next four plays. Facing a fourth-and-two at the UW 34, Worley nailed the game-winner with 8:55 left.

Wisconsin came back and marched to the UK 8 with less than two minutes left. With the Badgers facing a fourth-and-six, Gregoire was called on for his 5th field goal attempt. This time, the snap from center was bobbled and UK had sealed the victory.

KENTUCKY HOMECOMING RECORD (1941-1948)

T R A D I T I O N

KENTUCKY ON TELEVISION

Beginning in 1956, the University of Kentucky football program has played in 33 games before "live" network television audiences. The Wildcats faced Georgia Tech in the very first telecast of a Kentucky football game on Sept. 22, 1956, by NBC at Stoll Field in Lexington. In all, Kentucky has appeared the most on national cable station, TBS of Atlanta, a total of 18 times. The most major network appearances have been on ABC with eight. The UK record in the 33 games televised is 10-23-1.

The 10 universities of the Southeastern Conference began athletic competition with one another almost 100 years ago as members of the Southeastern Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

Seven institutions attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives, called by Dr. William L. Dudley of Vanderbilt, in Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 22, 1894.

Student teams from the schools began meeting in various sports with little pattern to their contests. Baseball was the most popular campus sport, but the America adaptation of the English game rugby, called "football" was drifting down from the East and Midwest. Southerners were quickly attracted to this sports formalized in 1869.

The first football game in the Southeast was played April 9, 1880, on the ground now called Old Stoll Field at the University of Kentucky. Kentucky, then known as Kentucky A&M, was host to the contest in which Transylvania College, then called Kentucky University, upset Centre College 13-3/4 to 0. Kentucky A&M (now UK) organized a team and in November, 1881, played Transylvania a three-game series (winning 7-1/2 to 1, then losing 1 to 2 and 2-1/2 to 3-3/4). By 1895, nine schools now SEC members were playing football.

Basketball moved quickly to the South as Vanderbilt University was playing at the Nashville YMCA in 1893, just two years after Dr. James Naismith originated the game at Springfield (Mass.) College. The Commodores won 9-6 in a game with nine players on each team. Basketball became an intercollegiate sport in 1901 and in 1908 Vanderbilt was meeting Columbia and Yale intersectionally.

Track was organized on a conference level at the 1895 SIAA meeting presided over by president Dudley, who served until his death in 1914. The first annual championship meet was held at Vanderbilt on May 15, 1896. By the turn of the century eight of the 13 charter SEC members were participating.

The seven-member SIAA expanded to 19 institutions in 1895 and by 1920 there were 30 members. The larger schools reorganized as the Southern Conference at a meeting in Gainesville, Fla., Dec. 12-13, 1920. Professor S.V. Sanford of Georgia called the meeting and served as the first president. Despite an original limit of 16, the membership grew to 23 by 1928. At one time or another the SIAA and the SC included most of the Southern colleges from Virginia to Texas.

The 13 members west and south of the Appalachian Mountains reorganized as the Southeastern Conference at the annual SC meeting of Dec. 8-9, 1932, in Knoxville, Tenn. The 10 coast members remained in the Southern Conference. Dr. Frank L. McVey of Kentucky was elected president of the new conference whose charter members were: Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Louisiana State, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt (Sewanee withdrew Dec. 13, 1940, while Georgia Tech and Tulane followed on June 1, 1964, and June 1, 1966, respectively). McVey held an informal meeting of the school presidents Feb. 16, 1933, in Birmingham, Ala., then the first full meeting in Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 27.

The new SEC discovered both stature and stability by designating voting power to the presidents of the member institutions. They determined the policies of the league and through the years it has been the principal source of strength in the evolution of the league, with particular reference to eligibility regulations and academic requirements. The office of the commissioner was formed in 1940 in Jackson, Miss., due to the great amount of detail work developing, especially in recruiting and eligibility. Former Mississippi Governor Martin S. Conner took office as commissioner Aug. 21, 1940, as an extension of the authority of the presidents. Conner later became ill and the secretary of the conference, Dean N.W. Dougherty of Tennessee, served as acting commissioner during the fall of 1946.

The office was moved to Birmingham, Ala., with the appointment of Bernie H. Moore as the second full-time commissioner on Feb. 21, 1948. Moore, a former LSU coach, guided the SEC to national respect in his 18-year tenure.

A.M. (Tonto) Coleman succeeded Moore upon his retirement April 1, 1966. The Alabama native, who was reared in Texas and experienced in athletic coaching and administration, served six and one-half years. Dr. H. Boyd McWhorter, then Dean of Arts and Sciences at Georgia and secretary of the league since 1967, accepted the position upon the retirement of Coleman Aug. 1, 1972. Under his leadership the SEC experienced unparalleled growth. In McWhorter's first year the SEC distributed $157 million and 14 years later the league distributed $15 million in revenue to the member institutions in his final year before retiring (1986).

Dr. Harvey W. Schiller, an Air Force colonel and faculty chair at the U.S. Air Force Academy, followed McWhorter, taking office Sept. 15, 1986. Under his guidance the SEC established itself as a leader in the areas of athletic scholarship and marketing.

Roy F. Kramer succeeded Schiller, who accepted the position of Executive Director of the U.S. Olympic Committee, on Jan. 10, 1990. Kramer, who has served on numerous NCAA committees, joined the league office after spending 12 years as athletic director at Vanderbilt.

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in four sports (baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track). The league's inaugural championship event a basketball tournament held Feb. 24-28, 1933, in Atlanta, Ga. Records show the first men's team title for cross-country was awarded in 1935, while golf and swimming were added in 1937. The league later began hosting championships in tennis (1953) and indoor track (1957).

In 1973-74 the SEC first awarded the Bernie Moore Trophy, symbolic of the league's premier men's athletic program. Points are awarded based on the member institutions' conference finish in all sports.

In the 1979-80 academic year SEC championship for women were recognized in basketball, tennis and volleyball. The following year golf, gymnastics, swimming and track and field were added. The administration of women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the conference office on Sept. 1, 1984. A women's all-sports champion has been awarded every year since 1983-84.

As the SEC begins its seventh decade of competition in 1990, the conference regulates nine sports for both its men's and women's programs as follows:

Men - baseball, basketball, football, golf, swimming, tennis and track (cross country, indoor and outdoor).

Women - basketball, golf, gymnastics, swimming, tennis, track (cross country, indoor and outdoor) and volleyball.

NEW SEC ROTATION BEGINS IN 1996

Last year, the Southeastern Conference athletic directors formally adopted a new conference football schedule for the 1996 through 2003 seasons.

The new plan changes the permanent opponents in the conference's seven-game rotating schedule. Under the current formula, each school plays five opponents on an annual basis, while rotating the remaining four schools on a two-year schedule. The new formula will still utilize the 5-2 rotation, but will alter the five permanent opponents.

The new formula which will take effect in 1996 is as follows:

PERMANENT OPPONENTS

Alabama	Vanderbilt, Tennessee, Auburn, Ole Miss, LSU
Auburn	Florida, Mississippi State, Kentucky, Georgia, Alabama
Florida	Mississippi State, Auburn, Tennessee, Georgia, Kentucky
Georgia	Ole Miss, Vanderbilt, LSU, Auburn, Florida
Kentucky	Auburn, Mississippi State, Vanderbilt, Florida, Tennessee
LSU	Tennessee, Georgia, Ole Miss, Alabama, Mississippi State
Ole Miss	Georgia, Vanderbilt, LSU, Alabama, Mississippi State
Miss. State	Florida, Auburn, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss
Tennessee	LSU, Alabama, Florida, Kentucky, Vanderbilt
Vanderbilt	Alabama, Georgia, Ole Miss, Kentucky, Tennessee

ROTATING OPPONENTS

Alabama	Kentucky, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi State
Auburn	LSU, Vanderbilt, Tennessee, Ole Miss
Florida	Ole Miss, Alabama, Vanderbilt, LSU
Georgia	Tennessee, Mississippi State, Alabama, Kentucky
Kentucky	Alabama, LSU, Georgia, Ole Miss

DICKY LYONS 22, WEST VIRGINIA 7

That's correct, when Kentucky met the West Virginia Mountaineers on Nov. 4, 1967, at Lexington, halfback Dicky Lyons did a little of everything in helping the Wildcats earn their first victory of the season.

UK entered the contest with an 0-6 record, with its highest offensive output of 14 points in a 24-14 loss to Virginia Tech a couple of weeks earlier. On this afternoon, Lyons scored all 22 points to lead the Cats to a 22-7 victory over West Virginia.

Lyons put Kentucky ahead first, 6-0, with a three-yard run in the first quarter. After the Wildcats had fallen behind, 7-6, Lyons booted a 33-yard field goal with 27 seconds left in the half to give UK a 9-7 lead at intermission.

The score remained the same until the fourth quarter. In the final period, Lyons hit paydirt with two additional runs—one and three yards—and added a PAT to make the final margin, 22-7.

On the afternoon, Lyons carried the football 19 times for 51 yards. He returned two kickoffs for 33 yards, averaging 37 yards per punt. Lyons hit 1 of 1 field goals and 1 of 3 PATs.

Lyons was named Southeastern Conference Back of the Week after leading UK to its first victory of 1967. The Wildcats finished the year 2-8. By the way, Lyons' 22 points was the most points scored by UK during the '67 campaign. In the final three games of the year, Kentucky defeated Vandy 12-7, but scored only 12 points against Florida and seven vs. Tennessee.

WILDCAT MASCOT

The Wildcat mascot originated during the 1976-77 academic year at the University of Kentucky and serves as a friendly ambassador for the University at all football and basketball events and several academic functions.

The original Wildcat mascot was Gary Lanner. He set the precedent for future Wildcat mascots in dazzling and entertaining the huge crowds at Commonwealth Stadium and Rupp Arena.

In the 1980's, Terry Barney served as the Wildcat mascot and began a tradition that is carried out at every UK football game. After each UK score, Barney ran to the endzone in front of the Wildcats student section and did one-arm push ups for every point Kentucky had scored.

Today, that custom still applies. The crowd counts simultaneously with each push up. Then, once the push ups are finished, the Wildcat mascot leads the spelling of C-A-T-S.

The most one-arm push ups delivered by the Wildcat mascot in most recent seasons came in UK's 41-0 blanking of Utah State to open the 1987 season. In all, the Wildcat mascot did 184 one-arm pushups on the afternoon which included 105 in the first half alone.

Again this season, Lexington native Jay McChord will serve as the Wildcat mascot.

BLUE AND WHITE

The University of Kentucky adopted Blue and White as its official colors in 1892. Ironically, blue and white were not the original colors UK had used for its athletics teams.

UK students had decided on a blue and yellow prior to the Kentucky-Centre football game on Dec. 19, 1891. The shade of blue, which is between a royal and navy blue, came about when a student asked the same question, "What color blue?"

At that time, Richard C. Stoll (who lettered in football at UK in 1893-94) pulled off his necktie and held it up. The students then proceeded to adopt that particular shade of blue in Stoll's necktie. A year later, UK students dropped yellow for white.

For printing purposes, the UK athletic teams use PMS 293 blue.

UK

From its modest beginnings in 1865, when it was known as State College, the University of Kentucky has grown into one of the nation's most outstanding institutions of higher learning.

As a comprehensive land-grand university, UK offers an educational experience that cannot be matched anywhere in the Commonwealth. In fact, only a small number of institutions across the nation can offer the wealth of opportunities that await students at UK.

At Kentucky, there is a tradition of value:

UK EDUCATES ONE-THIRD OF THE COLLEGE STUDENTS IN KENTUCKY

Enrollment on the University's campus in Lexington is more than 23,000, while about 36,000 attend UK's 14 community colleges throughout the Commonwealth. That represents one-third of all students attending public or private colleges, business schools and universities in the state.

INCOMING FRESHMEN ARE BEST IN STATE

Average entrance exam scores for UK freshmen are 22+ on the ACT, higher than those for any public university in the state and about three points higher than the national average. The result is a better quality student body each year.

APPLICATIONS TO ATTEND UK INCREASING

The number of students wanting to attend UK increases each year with applications for admission this fall well above the 10,000 mark.

ACADEMIC SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM IS GROWING

The University's academic scholarship program - scholarships awarded on merit alone - has grown from $70,000 a year in 1983 to more than $1 million in 1988.

UK HAS REACHED THE TOP CATEGORY OF RESEARCH UNIVERSITIES

The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching has classified UK as a "Research University of the First Class," the only such institution in Kentucky and one of only 45 in the nation.

UK HAS ENTERED THE WORLD OF SUPERCOMPUTERS

The University is now one of only a small number of universities in the nation to acquire a "supercomputer." UK's IBM 300E, with three "vectors," will attract not only more research funding and grants, but it also will be made available to undergraduate students, a rarity at any university.

UK HAS SOME OF THE BEST FACULTY IN THE NATION

Some examples:

ROBERT SHEPHERD, plant pathology, was elected to the National Academy of Sciences, the only Kentucky resident ever to receive that prestigious honor.

ANTHONY DEMARIA is president of the American College of Cardiology.

DAVID KAO, civil engineering, was named one of the nation's Top 100 researchers by Science Digest Magazine.

UK

VIRGIL HAYES, animal sciences, is president-elect of the Council for Agricultural Science and Technology in the United States.

PEGGY MESZAROS, dean of the College of Home Economics, is national president of Kappa Omicron Phi, a home economics honorary society.

GUY DAVENPORT, an English professor who is a Rhodes Scholar, is internationally known in his field.

R. DAVID COBB, Pharmacy, is chairman-elect of the board of trustees of the American Pharmaceutical Association.

THE FACULTY AT UK ARE AN IMPORTANT STATE "INDUSTRY"

UK faculty brought to the University and the state last year more than $50 million in research grants and sponsored programs - a valuable resource to the economic development of the Commonwealth. UK ranks among the Top 100 research universities in federal research funding, the only one so ranked in the state.

UK HAS SOME OF THE MOST OUTSTANDING PROGRAMS IN THE NATION

- The sociology department received the American Sociological Association's award for teaching, the first time this prize has gone to an entire department.

- The College of Communications ranked among the Top 10 programs in the country based on papers presented at the International Communications Association convention.

- The Gaines Center for the Humanities is unique among undergraduate programs and facilities found in public universities in the nation.

- University cancer research and treatment programs have been enhanced by two new modern facilities.

- The equine research program, for a long time a research hallmark at UK, has one of the top research facilities in the world, the new Maxwell Gluck Equine Research Center.

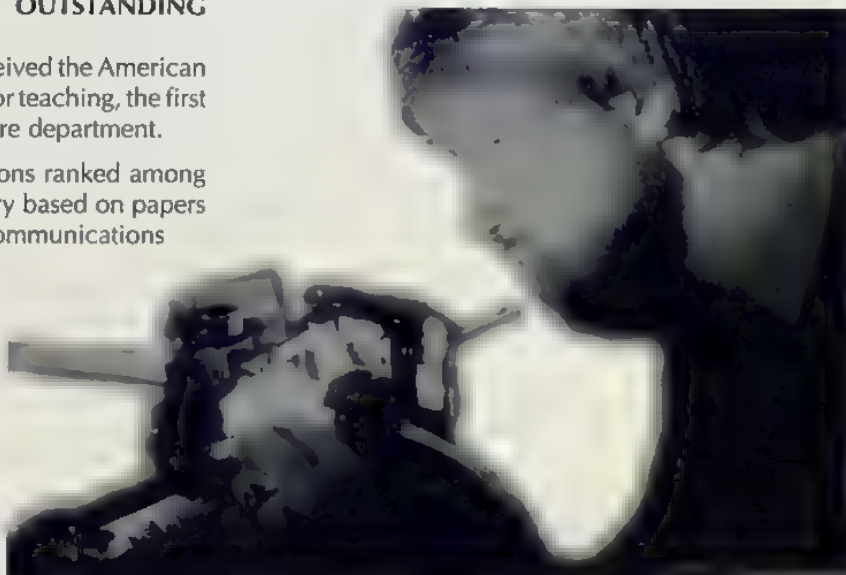

- The Patterson School of Diplomacy and International Commerce is the only such graduate program of its kind in the South.

- More than 40,000 people annually enjoy music, theatre and art programs of the College of Fine Arts.

- The award-winning Community College System of 14 colleges across the state provide technical and transfer programs to more than 30,000 Kentuckians annually.

UK HAS AN IMPRESSIVE LIST OF ALUMNI

Included in the University's long list of more than 100,000 alumni are seven governors, two Nobel Prize winners, an astronaut, and several chief executive officers of national corporations.

THE PRESIDENT & BOARD

Charles T. Wethington Jr. was named Interim President of the University of Kentucky in December 1989. He served as Chancellor of the UK Community College System since 1982.

Wethington began his career in higher education in 1965 as an educational psychology instructor on the Lexington campus of the University and entered administration two years later when he was named director of Maysville Community College. In 1971 he moved to the system office in Lexington as assistant vice president, becoming vice president of the Community College System in 1981.

In the University reorganization of 1982 he was named chancellor of the UK system, one of the three major sectors of UK.

Under his leadership the Community College System has set enrollment records and added an entire new college at Owensboro.

Wethington earned his master's and doctorate degrees at UK after completing his undergraduate work at Eastern Kentucky University.

The Casey County native has been active on the national higher education scene, serving as legislation committee chairman of the National Council of State Directors of Community and Junior Colleges before moving to the chairmanship in 1985.

He has been vice chairman of the Executive Council of the Southern Association of College and Schools' Commission on Colleges, and was a member of the search committee for the executive director of the Commission.

He has held membership on the Joint Commission on Federal Relations of the Association of Community College Trustees and the American Association of Community and Junior Colleges, and has served as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Wethington also is chairman of the Bluegrass State Skills Corporation board of directors, a member of the Board of Visitors of the Community College of the Air Force, a member of the Southern Region Education Board and member of its Executive Committee. He has been in demand nationally in the accreditation process of community and junior colleges.

During 1957-61 he served as a cryptolinguist in the U. S. Air Force Security Service. He studied Russian at Syracuse University, 1958-59.

Wethington, born Jan. 2, 1936, in Merrimac, Ky., is married to the former Judy Woodrow Wethington, a Danville native. They have a son, Kennan, 21, and a daughter, Lisa, 24, and live in Lexington.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

hen Charles Martin (C. M.) Newton became the University of Kentucky's seventh Director of Athletics on April 1, 1989, he hit the ground running.

Newton's first order of business was to bring respectability back to a basketball program hit hard by an NCAA investigation. He did so by hiring New York Knickerbockers head man Rick Pitino to coach the Wildcats. A few months later, Newton was faced with the task of hiring a football coach to replace the retiring Jerry Claiborne. Newton again rose to the occasion, luring Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year Bill Curry from the University of Alabama to lead the UK program.

Newton recently scored once again with UK fans when it was announced that UK's football and basketball games will once again be carried on Louisville's clear-channel, 50,000-watt WHAS Radio, for the first time since 1986.

After a little more than a year on the job, Newton has become one of the most popular public figures in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. In addition to a lengthy, impressive list of credentials, Newton brought to Kentucky a sparkling reputation at a crucial time in the history of UK Athletics. In accepting the position at his alma mater, Newton summarized his goals and objectives by saying, "I have a resolve to try very hard to continue that great tradition, and at the same time, to totally do it within the NCAA and SEC rules and not sacrifice the academic integrity of this University."

Newton capped an illustrious basketball coaching career by leading his final Vanderbilt University team to a 19-14 record, a second-place SEC finish and its second consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance during the 1988-89 season. He was named SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and also received the Kodak NABC District IV Coach of the Year award. Newton served as head basketball coach and associate athletics director at the Nashville school since 1982, compiling a 129-115 record. In 32 years of coaching at Transylvania, Alabama and Vanderbilt, Newton compiled a 509-375 record overall, ranking among the top 10 active coaches in the game in terms of total victories. His Alabama teams won three consecutive Southeastern Conference championships. He finished his career ranked second in career victories in Southeastern Conference games to his mentor, Coach Adolph Rupp.

Perhaps more impressive, however, was Newton's ability to produce winning teams that also possessed exceptional academic credentials. During Newton's tenure at Vanderbilt, 18 Commodores were named to the Academic All-SEC team, over 50 percent more than any other league school, and including his last graduating class, all 21 seniors received their diplomas.

Newton is highly regarded on the national level. He has served on the board of directors of the National Association of Basketball Coaches. He worked six years on the NCAA Basketball Rules Committee, serving as chairman of that elite group for five of those years. He also served as vice president of USA Basketball, the nation's governing body for international amateur basketball.

Newton has literally circled the globe to promote the game of basketball. He served as team manager, a combination coaching and administrative position, on the 1984 U.S. Olympic team that won the gold medal. Indiana coach Bob Knight, who tabbed Newton for the Olympic staff, called him "the finest gentleman in our business." In 1983 and 1987, Newton took his Vanderbilt squads to the Republic of China (Taiwan) to represent the United States in the R. William Jones Cup International Tournament, winning the gold medal in 1983 and the silver in 1987. He has also conducted coaching clinics in numerous countries.

Newton began his coaching career at Transylvania College (now Transylvania University) in Lexington. Recommended for the job by Coach Rupp, Newton guided Transy to a 169-137 record in his 12 years at the helm despite the handicap of a limited scholarship program.

In 1969, once again with the backing of Rupp, Newton answered a call from Paul "Bear" Bryant to take on the challenge of building the downtrodden Alabama basketball program. During his 12-year tenure, Newton orchestrated a complete turnaround in the Crimson Tide's basketball fortunes, compiling a sparkling 211-123 record.

In addition to the three SEC championships, Newton guided the Tide to two trips to the NCAA Tournament and four berths in the NIT.

With few horizons left to conquer at Alabama, Newton resigned at the end of the 1980 season to accept a job as assistant commissioner of the Southeastern Conference. A year later, when Vanderbilt athletics director Roy Kramer was searching for a coach of national stature to head the Commodore basketball program, Newton was the obvious man for the job.

Newton was born Feb. 2, 1930, in Rockwood, Tenn. He grew up in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., where he was eventually named a charter member of that city's Sports Hall of Fame, along with Chris Evert, Julius Boros, and the late Brian Piccolo.

After high school, Newton enrolled at UK on a basketball scholarship. He was a letterman of the Wildcats' 1951 national championship team. Also a standout baseball pitcher, Newton hurled in the New York Yankees minor league system before entering college coaching.

Newton is married to the former Evelyn Davis of Ft. Lauderdale. The Newtons have three grown children — daughters Deborah, and Mrs. Tracy Thompson and son Martin — and three grandchildren.

BOB BRADLEY
Assistant Director of Athletics/Academics

Bob Bradley is in his 13th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association, coming aboard in 1977.

Bradley, a native of Hornell, N.Y., supervises all academic affairs regarding the UK athletic programs, including the operation of the CATS (Center for Academic and Tutorial Services) Center.

He graduated from Hornell High School and earned his undergraduate degree at Salem College in 1971. Bradley earned his master's degree in 1972 from the University of Kentucky in educational psychology and counseling.

Prior to joining the UKAA staff, Bradley served as coordinator of career counseling and director of financial aid for the Lexington Technical Institute.

Bradley is the son of Delores Bradley and the late Charles Bradley of Hornell. He is single.

BOSTICK
Assistant Director of Athletics/Compliance

John Bostick is in his second year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association as Assistant Athletic Director for Compliance.

Bostick, a native of Winfield, Ala., was named to his new post at UK on June 1, 1989. Prior to that, Bostick had spent eight years as an assistant basketball coach at Vanderbilt University under C.M. Newton.

In all, Bostick was an assistant coach under Newton for 20 years (12 at Alabama, eight at Vanderbilt). He has spent 32 years as a coach on either the high school or collegiate level. His head coaching record in the prep ranks was 178-102 in 10 seasons.

Bostick, who earned his bachelor's degree from Florence State in 1957, picked up 11 varsity letters during his collegiate playing days which is a school record (four in baseball, basketball; three in football).

He is married to the former Betty Cotton of Florence, Ala.

BARBARA DONNELLY
Ticket Manager

Barbara Donnelly is in her 15th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics

Association.

Donnelly, a native of Flatwoods, was named ticket manager for the UKAA in October of 1987. She had served as assistant ticket manager since 1984.

Donnelly began her employment with UKAA as secretary to Frank Ham of the Blue-White Fund office in December 1975.

She graduated from Russell High School in 1971 and owns an associate degree from Ashland Community College.

KATHY DeBOER
Assistant Director of Athletics/Non-Revenue
Sports

Kathy DeBoer is in her fifth year as Assistant Athletics Director at the University of Kentucky.

DeBoer, who also doubles as the women's volleyball coach, supervises the operation and administration of all non-revenue sports at UK.

In five years at Kentucky, DeBoer has led her Wildcats volleyball squads to an impressive 136-63 record including three Southeastern Conference titles and two SEC Tournament championships. DeBoer, the 1987 Tachikara National Coach of the Year, has taken UK to the NCAA Final Eight in 1987 and the NCAA Final 16 in 1988.

DeBoer spent four seasons as volleyball coach at Ferris State College prior to coming to UK. She led Ferris State to a pair of Great Lakes Conference championships.

DeBoer received her bachelor's degree from Michigan State in 1978 and is currently finishing her master's degree in business administration at Kentucky.

She is married to Mark Pittman of Lexington.

IVY
Assistant Director of Athletics/Internal Affairs

Larry Ivy is in his 14th year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association. He was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Internal Affairs in 1989 after serving as Assistant AD for 13 years.

Ivy, a native of Huntsville, Ala., joined the UKAA staff in 1976. He assists the athletic director in all areas of the overall Association's administration, with primary interest in management of the business operations.

Aside from his above duties, Ivy serves as game manager for all UK home basketball games. He has also served as tournament manager for the 1985 NCAA Final Four, the 1982 Southeastern Conference Basketball Tournament, and four NCAA Midstate Regionals (1977, 80, 84, 89).

Ivy graduated from Huntsville High School in 1961 and earned his undergraduate degree (1967) and MBA (1968) from the University of Alabama.

Ivy is married to the former Lorain Darnell of Paducah. He has one daughter, Kim, 19.

GENE DeFILIPPO
Assistant Director of Athletics/External Affairs

Gene DeFilippo is in his fourth year with the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

DeFilippo, a native of Florence, Mass., was named Assistant Athletic Director for Marketing, Promotions and Fundraising in January, 1987 and promoted to Associate Athletics Director in 1989. His main responsibilities include all marketing and promotional matters concerning UK athletics and fundraising as director of the Blue-White Fund.

He earned his undergraduate degree and graduated with cum laude honors from Springfield College in 1973. The following year, DeFilippo served as a graduate assistant coach at Tennessee where he earned his master's degree in educational administration (1974).

DeFilippo served as football offensive coordinator from 1975-79 at Youngstown (Ohio) State, then was an assistant coach at Vanderbilt the next three years. He moved from coaching to administrative assistant at Vanderbilt under athletic director Roy Kramer. After two years, DeFilippo was named director of athletics at the University of South Carolina at Spartanburg.

He and his wife, Anne, have three children — Christine, John and Mary.

KENTUCKY ATHLETICS IN 1989-90

A trio of third-place finishes in volleyball, golf and tennis paced UK's women's athletic program to a fourth-place finish overall in the SEC All-Sports Trophy race.

Once again, coach Don Weber's Cross Country teams enjoyed outstanding seasons. The women's squad won its second consecutive SEC title and finished second in the NCAA. The Lady Kats were paced by All-American Valerie McGovern, UK's female Athlete-of-the-Year, who finished second individually at the meet and who would go on to take first place in the 5,000 meters at the NCAA's outdoor track meet in the week. Weber's men's squad posted the highest conference finish of any team in the year, placing fourth at the SEC meet.

Three women's squads qualified for postseason action in 1989-90. Sharon Fanning's Lady Kat Basketball team capped its best season since 1982-83 by winning the National Women's Invitational Tournament. In other third-place finishes, John Dinneen and Bettie Lou Evans, who led the women's golf and tennis squads, earned third place in the NCAA Tournaments.

THE E.J. NUTTER TRAINING FACILITY

One of the nation's showcase football facilities rests on the southeast corner of the University of Kentucky campus.

Indeed, the ultra-modern E.J. Nutter Football Training Facility ranks among the best in the country, bar-none. Built at a cost of $5.7 million, the facility officially became the home of Kentucky Wildcat Football in September 1987.

The Nutter Center, as it is called on the UK campus, encompasses over 48,000 square feet and is built adjacent to the Shively Sports Complex. It is located on Sports Center Drive, just a rock's throw away from Commonwealth Stadium.

"I have not seen everyone's new facilities, but the Nutter Center is the finest that I have seen," UK coach Bill Curry says. "It is the best planned and the most spacious facility I know of. Combined with our spacious practice area, the Nutter Center gives us the most beautiful football complex that I have ever been associated with."

The new Wildcat facility is named after Ervin J. Nutter, a UK alumnus who contributed one million dollars to get the fund-raising campaign started for construction to begin. The Nutter gift to the UK Athletics Association is the largest single grant received by the Association.

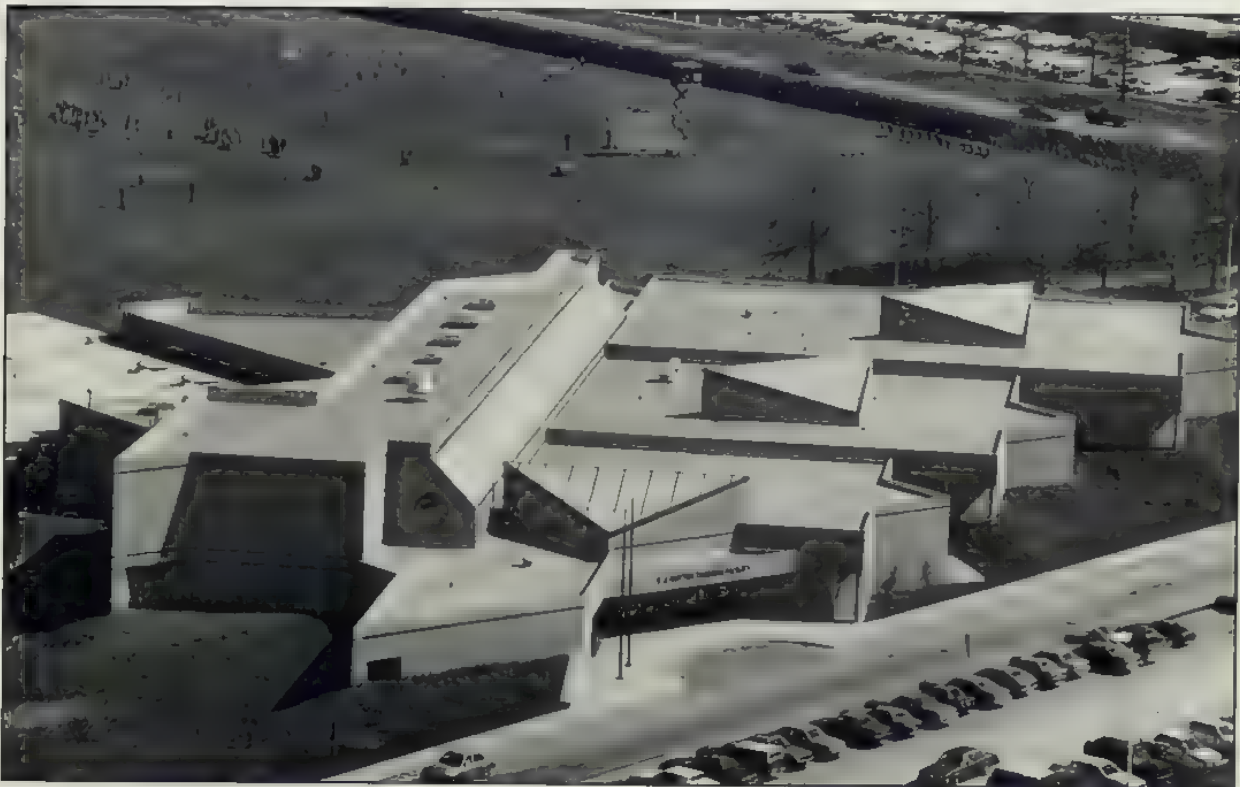

"The University has been a great inspiration to me," Nutter said. "I do not feel as if I've given anything away. I'm just repaying what the University has done for me."

Now, just three short years after the facility was completed, the Nutter Center is beginning to pay dividends to the Kentucky Football Program.

"It definitely helped us in recruiting," former UK coach Jerry Claiborne said. "Of course, the number one thing in recruiting is winning, but this beautiful facility will really amaze you."

Aside from new dressing facilities which feature large, personal lockers for every Kentucky football player, the Nutter Center is highlighted by a 9,000 square foot weight room. The weight room has over 100,000 pounds of equipment alone. The Nutter Center also has 11 meeting rooms, a state-of-the-art video and editing room for coaches' film, equipment and training rooms, staff and player lounges, an interview area, a 60-yard sprint track, sauna and jacuzzi, an

A touch of Kentucky Football history is on display in the foyer area.

The memorabilia case holds UK trophies from bowl games such as the Great Lakes Bowl, the Sugar Bowl, the Cotton Bowl, the Peach Bowl and the Hall of Fame Bowls. The case displays the 1950 and 1976 Southeastern Conference championship trophies which the Wildcats earned.

"This is a facility built with the players in mind," said Claiborne, who helped spearhead the financial drive to make the Nutter Center possible. "It does not have coaches' offices like other facilities. Instead, we had the student-athlete in mind in the design and planning and that's how we wanted it to be."

Curry plans no changes in that respect.

"It is a privilege to get to work in a facility such as this everyday," Curry said. "The planning and design with the student-athletes at heart is what we're about today."

"Jerry Claiborne's most important accomplishments during his eight years at Kentucky were in the human arena. But his picture, which hangs in the Nutter Center, is a reminder to us just how much he loved this University. For Jerry and Mr. Nutter and the other contributors who helped make this facility possible, they have left a legacy that will surely be exciting to build on."

Nutter, a graduate of Hamilton (Ohio)

High School, participated in the groundbreaking ceremonies in August 1986. Nutter entered the UK College of Engineering following high school and worked his way through college as an electrician. He left UK before graduation and passed the State of Ohio's examination for stationary engineers, becoming the youngest licensed stationary engineer in the state.

He worked three years for Proctor & Gamble's Power Division before returning to UK to receive his bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering in 1943.

After serving with distinction with the engineering division at WrightPatterson Air Force Base, Nutter became president of Elano Corporation. He later became president of Acme Screw Products of Dayton, Ohio.

While the unprecedented gift represents Nutter's love for the UK athletics program, his love for the University as a whole is well documented. Nutter served two terms (1966-68) as president of the UK National Alumni Association and four years recently as chairman of the UK Development Council Board.

Another important part in building the Nutter Center was the donation of $300,000 by Seth Hancock, a center Kentucky horseman. Hancock also played a key role in raising the necessary dollars for the facility as chairman of the united effort to raise $2.7 million from private donors.

Former UK star Charlie Darrington (top) and Jerry Reese workout in the spacious Nutter weight lifter. The ceremonial dedication of the Nutter Center took place on Sept. 11, 1987, with Nutter, Hancock, Claiborne, Cliff Hagan (then UK athletics director), and Otis Singleary (former UK president) all in attendance.

Ervin J. Nutter donated $1 million towards the construction of the Nutter Football Training Facility.

CENTER FOR ACADEMIC & TUTORIAL SERVICES (CATS)

The University of Kentucky continues to keep the term "student-athlete" in the proper perspective — student first, athlete second.

For that reason, the University of Kentucky opened the nation's first academic center for student-athletes in 1981. The academic center is known as the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services or simply "CATS".

CATS is located inside Memorial Coliseum. The center, specifically designed with the student-athlete in mind, contains a large general study area along with numerous smaller rooms used for tutoring. CATS expanded during the past academic year and added a language library, additional tutoring rooms, a media center and a new computer facility.

"Our CATS is one of the best academic services in the land and that's based on results," UK coach Bill Curry said. "For Kentucky to be up there with Duke and Virginia and Notre Dame is a real tribute to first, the student-athletes, but also to our academic support staff headed by Bob Bradley."

What Curry is referring to when talking about Duke, Virginia, and Notre Dame is the annual College Football Association award which goes out to the institution with the highest graduation rate for 1-A football programs. The award, named the CFA Academic Achievement Award, was given to Kentucky in 1989 for graduating 90 percent of its incoming 1983 freshman class. Kentucky is the only other school to win the award outside that trio.

"We get more response from parents who visit us on the CATS program than any other part of our program," Curry says. "Parents are really excited about it."

Curry is also excited about the combined effort former UK coach Jerry Claiborne and his staff put forth as well. Since 1982, Kentucky has placed 68 players on the All-Southeastern Conference Honor Roll which is more than any league school in that period. Just last year, the Wildcats set a new league record with 17 players named to the SEC Honor Roll. And during the 1990 spring semester, UK football placed 31 players on

UK Athletics Director C M Newton, Assistant A D/Academics Bob Bradley, and Director of Student Development Barbara Deniston honored UK's Senior Academic All SEC Honor Roll members at the Blue-White Spring Game. the Athletics Director's Honor Roll on campus.

"With winning the CFA award and leading the SEC in Honor Roll picks, certainly let everyone know we were serious and still are serious about making sure our athletes receive their degree," Claiborne said.

Bob Bradley, Assistant Athletics Director for Academics, supervises CATS. Bradley is assisted by Barbara Deniston, director of student development and Mike Jenkins, academic counselor. CATS also employs four graduate assistants and numerous tutors, both from the University and surrounding community. Currently, the UKAA budgets close to $500,000 per year for CATS.

"CATS is an incredible advantage to a student-athlete over another without an academic center," Bradley says. "This is a medium which the student-athlete can get any question about his or her academic endeavors answered."

"Our CATS is one of the best academic services in the land and that's based on results. For Kentucky to be up there with Duke and Virginia and Notre Dame is a real tribute to first, the student-athletes, but also to our academic support staff headed by Bob Bradley."

Bill Curry
UK Coach

Bradley also says it helps to have head coaches like Claiborne and Curry that place such a strong emphasis on academics.

"Many support systems across the nation do an excellent job at helping their student-athletes," Bradley said. "I have been blessed at Kentucky in having Jerry Claiborne. He really believed in the student-athlete concept. The same holds true for Bill Curry. We are in total sync in the business of educating our student-athletes."

The philosophy at the University of Kentucky is this: Colleges should be able to afford the student-athlete with every opportunity to succeed not only in athletics, but in academics as well. Looking at recent statistics in Academic Honor Roll selections and graduation rates, Kentucky is standing by its philosophy.

"We will continue to support our academic staff to the hilt," Curry said. "We're very excited about the work Bob Bradley and his staff have done. We will not accept anything less from our players. We talk about championship performance, we expect championship academics, too."

At UK, CATS will certainly play an instrumental part in keeping student-athletes at championship performance in the classroom and on the field.

Claiborne's emphasis on classroom brings UK football academic award

By SCOTT FOWLER
Staff Writer

LEXINGTON, Ky. — Although Jerry Claiborne doesn't follow his football players to every class, they study as though he is sitting on their shoulders.

More evidence of that came yesterday when the University of Kentucky won the College Football Association Academic Achievement Award. By graduating 90 percent of its players out of the incoming class of 1983, UK placed itself in the select company of Duke, Notre Dame and Virginia — who until yesterday had been the only recipients of the award since it was created in 1981.

"I know how important academics are, and our staff knows how important they are," Claiborne said yesterday. "Most of our players want to be in that 1 percent of players who go on to play professional football. But 99 percent of them won't get that, and you've got to have that academic background to fall back on. ... We're very interested in our players obtaining that degree, and they know it."

Bob Bradley, an assistant UK athletics director and the head of the school's Center for Academic and Tutorial Services, supervises the academic-support system for all sports, which includes tutoring and monitoring each player's academic progress.

UK's football players attend mandatory study halls, punching a time card to show how much time they have spent there.

The system has worked. Eighteen of the 20 players who entered UK in 1983 had graduated by the summer of 1988, which the survey specified as the cutoff date. A year ago UK reported it graduated 19 of 21 players from the incoming class of 1982 (90.5 percent), only to be beaten out by Notre Dame, which had a 100 percent graduation rate. UK was among the top five schools last year.

Those two years haven't been a fluke. During Claiborne's seven-year tenure at UK, the school also has led the Southeastern Conference in academic all-SEC selections.

The College Football Association includes 66 Division I-A programs, with Big Ten and Pacific 10 schools being the most prominent non-members. The organization received 53 survey responses to this year's questionnaire. The overall graduation rate reported was 49.7 percent, a slight decline from last year's all-time high of 50.7 percent.

UK officials hailed the football team's achievements yesterday, as well as Claiborne's role.

"This is a fitting tribute to the kind of football program we have at the University of Kentucky," UK President David Roselle said. "It is also a fitting tribute to coach Claiborne, whose emphasis on academics in a competitive athletics program has made this award possible."

UK athletics director C.M. Newton said he would be proud of the award even if he hadn't moved to UK from Vanderbilt recently.

"As an alumnus of the university, it's really a great source of pride," Newton said. "Even if I weren't here, I'd feel that. It all goes back to that one guy, the head coach. If education is not important to the head coach, then his players don't graduate. If it is important to him, it will be important to his players. I couldn't be prouder of Jerry and his team."

Claiborne said Bradley and his staff at the CATS center deserve much of the credit for the award. Bradley said, "I think congratulations have to go to coach Claiborne. ... Many support systems across the country do an excellent job at helping their student-athletes. I am blessed at Kentucky in having Jerry Claiborne. He really believes in the student-athlete. We are totally in sync."

The Memphis Touchdown Club will present the award to UK officials in December at the Liberty Bowl luncheon in Memphis, Tenn. Claiborne hopes his team will be preparing for a bowl game of its own then.

"We're all delighted to win this award," said Claiborne, who has a 35-41-3 record during his career at Kentucky. "But we want to win that other championship, too."

COMMONWEALTH STADIUM

When it comes to football, Kentucky-style, there is certainly no better place than home — Commonwealth Stadium.

Beautiful Commonwealth Stadium, built in 1973, is one of the nation's showcases for football arenas. The stadium is located on the southeast corner of the University of Kentucky campus, convenient to both Cooper and Alumni Drives.

Commonwealth Stadium was built at a cost of $12 million by the firm of Huber, Hunt and Nichols, Inc. The stadium, including parking areas, rests on an 86-acre plot of what was once the UK Experimental Station Farm grounds.

"Aesthetically, Commonwealth Stadium is the prettiest in America. I've always thought this since I first witnessed a game here in 1975 as a pro scout.

"I can just imagine it being incredible — a Saturday afternoon at Commonwealth Stadium — with the ambiance, the tailgating, the Blue and White all throughout the stadium. It makes me think of the ideal college setting."

The stadium takes on a new look this fall with the addition of a $600,000 scoreboard and message center located in the North end zone. The scoreboard is 19 by 78 feet in size, almost 3.5 times the size (12 by 19) of the original scoreboards which have been in place since 1973.

The stadium was officially opened on Sept. 15, 1973, as the Wildcats moved into their new home after spending 48 years at Stoll Field/McLean Stadium across from Memorial Coliseum. Kentucky defeated Virginia Tech in the stadium-opener, 31-26, as quarterback Ernie Lewis accounted for three touchdowns to lead the Wildcats.

Since its opening, Kentucky has played an even 107 games within the friendly confines of Commonwealth Stadium. And indeed, a 61-43-3 record and a .584 winning percentage can attest Commonwealth is a "home-field advantage" for the Wildcats.

Excellent attendance figures have also gone hand-in-hand with Kentucky football and Commonwealth Stadium. The Wildcats have averaged 55,203 spectators in the 107 contests at Commonwealth since its inception. In fact, 5,906,699 spectators have witnessed Kentucky football at Commonwealth Stadium — that's approximately 1.6 times the population of Kentucky.

The five-millionth person to attend a UK football game in Commonwealth Stadium was Jack Crowe of Lexington. Mr. Crowe walked through the turnstile as number 5,000,000 at 1 pm on Oct. 3, 1987, as Kentucky hosted Ohio.

The official seating capacity at Commonwealth Stadium is 57,800, though standing-room only crowds will exceed that figure. As was the case on Oct. 12, 1985, as a Commonwealth Stadium-record crowd of 58,345 witnessed the Wildcats defeat Mississippi State 33-19. The second largest crowd, incidentally, was a week earlier as 58,230 watched Kentucky defeat Clemson 26-7 on Oct. 5. The third largest crowd (58,216) watched Kentucky defeat Indiana, 17-14, last September.

All seating in Commonwealth Stadium is aluminum, with more than 30 percent of the aluminum seating either chair-back or bench-back.

An enclosed press box, which comfortably seats 120 members of the media, is located underneath the upper deck on the stadium's west side. Included in the press box area are eight private booths (four VIPs), a photography deck, and two dining areas. The press box is served by two elevators.

Plans call for eventually enclosing the south end (Tates Creek Road) of Commonwealth Stadium to bring its capacity to 72,000. Also, the addition of luxury suites and boxes is in UK's plans.

Commonwealth Stadium is home sweet home for the Wildcats.

KENTUCKY STRENGTH PROGRAM

Just a quick glance at the weight room in the Nutter Football Training Facility is enough to know the University of Kentucky is serious about strength training.

Indeed. The addition of Coach Bill Curry does not diminish the importance strength training plays in Southeastern Conference football. If anything, the significance of the UK strength program under Curry has magnified.

Curry, a former center at Georgia Tech and in the National Football League, knows the edge in football lies in the weight room.

"We have a sign mounted in the Nutter Center weight room," Curry says. "The statement says 'There is no substitute for strength and no excuse for the lack of it'."

"Our players are required to read it everyday. That sums up our approach to strength training. We want to be the best conditioned football team, not only in the Southeastern Conference, but in the country. Games are won in the fourth quarter and that's where great physical conditioning comes into play."

As far as facilities go, Wildcats football players have one of the nation's best weight rooms to work with.

"The facility is unbelievable," Curry said. "I can't imagine anyone needing anymore than what we have in our weight facility."

For starters, the UK weight room is 9,000 square foot. In free weights alone, UK has 100,000 pounds of equipment—75,000 in free weights and an additional 25,000 in dumb bells.

To complement the free weights, UK has an abundance of Nautilus equipment, stationary bikes and treadmills.

According to Curry, another aspect which is a plus for UK in the strength coach. Curry thinks Mike Florence, the Cats strength coach, is the perfect individual for the task at hand.

"We're very blessed here at Kentucky to have Mike Florence as our strength coach," Curry says. "My first indication to the type of job he does is that our squad is relatively strong, even though we lost a lot of strong players to graduation. But after watching him work for five months, I know Mike has that rare blend of a calm presence but with a driving discipline. That's exactly what a strength coach has to have."

As far as UK records go, former All-Southeastern Conference tackle Oliver Barnett holds the dubious honor of the strongest Cat. A year ago, Barnett set a UK mark by lifting a total of 1,655 pounds in three lifts (bench, squat and clean). He shattered the old mark of 1,570 by Dermonti Dawson. Both are on NFL rosters, Barnett with the Atlanta Falcons and Dawson with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

For the current Cats, below is a list of 1990 leaders in several categories.

40-yard Dash (grass): 4.40, by Gary Willis
Bench Press: 490, by Jody Matthews
Clean: 380, by Dean Wells
Olympic Squat: 650, by Jon Collins
Total Lifts: 1,410, by Jody Matthews

The Nutter Center Weight Room encompasses 9,000 square feet with over 100,000 pounds of equipment.

HEALTH & EQUIPMENT

The Kentucky Football Program is concerned about the health of its athletes

The Kentucky medical staff takes a back seat to no one. Three team physicians — Dr. James Andrews, Dr. Mary Lloyd Ireland, and Dr. John Perrine — and a first class training staff handle all athletes' needs on a daily basis. Headed by trainer Al Green, associate Sue Stanley and assistant JoAnn Hauser, the UK Football training staff also consists of three graduate assistants and 12 student assistants.

"I think our training staff — our trainers, graduate assistants, student assistants and team physicians — are among the very best in the business," former UK coach Jerry Claiborne said. "We've had some serious injuries, but the rehabilitation of those injuries was outstanding.

"On a day-to-day basis, our training staff does as good a job with our athletes as anyone in the country."

New UK coach Bill Curry concurs.

"I've been extremely impressed with our medical staff headed by Al Green," Curry says. "Our staff has an excellent rapport with our players and that's important. Our team physicians are outstanding."

The Nutter Center training room is also first rate. The training room is over 5,000 square feet and includes ample space for taping and treatment, as well as a separate rehabilitation room, physician's and trainer's offices.

Equipment and proper fitting is another key element in an athlete's health. UK equipment manager Tom Kalinowski personally fits each player with the appropriate equipment — helmet, shoes, shoulder pads, etc... — according to height, weight and position.

In all, Kalinowski estimates UK spends $2000 per player on equipment ranging from practice to game gear — another area which UK does not take a backseat.

Kalinowski and his staff of 10 student assistants are involved in daily maintenance, repair and cleaning of each athlete's equipment. These procedures are necessary as another measure in prevention of injuries.

Indeed, an athlete's health is important at Kentucky.

The 5,400-square foot Nutter Training Room has ample space for taping and treatment.

LEXINGTON THE CITY

This is a place where the past and present meet and mesh gracefully.

Where downtown skyscrapers overlook thousands of acres of lush pastures, home to Kentucky's most famous resident — the horse.

This is Lexington, home of the University of Kentucky

Lexington is one beauty of a city. John O Simonds, a nationally-known landscape architect and the author of several books on land use, calls the Bluegrass area a "national treasure. The Bluegrass area is superlative countryside." Lexington is the heart of the Bluegrass, the metropolitan shopping, commercial and entertainment hub of eastern Kentucky.

Lexington has all the attractive qualities of a major metropolitan area, but it is small...and there is an overlay of what can be described as Blue Grass tradition to go along with such major companies as IBM, Ashland Oil (Valvoline), Jerrico, Island Creek Coal, Toyota and many other nationally known firms that have major plants or headquarters in the area.

With a population of around 225,000, Lexington is small enough to provide the perfect college atmosphere for the University of Kentucky. But it is also large enough to offer the cultural opportunities usually reserved for larger cities

ton Singers, a Council of the Arts, and a local Ballet Company. Movie theaters, international restaurants, coffee-houses, top-ranked acts of all types at fabulous Rupp Arena in the Lexington Center, historical landmarks, parks, thoroughbred and harness racing, fine fishing in lakes, ponds, and streams, and the internationally famous Kentucky Horse Park, all in easy distance of the UK campus, are just a few attractions of Lexington and the University of Kentucky

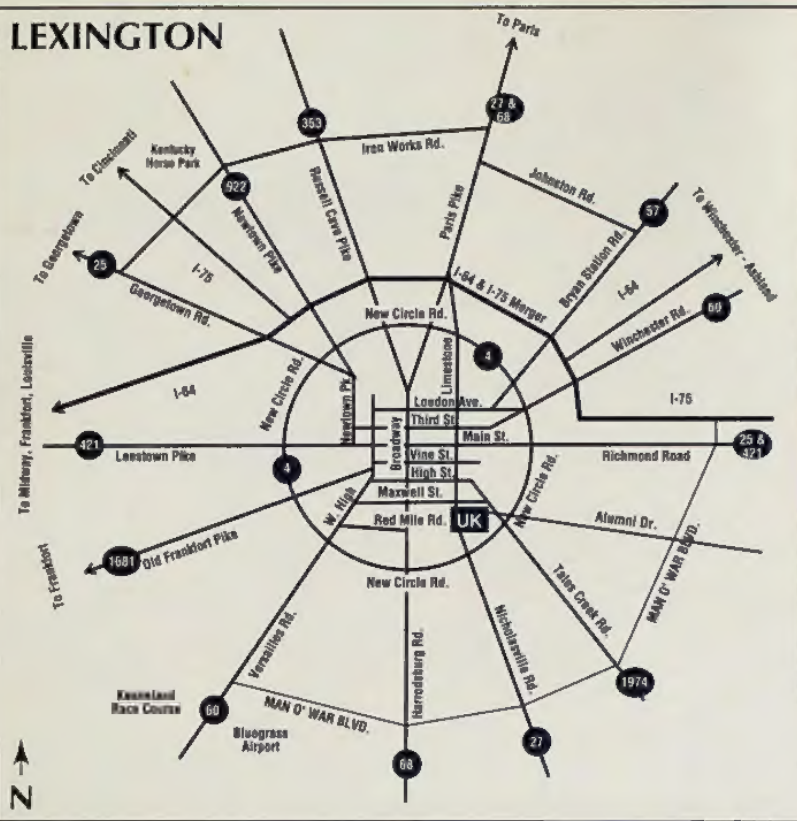

A recent statewide poll indicated that the Lexington area is the most popular place to live, work and play in Kentucky, and it's an area most residents would not seriously consider leaving

The University of Kentucky is serious about football. UK athletics is making a $7 million commitment when it breaks ground on a new indoor fieldhouse this September.

"The advantage of an indoor facility is we will never miss practice because of the weather," UK Coach Bill Curry says. "The unique thing about this indoor facility is the ability to do everything indoors what we can do outdoors, and that includes punting. A major feature of the facility would be the football field. The field itself will be stunning."

As far as Curry is concerned, this is the final piece of the puzzle. Already, UK has beautiful Commonwealth Stadium as its home on game days and an ultra-modern $6 million E.J. Nutter Football Training Facility, which opened in 1987.

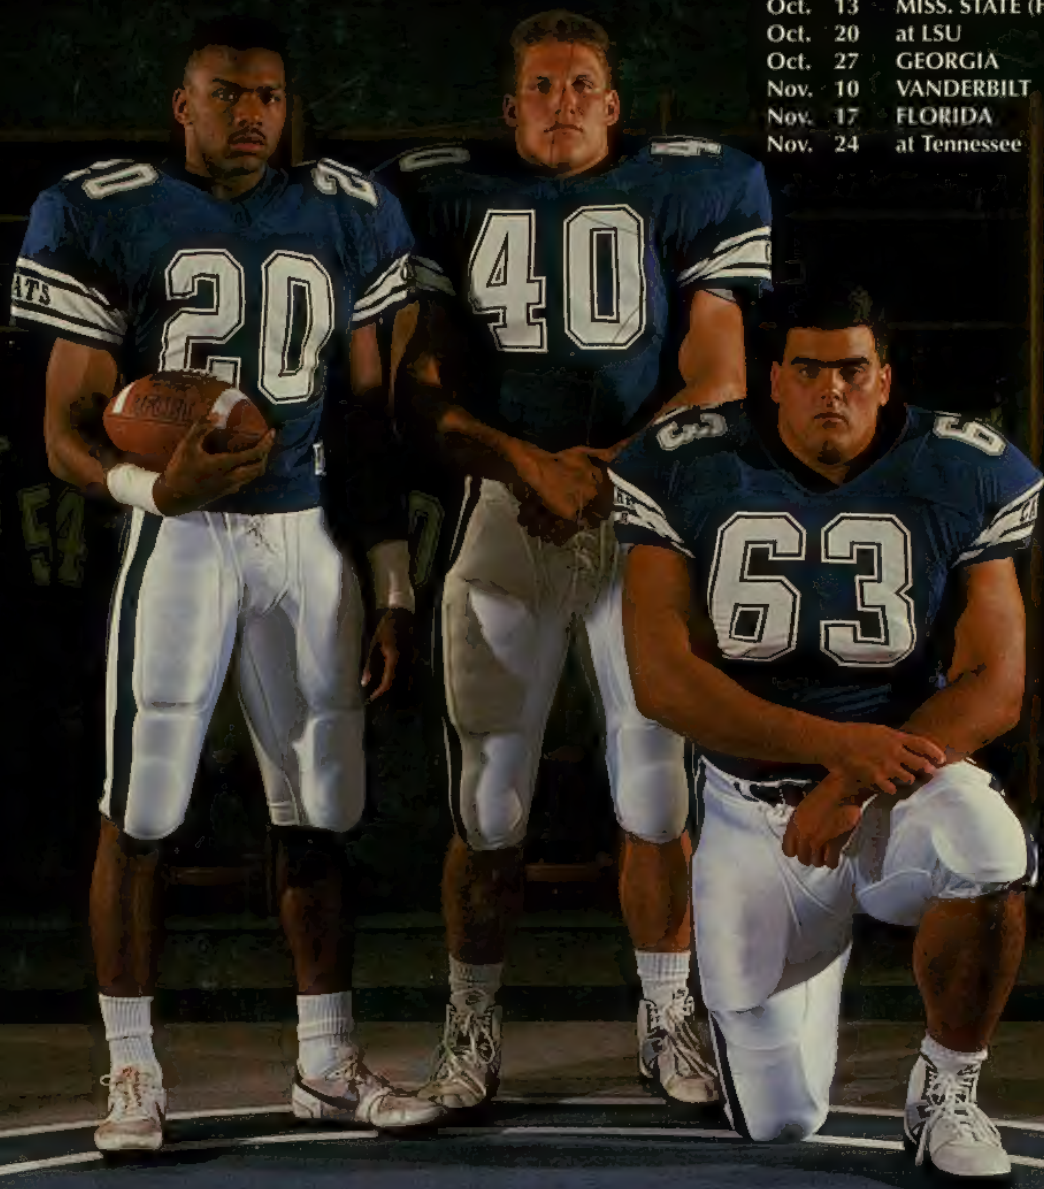

Another attractive feature in 1990 is the addition of a $600,000 state-of-the-art scoreboard/message center located in the North end zone at Commonwealth Stadium. The scoreboard is 19 feet tall by 78 feet wide, almost four times larger than the original (12x20) scoreboards at Commonwealth.

To perform on a championship level, Curry says, championship facilities must be in place. The two additions in 1990 will complete UK's championship commitment to its student-athletes and followers.
